

HIS DIG AT GERMANS.

Judge White Ends Allegedy by Talking to Brewer Eberhardt.

GENERAL DECREASE IN RECEIPTS.

His Honor Says He is Entirely Indifferent to the Press.

WHAT LUTZ'S BREWERIES DID IN A YEAR

The list of applicants for wholesale licenses for Allegheny was concluded yesterday, and the License Court adjourned till to-morrow morning to take up and speedily finish the wholesalers who may desire an original trial of the Brooks law in the boroughs and townships.

"I read nothing in the newspapers. I never look at them. I am absolutely indifferent to what they say. When articles are clipped and sent to me I throw them in the waste basket."

A resume of the proceedings before the tribunal yesterday is appended: Mr. Gever, of the Straub brewery, in the Sixteenth ward, being questioned by Mr. S. O. McKee's statement of the day previous, that he had seen the brewer's gate opened on Sunday three weeks ago to let a man out with a keg of beer on his shoulder, flatly denied it.

The list of the Second ward of Allegheny began with Martin Bretwieser, of 131 and 133 Taggart street, and James Hayes, of 135 West End street.

Next week there will come to the Gillespie gallery, at 422 Wood street, a collection of paintings by noted artists. These will include masterpieces by the following artists:

Gustave Doré, J. Walker (salon of '87), Cor. Lestrade-Frelleron, and others. The display will be open to the public on and after Monday, at the establishment of J. J. Gillespie & Co., 422 Wood street.

BACHELORS' CLUB SUPPLY.

Gregor Meyer, of 227 Ohio street, last year took in $20,000; increase over previous year $8,000, in whisky and beer sales; bottling amount to about a barrel in two weeks; bottle trade at counter to about 75 bottles per week. The only club supplied by the applicant was the Bachelors' Club of Allegheny, which had on three occasions gotten two or three gallons of beer.

Chris S. Sende and Leonard Kars apply as partners from 45 East street. They are at present unlicensed, employed as drivers by Straub & Co., apply for bottling license.

H. W. Rosenbinder and W. H. Mohrman apply as partners at 135 Ohio street; licensed last year; receipts, $31,000; decrease from previous year, $7,000.

Major Max Klein, of No. 82 Federal street, testified that his receipts had been $85,000 year previous, $104,000 year previous he had both wholesale and retail licenses; bottled five to seven barrels of whisky per week; bottle sales at store amounted in the year to $18,000; had supplied the Concordia, Alaska and American hunting clubs and the National Marine Association, had sold to one unlicensed dealer, a woman unwittingly, but had stopped when he found her out eight months ago.

F. B. Eisenble, of 121 Rebecca street, and Bernard Kroll, of the rear of No. 4 Belmont, were the only applicants from the Fifth ward. Eisenble's application was withdrawn by his counsel, Mr. Scandrett. Kroll was promised consideration.

John L. Stubb applies for license at the rear of Humboldt Magnolia street, Allegheny. Last year's trade amounted to 2,000 barrels, mostly ale and porter.

August Schlegel, of No. 21 Calhoun street, was naturalized a little over two months ago.

"Don't you think," requested the Court, "that you had better wait awhile?" "Oh, I don't know," replied Schlegel. "I've been in the business here already four years." "Then you must have gotten at it as soon as you landed," hinted the Court.

The Seventh ward list was begun with Isaac and Clarence P. Ellipetti, brewers on Spring Garden avenue. Last year's manufacture, 9,000 barrels, representing receipts of $65,000.

Mr. Anton Lutz, representing Lutz Brothers, brewers at the northwest corner of Villa and Vinial streets and the corner of Spring Garden and Chestnut streets, presented the following statement: Brewery No. 1 manufactured, past year, 18,000 barrels, with receipts of $135,000; previous year manufactured 22,000 barrels; brewery No. 2 manufactured 27,488 barrels, with receipts of $190,615; previous year 23,200 barrels, with receipts of $203,430.

Mr. Lutz stated that their wagons were not covered, and all had the name of the firm painted upon them; a few unlicensed dealers had succeeded in impostor upon them, but had been discovered and shut off seven months ago. The firm had no jug trade whatever, had not, as the Court put it, "that abominable jug."

George Kahn asks for license at 305, 307 and 309 Spring Garden avenue to bottle his own wine and beer. He has five acres of grapes under cultivation, he testified, and 4,000 gallons of wine in stock.

F. L. Ober & Brother, brewers, at 4, 10, 12 and 14 Vinial street, testified that the past year's manufacture amounted to 5,000 barrels, with receipts of $27,000; previous year, 10,000 barrels; receipts, $50,000.

Mr. Eberhardt, representing Eberhardt & Ober, who reapply for both wholesale and bottling licenses, on Vinial street, testified that last year's receipts from the bottling trade were $24,000; from the brewery, $205,000; previous year, $209,000. The great complaint against the firm, Judge White stated, was that it had a very large trade among unlicensed dealers. "A great many of you Germans who have little regard for the laws of the country," continued the Court, "think it is right to sell without license."

With this the wholesale list of Allegheny was completed. Court was adjourned till Monday morning.

Mr. Anton Lutz, representing Lutz Brothers, brewers at the northwest corner of Villa and Vinial streets and the corner of Spring Garden and Chestnut streets, presented the following statement: Brewery No. 1 manufactured, past year, 18,000 barrels, with receipts of $135,000; previous year manufactured 22,000 barrels; brewery No. 2 manufactured 27,488 barrels, with receipts of $190,615; previous year 23,200 barrels, with receipts of $203,430.

Mr. Lutz stated that their wagons were not covered, and all had the name of the firm painted upon them; a few unlicensed dealers had succeeded in impostor upon them, but had been discovered and shut off seven months ago. The firm had no jug trade whatever, had not, as the Court put it, "that abominable jug."

George Kahn asks for license at 305, 307 and 309 Spring Garden avenue to bottle his own wine and beer. He has five acres of grapes under cultivation, he testified, and 4,000 gallons of wine in stock.

THOSE DEADLY ODORS.

Argument in That Odd Equity Suit About the Natrona Smelters.

An argument was made before Judge Ewing yesterday afternoon in the case of the Arnold Coal Company and William Metcalf versus the Pennsylvania Salt Manufacturing Company, asking for a preliminary injunction to restrain them from using that smelting furnace at Natrona, as published in these columns recently. M. A. Woodward, Esq., represented the plaintiffs, and claimed that the vapor from the furnace killed the vegetation in the neighborhood, was ruining Jack's Island, and was a general nuisance to the community.

Mr. Ferguson claimed for the defense that the vegetation was not injured by vapors from the furnace, but from other causes. Judge Ewing stated that he would give his opinion next week.

A PERSISTENT REFUSAL.

Railroad Agents Again Wrestle With Texas Differential Rates.

The Pittsburg Freight Committee met yesterday in the office of Division Freight Agent Means of the Pennsylvania Company. The meeting was called especially to consider the matter of recognizing Texas differential rates. The Texas roads want the initial lines of this city to do this, but they persistently refuse.

After a great amount of discussion yesterday it was decided to postpone action for a few days. Another meeting will probably be held to-morrow or Tuesday.

RUBEN'S

BROADWAY SILK HATS, $3 00, $4 00, $5 00, $6 00.

Nothing tops off a man to better advantage and proclaims the well-dressed gentleman than a glossy and stylish silk hat. A few years ago but few shining titles were seen on men's heads here, in fact the wearing of them was confined mostly to New York, Philadelphia and Boston. But with the great improvements that have taken place in Pittsburg of late, and the general go-ahead-iveness of this city, silk hats have received that recognition which as a finishing feature of a gentleman's dress they fully deserve.

EASTER BARGAINS IN MEN'S SACK SUITS.

It isn't our style to talk much and show little; rather the reverse, and you know it. Here is an example:

BUY OUR Men's all-wool Domestic Cassimere Suits at $6, $8, and $10. BUY 'EM

Men's very fine all-wool Scotch Cheviot Suits at $12, $14 and $15.

Men's choice imported Wide Wale and Cassimere Suits at $18, $20 and $22.

The above are bargains that'll advertise our establishment from one end of the State to the other. It pays us to sell goods without profits sometimes. This is one of the sometimes.

BOYS' CLOTHING DEPARTMENT.

Somehow Easter is looked upon as a sort of a rigging out period for the little ones. "Guess I'll have to get Johnnie or Willie a new Suit for Easter" are the words of many a mother, while we write. And, mothers, if you only knew how vast, fine, good and cheap our assortment of Boys' Suits is, you would make a bee-line for our store without delay. We show exquisite effects in Kilts, foreign designs in Short-Pant Suits, the very latest shapes in Big Boys' Suits. The careful cutting and making of the Suits and the fine quality of the trimmings place our Boys' Clothing at the very top for real excellence and rare beauty. And the same care, handsome styles and nice shapes can all be plainly seen, even in our very lowest priced goods.

SEE OUR New conceits and cute styles in Kilt Suits, $3, $4, $5 and $6. SEE 'EM Dainty and choice Knee-Pant Suits, only $2, $4, $5 and $8. Select and confined styles in Long-Pant Suits at $5, $10, $12, $15.

GRAND GIFTS FOR THE EASTER BOYS.

We will continue this week to present a pair of genuine Shangay Stilts, hard wood, handsomely painted, patent safety extension, or a beautifully illustrated Easter Book, sold in stationery stores at 50c, gratis with each Boy's Suit, no matter how low the price.

EASTER BARGAINS IN MEN'S FROCK SUITS.

Careful dressers this is your chance. We'll not urge you to avail yourselves of it. Your own interest will do it.
