A VERY CHILLY CONTEST. The Old Fault of Weak Hitting Loses the Game.

BOSTON DEFEATS THE PHILLIES. Captain Anson's Home Run Knocks Out the Hoosiers.

INTERESTING GOSSIP ABOUT BASEBALL. There was precious little enthusiasm in the national game at Recreation Park yesterday afternoon.

WE'RE FAIRLY HEAVEN. Yesterday's defeat, though to a very great extent unexpected, was fairly administered and ought to be taken with good grace.

THE HOME PLAYERS. The home players once more displayed their old-time fault; they couldn't hit the ball.

THE VISITORS. The visitors were the first to make a run. They commenced in the first inning as if they were going to knock Stanley out of the box.

GOOD BILLIARD PLAYING. Schaefer, Ives and Walker Play at Davis' Billiard.

There was a fair attendance of the patrons of the one last evening at the benefit of Mr. James Davis. His billiard room on Fifth avenue was well filled to see such experts as Ives and Schaefer play together with Mr. Walker, the popular local man.

The first contest was between Ives and Walker, the former playing the 14-inch ball game while Walker played the straight game. Two hundred points were made and Ives won easily, Walker only getting 75.

The second contest was between Ives and Schaefer, the champion, then played a 14-inch ball game of 100 points. Schaefer defeated the spectator with some of his extraordinary shots. He reached the century when Ives was only 85. Schaefer's biggest run was twice 42 and 38. Ives' biggest was 35. After that Ives made numerous fancy shots which were all heartily applauded.

Van Heest Knocks O'Brien Out in Six Rounds. HURLEY, Wis. April 29.—A prize fight between John O'Brien and Van Heest, of Abland, and John O'Brien, of Ironwood, Mich., for the Michigan championship, took place at Van Heest's home on the 29th inst. Van Heest opened the fight with a swinging left hander which staggered O'Brien. The latter fought furiously in the second round, knocking the Boston man followed with a shoulder lunge from Van Heest's neck, but in doing so he slipped and Van Heest knocked him down before he could recover his equilibrium. O'Brien's left eye was closed in the fifth and Van Heest was badly cut on the forehead. Van Heest opened with an ugly left hander on the Michigan man's neck and followed it with another that knocked O'Brien down and out.

Mr. E. Weisbrod, 17 Westwood street, "I was continually having and spitting, especially the first three or four hours after getting up in the morning. Physicians told me my trouble was catarrh. My nose and throat got so bad, and the discharge was so disagreeable, that I tried in every way to get rid of it, but got only slight temporary relief."

"I noticed that I had a heavy, roasting cough which kept gradually getting worse. It became hollow, and would be especially bad in the morning. Any change in the weather would cause my head and throat to start up and my cough to show me more. At night I had another cough, and would have it sit up in a chair for hours in order to get my breath. There was a feeling as though something was bound so tightly around my chest that I could not breathe. I was afraid I had asthma, and that they would not be able to recover."

"A short time ago, having read the statement of an acquaintance in the papers, I decided to place myself under the care of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I had never before, and the result was a surprise to myself and my family, and that I feel well and strong. The disagreeable symptoms of my disease have left me, and I have gained in strength and weight."

On handing the above notes of what he had said to Mr. Weisbrod, he remarked: "It may sound like an exaggeration to some who have not been through what I have, but that is exactly how I felt, and I will willingly state so personally to any one who will call on me. I have left me, and I have gained in strength and weight."
