ACTIVE WEEK'S TRADE IN FLOWERS

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH DISPATCH, FRIDAY, MAY 10, 1888.

In the line of staple meats trade has fallen off the past week. Local receipts of cattle at East Liberty were the highest this year, and not more than one-third the weekly average of last fall.

The demand continues to grow in the lines of fish and shellfish. Supply and price of the retail market is practically even. New York orders are still on the market for restaurants, hotels, clubs, and equally good demand.

At the fruit and vegetable stalls business was reported only fair for the week. Strawberry supply has not been up to demand for a few days past.

Flowers and Dairy Products. The prices called for at the Diamond Markets remain unchanged.
