INNOCENT MARSHALS.

Their Chief Makes a Report on Their Actions in Oklahoma.

A GENERAL DENIAL OF FRAUD

Is Made, but a Few Deputies Secured Land

Claims in Advance. THE DEPARTMENT IS NOT SATISFIED

WASHINGTON, May 14 .- Attorney Gen-United States Marshal Jones, of Kansas, in regard to the conduct of himself and deputies upon the opening of Oklahoma to settlement. He says that he thought he appreciated the influx of population that would follow the President's proclamation, and that he knew that the people could look to the civil authorities only for safety and protection after April 22, when the functions of the military authorities ceased, and consequently he attempted, and he thinks successfully, to organize a force of marshals at different points where it was supposed there would be a concentration of people, sufficient to preserve them from lawessness and bloodshed, which it was exlessness and bloodehed, which it was expected would follow the opening of the territory. Marehal Jones says:

I ordered, from my old experienced deputies, four to Guthrie—Captain Barrick, A. Spayne, J. G. Saverens and H. S. Keys-together with three new appointees, to protect the home seeker agains: Inwiessness from and after that critical moment (April 22).

READY FOR TROUBLE. There had been stationed two or three companies of United States troops to preserve the peace at that point up to that date, whose functions ceased at the very moment when the greatest difficulties were likely to occur, and greatest dimentities were likely to occur, and when the thousands of home seckers, bustness men, gamblers and whisky dealers who rushed from the incoming train and private conveyances until within 25 hours the entire face of the country was detted with homestenders' lents and two or three cities of from 1,000 to 15,000 inhabitants born in one day proved to me the necessity of a respectable number of deputy warshals.

At Kingfisher I ordered John Walters, D. F. At Kingfisher I ordered John Walters, D. F. Wyatt, old deputies of experience, and a new man, Ed F. Madden. At Darlington, Ft. Reno, I made no change, leaving Jack Stillwell in charge, who had been local deputy there for three years, and at Oklahoma City I ordered J. B. Koonce, Asa Jones and Ewers White; I also had at that point G. F. Thornton, who had resided there for over a year, and who was appointed a marshal six months ago. Koonce had been a deputy for over three years, and Jones was appointed last January. had been a deputy for over three years, and Jones was appointed last January.

At the request of the efficers commanding the troops at Alfred for a marshal to capture horse thieves, I appointed a couple of deputies and sent them to that point. They were old experienced deputies from the Western district of Texas. I also appointed, at the request of an officer of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Raltroad, eight of their employes, most of whom were conductors constantly passing through the territory, in anticipation of law-lessness on the trains.

IN ADVANCE OF THE HOUR. The full number of deputy marshals in Oklahoma, appointed by me, is 19, besides the eight temporarily appointed at the request of the railroad company. I believe that a few of my deputies have attempted to file on as many deputies have attempted to file on as many tracts of land in the territory, but I know many of them have not, and, while I instructed them not to do so, when they saw themselves surrounded by from 500 to 700 persons at Guthrle and at least one-half that number at Oklahoma, waiting for the hour of 12 to come, I do not wonder that some of them, deputies who were serving without pay and only there in the interest of good order, took the fever and attempted to get a home. As to myself I never attempted to homestead a foot either in Oklahoma or any other territory or State.

In a postseript Marshal Jones says:

The country is absolutely quiet in Oklahoma.

The country is absolutely quiet in Oklahoma, and I am astonished at the false reports of bloodshed circulated by the papers. There has not been a single person killed by violence in that Territory since the 22d of April.

The report is dated May 9. It is under-tood that the Attorney General is not satisfied with the report, and that he will call upon the marshal for a supplemental report giving the name of each officer who filed a claim and a description of the land secured by him, together with an account of the attending circumstances.

THEIR OPENING NIGHT.

The County Democracy Have a Festive Time at Their Dedication. The members of the County Democrac celebrated the opening of their new club rooms in the Mellon bank building last night. Fully 500 persons were present. W. J. Brennen, Esq., Chairman of the Demo eratic County Committee, made the opening address. He reviewed the history of the organization and complimented it on its adher ence to the true principles of Democracy. The speech was followed by an invitation to the visitors to the festive board, which was spread in the former meeting room of the Upon refreshing themselves after the doughty little chairman's remarks, the company rety little chairman's remarks, the company returned to the main assembly room where they listened to an address delivered by the President of the Association. Dennis J. Boyle. The following programme was then rendered: Song, McClellan Quartet; overture, Royal Quadrille Band; specialties, Leon J. Long; song, "Margnerite," J. O. Poland; recitation, William P. Clinton; song, "The Warrior Bold," George Williams; recitation, James Callaghan; song, "Let Me Like a Soldier Fall," H. L. Aland; plane recitation, William Schmidt; song, Lewis Quartet; song, "You Will Remember Me," F. E. Meldon; recitation, Charles V. Lewis.

member Me," F. B. Meldon; recitation, Charles V. Lewis.

The old quarters of the club were too small for the large and growing membership, so that it became necessary to secure the large room in the rear of the second floor. This has been handsomely papered, carpeted and furnished. The old meeting room will be used as a smoking and committee room, and will be supplied with a sideboard and refreshments for the use of members.

A JANITOR'S BAD MEMORY.

It Causes Disappointment to a Proposed

Prohibition Meeting. A prohibition meeting of the W. C. T. U. was to have taken place in the First Presbyterian Church, on Wood street, last night; but when Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, who was to have addressed the meeting, arrived at the church, she found the gates locked.

An investigation into the cause of the matter developed the fact that the junitor of the church had forgotten all about the meeting. In consequence everybody had to go home.

ANOTHER LOCAL PLOOD. A Bank Caves in, Stopping Up a Little Run and a Sewer. IIA large bank at the head of Soho street caved in yesterday and stopped up the creek which runs from Minersville. The Street Commissioner has set a large force of men to work clearing the ground away, because the water in the creek is 30 feet deep and rapidly rising, threatening to damage some of the houses. Dynamite is to be used to-day. Mr. Dilworth's Pailure.

The suspension of DeWitt Dilworth from the Petroleum Exchange for non-fulfillment of contracts has been bulletined in the Oil Ex-change. Mr. Dilworth became embarrassed change. Mr. Dilworth became embarrassed sometime ago. Mr. Dilworth denies that A. B. Davitt is in any way connected with his financial embarrassment. Mr. Davitt was cashier of the Keystone Bank, but resigned that position on May 7, voluntarily, to engage in oil producing. At present he is lying in a dangerous condition from pneumonia at his brother's residence, in the East End.

The Presbyterian General Meeting. Rev. John Fox, paster of the North Presby-terian Church, Allegheny City; Rev. George T. Purves, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, this city, and Rev. Dr. Allison left last evening for New York to attend the General Assembly of the church, to be held in Dr. Howard Grosby's church, on Fourth avenue,

Cat With a Razor. Felopious cutting and assault and hattery were the charges preferred against Thomas Smith and William Brennan, last night, before Alderman Porter. The prosecutor is Hugh Lyons, who alleges that he was cut with a razor last Sammay might, on Fortieth street. If every man who cuts with a razor should be ar-rested, what would become of our barbers?

WHY BISHOP DIED.

Cataleptic Expert Thinks Mind Rending Had Nothing to Do With It-More Like Epilepsy or Softening of the Bruin, in

His Opinion. ISPECIAL TRLEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH .! NEW YORK, May 14 .- Dr. Allen McLane Hamilton, who has made a specialty of estalepsy, epilepsy and similar diseases, and who was almost the first physician in this country to write upon the subject of their nature and treatment, was asked to-day what he thought of the seeming relation between Bishop's mind-reading feat and his death. He said: "Whatever I say must be understood as referring to the case as I have learned of it through the newspapers. Speaking from the symptoms as stated in the newspapers, I have no hesitation in saying that I don't believe the man died of catalepsy at all. In catalopsy the patient becomes rigid and motionless, with probably a slow pulse and breathing, and remains so while the fit lasts, which may be for hours, days, or even weeks. There is no violence. I suppose I have never seen over 25 cases of it myself, but I have never known of one that resulted in death.

"To me the symptoms which are said to have characterized Bishop's case all point to his death having resulted from symptomatic epilepsy due to some brain disease, possibly softening of the brain. I don't think that there is any question that Bishop's brain has been effected for some time. I have known him for several years, and have been familiar with his condition and all his been familiar with his condition and all his actions indicated brain disease. This would account for his erratic habits before the personal eccentricities for which he has been noted, as well as for the fits with which he was afflicted, and which finally caused his death.

"I do not believe that mind-reading s called, had anything to de with Bishop's disease, and it is not right to make it appear that it had. The idea that Bishop died a martyr to the intense mental or nervous strain incident to reading other people's minds will inevitably lead to an increase of public faith in that sert of thing, and there is too much faith curing, Christian science and such humbugging already. Mind-reading had nothing whatever to do with Bishop's disease."

Element of the Conference. ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. YORK, PA., May 14 .- The Majority Convention of the United Brethren Church was presided over by Bishop Flickinger, of Africa, to-day. In regard to those who withdrew from the conference it was agreed almost unanimously that "the aforesaid persons are declared thereby as having irregularly withdrawn from this body and church, and are in view of the facts cited no longer ministers or members of the Church of the United Brethren of Christ." Some of the seats made vacant by the bolt ers were filled.
