

A RICH HARVEST FORTY-FOURTH YEAR

HARRISON A HUSTLER

But the Office Seekers Are So Persistent and Numerous That He Has

NO ROOM TO CUT A SWATH.

Solicitor General Jenks' Resignation at Last Accepted.

HIS SUCCESSOR NOT YET CHOSEN.

Attorney General Miller Writes Judge Jenks a New Appreciative Note—The Present Administration Has No Use for Ex-Congressmen—Several Pennsylvania Senators Give the Cold Cut on Various Occasions—President Harrison's Reply to a Delegation of G. A. R. Requesting That Veterans Soldiers Be Given Preference for Office.

President Harrison longs for an opportunity to prove he is a hustler, but the persistent, ever-present and numerous office seeker affords him no tramping all over them, and so hasn't room to work in and do himself or the subject justice.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—There was very little less of a rush at the White House to-day yesterday, and the consumption of the time of the President is having its effect in preventing consideration of applications for appointment. The President is a very patient man. He has immense self control and a vast store of forbearance.

KNOW THEIR BUSINESS.

Louisiana Politicians Able to Give Points to the Field—How They Work Their Little Schemes—When to Strike and When to Quit.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The Louisiana politicians are holding on to their seats as if they were on a tightrope.

THE KNIGHT OF GOLDEN PROMISE.

And to him there was gladness and acclaim. For while the President remained every day, and gave out long interviews on the Southern policy of the new administration.

AN UNLUCKY NUMBER.

Pennsylvania Secures But Thirteen New Postmasters in a Day.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—One hundred and forty-three is the sum of new postmasters made by Mr. Clarkson to-day, the unlucky number of 13 being the total for Pennsylvania, as follows:

H. J. Egan, Delta; C. D. Beann, Fallington; J. E. Jones, York; E. E. Beckman, Harrisburg; W. R. Rank, Lancaster; C. M. Beann, York; W. R. Rank, Lancaster; C. M. Beann, York; W. R. Rank, Lancaster; C. M. Beann, York.

WILL THINK THE MATTER OVER.

President Harrison's Reply to a Request of a G. A. R. Committee.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Comrades J. W. Kay and George W. Brown, and David U. Anick to-day called on the President as a committee representing the Grand Army of the Republic of Brooklyn.
