The National Gathering Here Next Month of a Worthy Order.

PARADE IN WHICH AET WILL BE SHOWN

The third annual reunion of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of America will be held in this city on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, June 19, 20 and 21. Local Lodge No. 11 is perfecting arrangements for the occasion, and expects to give to Pittsburg the honor of making the meeting the largest and most successful one yet held. Fully 1,500 members of the order, representing all of the large cities, and some of the most prominent actors have signified their intention of attending, and the local committee of arrangements expect the number to be swelled to possibly twice that number. The time set, being at a lull in the theatrical season, will make it possible for a large number to attend.

The programme has not been fully mapped out yet, and will be more definitely settled in a short time. However, this is a general outline: The Grand Central Rink has been engaged for the three days of the re-union. A reception will be tendered to the visiting members at the rink Wednesday orenoon, the first day, and the credentials given out. Thursday forenoon, or the second day, a business session will be held. The topics to be discussed have not been decided on, Among them will probably be something in re-gard to the problem about admitting foreign

THE GREAT PARADE.

In the afternoon of the second day the parade will be given. It is expected to be a grand affair, and the order expects to show as fine a body of men as ever paraded in Pittsburg. An elegant silk banner will be presented to the elegant silk banner will be presented to the lodge making the finest display. The local lodge are having 40 large transparencies, with elks' head on them, painted by John Johnson, sconic artist of the Academy of Music, and in-tend making a bold effort for the plum. As many actors in all branches of the profession will be present, some fun and witty things may be expected, interspersed with the more solid extempore speeches and solos culled from the drama and opera. In 1878 Pittsburg Lodge was instituted as No. I, the order having been founded in 1866, ten years before. At the last report, in 1887, nine years before. The Elks are noted for their gifts to charity, and while we enjoy our-self once in a while at a social session, people would find our regular sessions as sober as those of any lodge. By the coming parade we hope to show the citizens what a line body of men constitute the order of Elks." All of the officers of the Grand Lodge are ex-ficted to be present at the remine. RARE FLORAL BEAUTIES. Mombers of the Botanical Society Receive a Present-Showing Their Appreciation The Western Pennsylvania Botanical Society held an unusually interesting meeting last night, being very pleasantly entertained by examining a collection of rare plants which had been sent to Dr. Hamilton, President of the society. The plants were presented by Dr. A. C. Ziegler, of Allegheny, and they represented some very fine species from the highest moun-tains of Colorado. Most of them were specimens of the arctic region, i. c., such plants as are only found near the mountain tops where

Kennedy had brought a large basket of wild flowers, which he had gathered near Sewickley, including a rare specimen of orchid, whose lower petal is clear yellow ex-ternally, dotted and striped with scarlet in-ternally, and blown up to the shape of a bal-loon. An Aphylion imiforum was also gener-ally admired and commented upon. Dr. Hamilton stated that a gentleman from North Carolina had written the society a lef-ter in which he offered a collection of 5,000 plants for $200. It was decided not to buy the collection, because the society prefers to accept plants of its members own finding. Several new members were enrolled last night after the meeting was over. EAST END. YOUNG MURPHY MAKES A PLEA

For the Amendment, and Gives Several Good

Rensons Why. A good sized audience was addressed by T. Edward Murphy last night at the Smithfield Street M. E. Church, on the prohibi-tion amendment question. Mr. Murphy mentioned other great reforms, and pointed out the analogy between them and this one. He said that all reforms, for a long time, were

He said that all reforms, for a long time, were advocated by a minority of the people. "This goes to prove," he added, "that, because but a minority of the people of Allegheny county are for prohibition, it is no reason why it should be wrong." Referring to a man who had taken a contrary view, he asked how he would have liked to have been with the majority at the time of the flood. Continuing, Mr. Murphy spoke of the anti-Prohibitionists quoting scripture in support of their position against prohibition. In this con-nection he repeated a remark made by a news-paper man, to the effect that the amendment question had produced one good result: It had caused every German saloon keeper to buy a Bible. He also quoted a reply made by an Irishman, to whom Paul's prescription to Tim-othy, to "take a little wine for his stomach's sake." had been mentioned. The Irishman answered:

sake," had been mentioned. The Irishman answered: "But I ain't Timothy, and there's nothing the matter with my stomach." Among the numerous other incidents related by the speaker was one regarding a man who had stated that he was going to vote against the amendment. A day later the man an-nounced that he intended to vote for the amendment. When asked what had produced the change, he said: "When I went home last night my boy asked me what I was going to do about the amend-ment. I replied that I intended to vote against it. He said: "Papa, I've never had a vote, and you have had a number. I want you to vote for me this time." So, you see, I'm not going to vote myself this time; but I'm going to the polls on June 18 and put in my boy's vote."

Five eminent English and German doc-fors have permanently located at their resi-dence 315 Penn avenue, Pittsburg. All who visit the doctors before June ! will receive service for the first three months free of charge. The object in pursuing this course is to become rapidly acquainted with the afflicted. All new cases who visit the doc-tors after June 1 will be charged a service fee of $10 per month. This syndicate of physicians treat every variety of disease and deformity, but will in no instance accept an incurable case. If your malady is be-yond all hope they will frankly tell you so,
