SOME OF THE CHANGES.

Nothing in the Decoration Day and Grand Army Day proceedings of these latter years more impresses the beholder than the evidences of the losses which the country has suffered.

But though the men who fought past away, Decoration Day will always remain, one of the most interesting of national holidays. The story of the war of '61-'65 is virtually the story of the new birth and regeneration of the republic.

As to the danger which our New York contemporary goes on to refer to, of "legislation which bids fair at one time to destroy all the profits of the railroad corporations," the possibility must be recognized; but as to the actual fact, we would be glad to have it examined in its own merits.

There is a great deal beside novelty to recommend Erastus Wiman's scheme for building homes for poor men, which some of Pittsburgh's wealthy men are said to be desirous of adopting for application here.

WILLIAM ROANE RUFFIN, who died at Valley Farm, Chesterfield county, Virginia, was a great-grandson of Thomas Jefferson.

SPAIN is excited over the news that Eliso del Borge, the famous brigand, had been killed in the mountains of the Sierra Nevada.

WAVE-WORN, unhealed mass of trap rock at Kitty Point, Me., has recently been placed over the grave of the late Levi Lincoln Thaxter.

Now they claim that rich iron mines have been found near Gervie in Oklahoma. This is the second discovery of minerals in the new land.

THE PITTSBURGH DISPATCH, FRIDAY, MAY 31, 1938.

THE TOPICAL TALKER. A Quiet Day in Town—What is Hard Work—Holidays in Heaven—A Barber's Secret.

The city itself was quieter in the daytime yesterday than usual; there were no crowds of holiday-makers upon the streets, and the professions in honor of the day did not traverse the downtown streets at all.

THE boys in blue, rather elderly by some standards, marched to the front everywhere yesterday. The Brooklyn boys had the President among them.

THE Chicago police are making the Cronin murder more of a mystery every day. Call off the detectives and let in a few reporters!

THE Alleghenies received a slight check in their race for the bottom seat yesterday. They were defeated in the morning; but they expect to win in the afternoon.

MR. A. J. DREXEL, Jr., is building a new country house at Philadelphia.

ARCHBISHOP WILLIAM H. BRIDGES, of Oregon, will sail for Rome in about two weeks to pay his first official visit to the Vatican since his appointment as archbishop.

It is stated that Pigeot had his life insured for the sum of $1,000 in the English and Scotch Law Life Insurance office, and paid the premium regularly up to last.

POINTS FOR FISHERMEN. HOLIDAYS FOR FISHERMEN. HOLIDAYS FOR FISHERMEN.

The Opening of the Bass Season in New York and Pennsylvania—The Proper Tackle and Bait to Use—The Obsolete Tackle and Bait to Use—The Obsolete Tackle and Bait to Use.

NEW YORK, May 30.—Sweet water fishermen, as they say in Germany for fresh water fishermen, may throw up their hats to-day, because it is the opening of the bass season.
