UMBERGER'S MURDER.

His Alleged Assassins Are Put on Trial for Their Lives.

THE STORY OF THE AWFUL CRIME

As Related in Court by the Horrified Witnesses of the Deed.

THE NICELYS BOTH TRIED TOGETHER.

An Imposing Galaxy of Legal Talent Arrayed on Each Side of the Case.

The trial of the Nicely brothers for the murder of Farmer Umberger was commenced at Somerset yesterday. Two witnesses were placed on the stand and gave their story of the crime. Clothing worn by the accused was identified. A very large crowd is in attendance.

[FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

SOMERSET, May 31.—The famous Umberger murder case went to trial this afternoon. The forenoon and a greater part of the afternoon were spent in getting a jury, and it is pronounced one of the most intelligent juries that ever sat on a murder case in Somerset county. The only witnesses on the stand this afternoon were two very important ones, Miss Stern and Mrs. Umberger, the latter the wife of the murdered man.

The former was employed in the Umberger household, and a witness of the tragedy up to the time the pistol was pointed at Mr. Umberger, when she fled.

Court adjourned at the conclusion of the direct examination of Mrs. Umberger. The story of the murder was listened to in breathless silence by the immense crowd in the courtroom. Every seat on the floor and in the gallery was occupied, and every inch of available standing room was filled. On the night of February 27, at a little after 7 o'clock, two men knocked at the door of Herman Umberger's residence in Jenner township and were admitted. They searched the house on a pretense of having a search warrant to examine all places on the road. They saw the pocketbooks in which Mr. Umberger kept his money, and when the smaller man who accompanied Mr. Umberger into the room adjoining the parlor had returned to the latter, the old gentleman slipped the pocketbooks into the inside pocket of his vest.

THEIR SCHEME EXPOSED.

On his return to the parlor the smaller of the two men aimed a revolver at him and demanded his money or his life. Mr. Umberger threw up his hands and backed. The man fired five shots. Two struck Mr. Umberger and he reeled into the kitchen and fell dead at the feet of his wife, who had run there to ring the big dinner bell.

Miss Stern and Mrs. Umberger's granddaughter, Nannie Horner, had run out. Twenty thousand dollars in cash is the amount supposed to have been in the pocket books which were taken by the robbers, beside papers of great value. The men were muffled, as if to protect them from cold, but really to disguise themselves.

Suspicion was directed toward David and Joseph Nicely, of Ligonier township, Westmoreland county, because they had been seen going in the direction of Nicely's on the day of the murder. In court to-day handkerchiefs which were alleged to have been tied round the face and head of one were shown and Miss Stern tied them around the District Attorney's face to show how they had been worn. Overcoats, boots, gumboots and a damaged hat were shown.

SOME STRONG EVIDENCE.

The latter, the property of one of the Nicely brothers, was identified by Miss Stern as having been worn by the man who fired the shots. The handkerchiefs had also been taken from one of the Nicely brothers. On cross-examination Miss Stern's testimony to the effect that she was sure the Nicely brothers were the men who committed the murder and robbery was greatly weakened by her inability to give good reasons for it. Yesterday the defendants elected to be tried separately. The Commonwealth decided to try David Nicely first.

For some reason this did not suit the plans of the defense, and to-day they decided to have both tried together. Their father and mother and their wives are here. They sat near the prisoners and looked much more concerned than either of them.

The prisoners frequently whispered together, and during the cross-examination of Miss Stern frequently smiled, especially the smaller one. The only smile that crossed Miss Stern's countenance was at the comical appearance of the District Attorney when she tied the handkerchiefs around his head and face.

AN ARRAY OF TALENT.

District Attorney Biesecker is assisted by Hon. John Cessna, of Bedford; F. J. Koozer, of Somerset, and S. U. Trent, of Pittsburg. General Coffroth and General Koontz, ex-Congressmen from this district, and W. H. Rupel, of this place, represent the defense. Constable Rough, who worked up the case against the Nicelys, and Henry Umberger, a brother of the murdered man, sat with the counsel for the prosecution during the day. SIMPSON.

RAILROADS AT WAR.

The Rock Island Obliged to Reduce Rates to Meet Competition.

CHICAGO, May 31.—The Rock Island gave notice to-day that it would meet the rates of the Chicago, Burlington and Northern, between Chicago and St. Paul, on traffic originating in the East, to take effect June 3. It was the last road to succumb, and it did it to protect its local business, which it found would be affected by the reduction.

It is expected that rates to Montana points will be reduced via Omaha, the Union Pacific authorizing the reduction to meet the competition via St. Paul and the Northern Pacific.

The Public Debt Growing Rapidly Less, Despite Big Pension Payments.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—It is estimated at the Treasury Department that there has been a decrease of 8,000,000 in the public debt during the month of May, notwithstanding the disbursement of nearly $12,600,000 during the month on account of pensions.

The Treasury surplus is now stated at $54,000,000.

MAKING INDIAN VOTERS.

Secretary Noble Dealing Out Farms to the Red Men—A Growing Political Factor in the West—The Method of Procedure.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—The Indian office agents are busily engaged in making allotments of land under the severalty act to the members of a number of Indian tribes throughout the West. Only those tribes are selected where a willingness has been expressed to hold the land in this way, or when, in the judgment of the officials, the Indians are sufficiently civilized. At present allotments are being made to the Indians on the Quapaw reservation, in the Indian Territory; at the Yankton reservation, in Dakota, and the Nez Perces reservation, in Idaho. The work of allotment has been in progress for some time at Warm Springs and Grand Round reservations, in Oregon. There has been a temporary suspension of the work at Warm Spring, pending the settlement of the boundary line of that reservation.

Secretary Noble has given authority for allotments to be made at Devil Lake reservation, in Dakota, and at Oneida reservation, in Wisconsin. A patent is issued to the Indians for 160 acres each, or in case of grazing land twice that quantity. This patent exists for 25 years, when the fee simple of the land is made out to the Indians. When an Indian gets a patent to his land he becomes an American citizen and entitled to all the privileges of an American citizen. It includes the important privilege of voting, and the Indian vote has become quite an important factor in politics in the West. Patents to lands have been issued to Indians from time to time under treaties, so that, with the additions to the number recently made under the severalty act, there are some 15,000 Indians to hold patents to their lands.

There are some 3,000 allotments which have been prepared, but have not as yet been approved. As the work progresses the number of patents increases, with great rapidity and the time is not far distant when Indian reservations will be practically unknown. In cases where the Indians on a reservation have all received patents to land, the balance of the land will be purchased by the Government under agreement with the Indians.

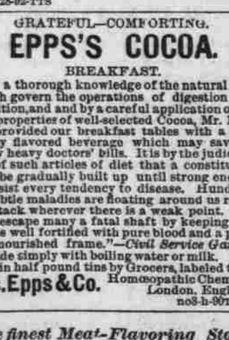
CURED OF DYSPEPSIA AND CATARRH.



Mrs. Dr. Crossley, one of the Consulting Physicians at the Catarrh and Dyspepsia Institute, 323 Penn Avenue.

What hundreds of people say must be true, and now Miss Mada Fritsch wishes to tell what has been done for her. Her stomach had caused her untold suffering and pain for years, her appetite was poor, and she experienced such a burning and distressed feeling in her stomach. Although she tried to be careful of what kinds of food she ate, yet nothing would remain on her stomach, for she would vomit up her food regularly within half an hour after eating. The catarrhal secretion that formed in her head caused much pain over her eyes, and she was almost constantly trying to raise the tough, tenacious mucus that kept dropping from her head into her throat. Her bowels were costive, and she was very nervous. She began treatment with the physicians of the Catarrh and Dyspepsia Institute at 323 Penn avenue on March 11, and on May 15 declared herself cured. She says: "I wish to state to the public and my many friends that I have been cured of this dreadful disease, dyspepsia, and gladly recommend these physicians to others suffering from these diseases. I hereby sign my name.

"MADA FRITSCH, Economy, Pa."

Have you been watching the cures that the physicians of the Catarrh and Dyspepsia Institute have been publishing for the last year? Have you called to satisfy yourself that they have cured these people, whose testimonials they have printed from day to day? If not, do so; investigate what they are capable of doing for others, and then call on them and they will tell you what they can do for you. Do you know why they invite sharp criticism on their work? It is because they know what disease they can cure and have no other way to absolutely prove their success than by referring you to the hundreds whom they have cured. Remember, consultation and advice is free to all.

Terrible Blood Poison. Suffered all a man could suffer and live. Face and body covered with awful sores. Used the Cuticura Remedies ten weeks and is practically cured. A remarkable case.

I contracted a terrible blood-poisoning a year ago. I doctored with two good physicians, neither of whom did me any good. I suffered all a man can suffer and live. Hearing of your CUTICURA REMEDIES I concluded to try them, knowing if they did me no good they could make me no worse. I have been using them about ten weeks, and am most happy to say that I am almost rid of the awful sores that covered my face and body. My face was as bad, if not worse, than that of Miss Boynton, spoken of in your book, and I would say to anyone in the same condition, to use CUTICURA, and they will surely be cured. You may use this letter in the interests of suffering humanity.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

DR. WOODS,
Specialist in the Cure of Rupture and Chronic Diseases—Office at Hotel Albemarle, Penn Avenue and Sixth Street, Pittsburg, Pa.

Dr. Woods has had a large practice in this branch of his profession without any public advertising, but as many who might have been useful and ornate members of society, fill untimely graves, whom he might have cured by seasonable treatment and given them "length of days," he has long felt it a duty he owes to the afflicted to step aside from the restrictions of so-called medical etiquette and announce to the public that he gives special attention to a much-neglected class of diseases.

Many years ago Dr. Woods went through the prescribed course of medical study with his fellow students, received his diploma and took an equal stand in the profession with the best of his medical brethren; yet he is fully convinced from lengthened observation, that being a graduate merely gives one no assurance or guarantee of a physician's skill. His subsequent success in practice is the proper gauge by which to judge of his merits. On this severe and critical test Dr. Woods has stood and the elevated position he occupies in the medical profession makes it clear that his success has been unusual. Professionally Dr. Woods relies on his own powers and resources, and has achieved a remarkable degree of perfection in diagnosis, which enables him, at a glance, to comprehend the complications of obscure, new and anomalous types of disease. He has given years of devoted study to his practice and effected such marvelous cures that the greatest astonishment has been caused throughout the country. His services, therefore, are not to be measured by money; and those who are afflicted are false to themselves not to avail themselves to the full of his wonderfully successful modern method of treatment.

Dr. Woods' treatment being mild and safe, his patients are in no case subjected to painful or unpleasant operations, and in the majority of instances they can pursue the course of treatment directed at their homes and without interruption to their usual vocations. When possible the doctor prefers to see his patients; but when this is impossible his successful system of treatment by correspondence enables the afflicted in all parts of the world to avail themselves of the benefit of his skill at a very small cost. Send 4 cents in stamps for question list. All communications sacredly confidential. No charge for advice. Examinations are also free to those who desire treatment.

More Than One Step Higher.

The old-time way of doing business is still in vogue. But not with us.

The marking of prices in hieroglyphics, or in some cloudy manner that none but the seller can understand, and gauging the customer whether he'll pay a big or little price, is one notion of it.

Ours is not a hieroglyphic-price store.

Did you ever examine the marks and tickets upon our merchandise, and note these things?

First, the price in unmistakable figures.

Next, that money is refunded if purchase isn't satisfactory.

And herein our platform is broadest and grandest, because that ticket tells the story of quality—wool, part wool, or cotton, whichever it is.

If dealing in another store, see if you can find this out.

This is the highest step, (and we plant ourselves firmly on it), as the greatest protection to customers.
