THE PITTSBURGH DISPATCH, SUNDAY, JUNE 2, 1890.

OUR NEXT COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF. Some of the Candidates for the Office—Comrade Charles Preller's Death—Rating of Pastors—Richmond's Memorial Hall—Gospel of the Post.

As the last quarter of the official term of the present Commander-in-Chief draws upon its close, the question of his successor becomes an interesting one and is already being actively discussed.

The Department of Vermont expressed its preference in an unmistakable way at its annual encampment by a unanimous vote in electing its delegate to the National Encampment to support Past Judge Advocate General Wheelock G. Vesay.

The Department of New York, at its annual encampment, elected as its delegate to the National Encampment Comrade Henry A. Barnum, Ira M. Hodges and John Palmer.

A strong movement is developing in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and elsewhere, in the question of the different classes of Ladies of the Claret societies.

The Pacific Coast Department showed signs at one time of concentrating on General T. H. Goodwin, who was a candidate before the Twenty-second National Encampment.

The choice of the Department of New Hampshire will undoubtedly be Past Junior Vice Commander J. C. Lincoln.

Any one of these would make an excellent Commander-in-Chief. There will be plenty of good material for the National Encampment to select from.

Charles Preller, late of Post 41, was the recent death of Comrade Charles Preller. He was loved and respected by his comrades.

GRAND WORKS OF ART.

Something About the Collection of Paintings Which M. Secretan Offers to Sell to Americans. The Chief Engineer of the Copper Trust & HIS GALLERY THE FINEST IN EUROPE.

There does not seem to be any necessary connection between copper and art—still less between art and a Copper Trust. But the interesting of an art gallery, driven by its interests from each other is a curious study, and the results at times startling.

The originator of the great defunct international Copper Trust, Secretan, of Paris, was looked upon, not perhaps exactly as a financial Hercules, but as a kind of monetary Milo of Crotona.

Mr. H. S. Stevenson has small sketches at Mayer's, in one water color, the other in oil. They are most masterly sketches, making a glimpse across the street of the front of the house of a competitor in business who has been refused license. It excites much attention at Gillespie's.
