

ity in the county to nearly if not altogether 25,000.

It was a remarkable election day in every particular. The novel scenes and the many exciting episodes are fully related in the local columns. To the very last hour of voting the prohibition men were buoyant with hope. It was this that made their

A. H. Leale, Secretary of the Constitutional Amendment Management. He was a man of great energy and ability, and his efforts were instrumental in securing the passage of the amendment.

FIGURES TELL IT ALL.

Returns, Both by Precincts and in the Lump by Wards—30,000 Against Prohibition in the Two Cities—Half a Dozen Precincts Split On.

Table showing election results by ward and precinct. Columns include Ward, Precinct, For, and Against.

JUBILANT LIQUOR MEN.

They Received Their Returns Sobriety—Said They Had Done Well—Celebrated with Success—Claiming the County by 30,000.

At the anti-amendment headquarters, at No. 60 Fourth avenue, returns were received both by telephone, telegraph wire and messengers.

RETURN COME IN RAPIDLY.

The returns began to come in very rapidly after 8 o'clock, and as they were read out by Chairman Duff there was only an occasional exclamation of surprise.

THE SECOND DISTRICT OF THE TWENTY-SEVENTH WARD.

When the second district of the twenty-seventh ward came in with the figures "200 against, 2 for" there was a genuine cheer.

THE SEVENTH WARD.

When the seventh ward showed a gain of over 6,000, one of the remarkable things was that the Ninth ward alone showed a gain of 638 over the year.

A CLEAR RECAPITULATION.

Summary table of election results by ward, showing For and Against counts.

Table showing election results for Allegheny city, listing Precinct, For, and Against.

ON THEIR KNEES.

Thrilling Incidents and Impressive Scenes at the All-Day Prayer Meetings.

How Women Hoped of the Results at Voting Places. The all-day prayer meetings at Smithfield Street M. Church...

THE DRY HEADQUARTERS.

Prohibitionists Take Their Medicine With Smiling Faces—They Can't Account for the Wholesale Slaughter.

Chairman Joseph D. Weeks sat behind a table in the center of the room, and the hot and stuffy prohibition headquarters...

LIVELY IN ALLEGHENY.

Dutchman Gets Up On His Ear and Makes Teetotalers Hop—Scenes That Have No Local Parallel—Water Enough for a Few.

The election in Allegheny was unusually lively. The vote polled in most of the districts was not far from a tie.

WEEKS WENT HOME.

At 11 o'clock Chairman Weeks was satisfied. He tied up his returns and started for home. The operator on the telephone...

WILL TRY IT AGAIN.

"The Crooks law was passed as a trick two years ago," said the liquor men who will try to elect their own men to the Legislature...

THE STREET EXCITEMENT.

Rare Scenes of Enthusiasm on Both Sides—Cull One Side Had It All—Shows That the Bulletin Brought From Thousands.

THE SECOND AMENDMENT.

Many Intelligent Persons Ignorant That It Was Before the People. One of the most remarkable features of the day was the ignorance expressed by many voters...

THE EX-COUNTY CHAIRMAN.

As a Chieftain of the Democracy, He Says "Pray We Won't Forget." William J. Brennan, Esq., was jubilant; so much so that he set up the soda water for the crowd...

leaving it to be heard from. It was concluded at once to close up and go home.

Mr. Wertzimer stepped on a table, and holding a glass of beer he exclaimed: "I love me the money and they are sure."

WOMEN AND SINGING CHILDREN.

Going up the stairs the reporter unconsciously lifted his hat as he peeped in the door and saw about 50 ladies kneeling in fervent prayer for the cause of prohibition.

TRULY COSMOPOLITAN.

The crowd was made up of workmen, well-dressed young men, staid old lawyers, business men, and all classes in between.

PLACARDS FOR VOTERS.

The posters in the shape of appeals to the voters were not so numerous yesterday as the polls as a person would have been led to expect.

REMOVAL OF SALE CARPETS, CURTAINS, CLOTHING, ETC.

Removal of sale carpets, curtains, clothing, etc. Geo. W. Sakam, 138 Federal st.

WE ARE SOLE AGENTS FOR THE TUXEDO SUITS.

We are sole agents for the Tuxedo Suits in Western Pennsylvania. Jos. Horne & Co., Penn Avenue Stores.

ASK FOR THE ALBERTS GIG, 3 FOR 25c, OR $50 PER 100.

Ask for the Alberts gig, 3 for 25c, or $50 per 100. Wm. J. Friday, 633 Smithfield st.

IT WILL CURE COUGHS.

It will cure coughs, sore throats, many lives, for children.

KEEP COOL!

Keep cool! Very nice for hot weather, besides giving you such a perfect shape.

THOMPSON BROTHERS.

Thompson Brothers, 109 Federal Street, Allegheny.

UNFERMENED WINE—WARRANTED.

Unfermented wine—warranted. J.W. A. Kenna & Co., Family Grocers, 151 W. 10th St.

VICTORIA TO PREVENT SICKNESS IN YOUR FAMILY.

Victoria to prevent sickness in your family. J.W. A. Kenna & Co., Family Grocers, 151 W. 10th St.

and in all the precincts except at Hyrdman's, the First in the Twentieth ward, and Fronger's, the First in the Twentieth ward.

At all the other precincts, except at Fronger's, the ladies were interested, and some were treated with respect.

THE DRY HEADQUARTERS.

Prohibitionists Take Their Medicine With Smiling Faces—They Can't Account for the Wholesale Slaughter.

LIVELY IN ALLEGHENY.

Dutchman Gets Up On His Ear and Makes Teetotalers Hop—Scenes That Have No Local Parallel—Water Enough for a Few.

WEEKS WENT HOME.

At 11 o'clock Chairman Weeks was satisfied. He tied up his returns and started for home.

WILL TRY IT AGAIN.

"The Crooks law was passed as a trick two years ago," said the liquor men who will try to elect their own men to the Legislature.

THE STREET EXCITEMENT.

Rare Scenes of Enthusiasm on Both Sides—Cull One Side Had It All—Shows That the Bulletin Brought From Thousands.

THE SECOND AMENDMENT.

Many Intelligent Persons Ignorant That It Was Before the People. One of the most remarkable features of the day was the ignorance expressed by many voters.

THE EX-COUNTY CHAIRMAN.

As a Chieftain of the Democracy, He Says "Pray We Won't Forget." William J. Brennan, Esq., was jubilant; so much so that he set up the soda water for the crowd.

THOMPSON BROTHERS.

Thompson Brothers, 109 Federal Street, Allegheny.

UNFERMENED WINE—WARRANTED.

Unfermented wine—warranted. J.W. A. Kenna & Co., Family Grocers, 151 W. 10th St.

VICTORIA TO PREVENT SICKNESS IN YOUR FAMILY.

Victoria to prevent sickness in your family. J.W. A. Kenna & Co., Family Grocers, 151 W. 10th St.

THE BOTTLE MAKERS.

They Voted Almost Solidly Against the Amendment—Information at Their General Headquarters—They Believed They Were Voting for the Interest of Trade.

simply because they couldn't understand it. Members of neither the Republican or Democratic party could be convinced that the leaders of both the great parties had agreed that the suffrage amendment should pass.

The crowd got so excited that they were not in the mood to vote. The crowd got so excited that they were not in the mood to vote.

THE BOTTLE MAKERS.

They Voted Almost Solidly Against the Amendment—Information at Their General Headquarters—They Believed They Were Voting for the Interest of Trade.

THE BOTTLE MAKERS.

They Voted Almost Solidly Against the Amendment—Information at Their General Headquarters—They Believed They Were Voting for the Interest of Trade.

THE BOTTLE MAKERS.

They Voted Almost Solidly Against the Amendment—Information at Their General Headquarters—They Believed They Were Voting for the Interest of Trade.

THE BOTTLE MAKERS.

They Voted Almost Solidly Against the Amendment—Information at Their General Headquarters—They Believed They Were Voting for the Interest of Trade.

THE BOTTLE MAKERS.

They Voted Almost Solidly Against the Amendment—Information at Their General Headquarters—They Believed They Were Voting for the Interest of Trade.

THE BOTTLE MAKERS.

They Voted Almost Solidly Against the Amendment—Information at Their General Headquarters—They Believed They Were Voting for the Interest of Trade.

THE BOTTLE MAKERS.

They Voted Almost Solidly Against the Amendment—Information at Their General Headquarters—They Believed They Were Voting for the Interest of Trade.

THE BOTTLE MAKERS.

They Voted Almost Solidly Against the Amendment—Information at Their General Headquarters—They Believed They Were Voting for the Interest of Trade.

THE BOTTLE MAKERS.

They Voted Almost Solidly Against the Amendment—Information at Their General Headquarters—They Believed They Were Voting for the Interest of Trade.

THE BOTTLE MAKERS.

They Voted Almost Solidly Against the Amendment—Information at Their General Headquarters—They Believed They Were Voting for the Interest of Trade.

THE BOTTLE MAKERS.

They Voted Almost Solidly Against the Amendment—Information at Their General Headquarters—They Believed They Were Voting for the Interest of Trade.

and in all the precincts except at Hyrdman's, the First in the Twentieth ward, and Fronger's, the First in the Twentieth ward.

At all the other precincts, except at Fronger's, the ladies were interested, and some were treated with respect.

THE DRY HEADQUARTERS.

Prohibitionists Take Their Medicine With Smiling Faces—They Can't Account for the Wholesale Slaughter.

LIVELY IN ALLEGHENY.

Dutchman Gets Up On His Ear and Makes Teetotalers Hop—Scenes That Have No Local Parallel—Water Enough for a Few.

WEEKS WENT HOME.

At 11 o'clock Chairman Weeks was satisfied. He tied up his returns and started for home.

WILL TRY IT AGAIN.

"The Crooks law was passed as a trick two years ago," said the liquor men who will try to elect their own men to the Legislature.

THE STREET EXCITEMENT.

Rare Scenes of Enthusiasm on Both Sides—Cull One Side Had It All—Shows That the Bulletin Brought From Thousands.

THE SECOND AMENDMENT.

Many Intelligent Persons Ignorant That It Was Before the People. One of the most remarkable features of the day was the ignorance expressed by many voters.

THE EX-COUNTY CHAIRMAN.

As a Chieftain of the Democracy, He Says "Pray We Won't Forget." William J. Brennan, Esq., was jubilant; so much so that he set up the soda water for the crowd.

THOMPSON BROTHERS.

Thompson Brothers, 109 Federal Street, Allegheny.

UNFERMENED WINE—WARRANTED.

Unfermented wine—warranted. J.W. A. Kenna & Co., Family Grocers, 151 W. 10th St.

VICTORIA TO PREVENT SICKNESS IN YOUR FAMILY.

Victoria to prevent sickness in your family. J.W. A. Kenna & Co., Family Grocers, 151 W. 10th St.

THE BOTTLE MAKERS.

They Voted Almost Solidly Against the Amendment—Information at Their General Headquarters—They Believed They Were Voting for the Interest of Trade.

and in all the precincts except at Hyrdman's, the First in the Twentieth ward, and Fronger's, the First in the Twentieth ward.

At all the other precincts, except at Fronger's, the ladies were interested, and some were treated with respect.

THE DRY HEADQUARTERS.

Prohibitionists Take Their Medicine With Smiling Faces—They Can't Account for the Wholesale Slaughter.

LIVELY IN ALLEGHENY.

Dutchman Gets Up On His Ear and Makes Teetotalers Hop—Scenes That Have No Local Parallel—Water Enough for a Few.

WEEKS WENT HOME.

At 11 o'clock Chairman Weeks was satisfied. He tied up his returns and started for home.

WILL TRY IT AGAIN.

"The Crooks law was passed as a trick two years ago," said the liquor men who will try to elect their own men to the Legislature.

THE STREET EXCITEMENT.

Rare Scenes of Enthusiasm on Both Sides—Cull One Side Had It All—Shows That the Bulletin Brought From Thousands.

THE SECOND AMENDMENT.

Many Intelligent Persons Ignorant That It Was Before the People. One of the most remarkable features of the day was the ignorance expressed by many voters.

THE EX-COUNTY CHAIRMAN.

As a Chieftain of the Democracy, He Says "Pray We Won't Forget." William J. Brennan, Esq., was jubilant; so much so that he set up the soda water for the crowd.

THOMPSON BROTHERS.

Thompson Brothers, 109 Federal Street, Allegheny.

UNFERMENED WINE—WARRANTED.

Unfermented wine—warranted. J.W. A. Kenna & Co., Family Grocers, 151 W. 10th St.

VICTORIA TO PREVENT SICKNESS IN YOUR FAMILY.

Victoria to prevent sickness in your family. J.W. A. Kenna & Co., Family Grocers, 151 W. 10th St.

THE BOTTLE MAKERS.

They Voted Almost Solidly Against the Amendment—Information at Their General Headquarters—They Believed They Were Voting for the Interest of Trade.

and in all the precincts except at Hyrdman's, the First in the Twentieth ward, and Fronger's, the First in the Twentieth ward.

At all the other precincts, except at Fronger's, the ladies were interested, and some were treated with respect.

THE DRY HEADQUARTERS.

Prohibitionists Take Their Medicine With Smiling Faces—They Can't Account for the Wholesale Slaughter.

LIVELY IN ALLEGHENY.

Dutchman Gets Up On His Ear and Makes Teetotalers Hop—Scenes That Have No Local Parallel—Water Enough for a Few.

WEEKS WENT HOME.

At 11 o'clock Chairman Weeks was satisfied. He tied up his returns and started for home.

WILL TRY IT AGAIN.

"The Crooks law was passed as a trick two years ago," said the liquor men who will try to elect their own men to the Legislature.

THE STREET EXCITEMENT.

Rare Scenes of Enthusiasm on Both Sides—Cull One Side Had It All—Shows That the Bulletin Brought From Thousands.

THE SECOND AMENDMENT.

Many Intelligent Persons Ignorant That It Was Before the People. One of the most remarkable features of the day was the ignorance expressed by many voters.

THE EX-COUNTY CHAIRMAN.

As a Chieftain of the Democracy, He Says "Pray We Won't Forget." William J. Brennan, Esq., was jubilant; so much so that he set up the soda water for the crowd.

THOMPSON BROTHERS.

Thompson Brothers, 109 Federal Street, Allegheny.

UNFERMENED WINE—WARRANTED.

Unfermented wine—warranted. J.W. A. Kenna & Co., Family Grocers, 151 W. 10th St.

VICTORIA TO PREVENT SICKNESS IN YOUR FAMILY.

Victoria to prevent sickness in your family. J.W. A. Kenna & Co., Family Grocers, 151 W. 10th St.

THE BOTTLE MAKERS.

They Voted Almost Solidly Against the Amendment—Information at Their General Headquarters—They Believed They Were Voting for the Interest of Trade.

Advertisements for Jos. Horne & Co.'s Penn Avenue Stores, featuring various goods and services.