A FRIEND OF MUTES.

Rev. Dr. Brown Resigns as Principal of the Famous Institute

FOR DEAF AND DUMB CHILDREN.

He Was a Pioneer in the Great Educational Work.

STARTING WITH ONE COLORED PUPIL

At the termination of the closing exercises of the Western Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf and Dumb at Edgewood to-day, Rev. John G. Brown, D. D., who has been the Principal of the school for the last four years, and who is also the founder of the institution, will sever his active connection with it, and retire to the rest and seclusion which the arduous labors of the last 21 years call tor.

In Dr. Brown the history of the institution for the deaf and dumb in Western Pennsylvania is personified. It was he who first commenced to take an interest in the sadly afflicted, and through his energy Western Pennsylvania has been enriched by a fountain of learning which is fast spreading its knowledge all over the country. Rev. Dr. Brown was formerly pastor of the Third U. P. Church in Pittsburg. In connection with that church there was also a Sabbath school, and in the Sabbath school the pastor found a colored boy who was deaf and dumb. From his natural love for children and his desire to help them, the pastor took at once a great interest in the little mute, and tried to get somebody who could teach deaf and dumb children. After a while a deaf and dumb Sabbath school was started, and the late Mr. Joel Kerr became Superintendent thereof.

HOW IT GREW.

But as soon as it became known that an op-portunity of that kind could be had in Pitts-burg the number of scholars grew until there

Then Dr. Brown conceived the idea of start-Then Dr. Brown conceived the idea of starting a day school. It was established at last in 1860 in the First ward schoolhouse, and was the first institution of its kind in America. But almost daily new interests were awakened for the benefit of the mute children. Dr. Brown received subscriptions from the ladies in his church and others contributed to a fund, with which the ardent doctor at last started a home for deaf and dumb on Wylie avenue.

As the pupils increased, however, the demand for an institution became more and more apparent. The legislature was asked to grant them an appropriation. But the request was made in vain for five years, until in 1876 Dr. Brown succeeded in obtaining a sufficient amount from the State to maintain and educate O deaf and dumb children.

Then the school moved to Turtle Creek, where a building was secured, which had formerly been a hotel and then a schoolhouse. Here Dr. Brown had three teachers and 50 pupils, and they remained there until 1884. In the meantime Mr. James Kelly, the father of Wilkinsburg, had donated 10 acres of land to the deaf and dumb school. This land was situated in Edgewood and when, soon after, the Pennsylvania railroad wanted to buy the Turtle Creek property the Board of Trustees, which had diready been appointed over the deaf and dumb interests, sold the property for $15,000.

AT THE PRESENT. Then a general subscription was started by the citizens of Pittsburg and Allegbeny, and $60,000 were collected. To this amount the State added another $60,000, and with that sum the present magnificent building was erected and 16 acres of ground were bought for the purpose. In 1885 the new institution was started and Dr. Brown then became principal. Ever since the institution has increased in the number of students, until there are to-day 179 purple belonging to it.

BIG-REARTED HELPERS.

Old Soldiers Who Sympathize With the Sorrowful Sufferers.

(FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) JOHNSTOWN, June 24.-Colonel William H. Reid, of Pittsburg, arrived in Johnstown shorting, with a ham under one arm and a loaf of bread under the other. He is still here, and so is W. F. Clark, of the Solar Iron Works. The people in Cambria City have become so attached to them that they will not allow them $1 00.

people in Cambria City have become so attached to them that they will not allow them to go home.

Mr. Reid did leave once, but at the request of the Councils be returned to assist the unfortunate. These two men have learned to love their work and the people. They came up from Cambria City this morning to general head-quarters after some lumber. The Colonel is building cheap shanties on some of the lots that have been cleared up. There are about 1,200 people without homes, and he believes in constructing cheap buildings and saving the money to put up permanent houses. Colonel Reid had considerable experience in distributing the funds at the Chicago fire. He thinks the property in the flooded districts should be appraised by actuaries and relief money be divided among the people by a certain ratio according to their losses. Very poor people and the workmen should be replaced as they were before the flood, but he says the rich can afford to stand some of their losses.

The Colonel, Quartermaster Leach and some other old soldiers were sitting around a table Saudav after the flood. Two rescued girls were telling their story—how they had clung to the branches of—all night and bumped their heads together to keep awake. Miss Keelin, a young girl about 15, who lost all her friends, was brought in. The poor innocent childle When she saw her companions, with a low mean that came from the heart, she walked over to them. Every man in the room tried to hide his tears, but they could not. W. F. Clark would laugh and joke with the poor people, and then go off to a secduded place and cry. It was thus these good-hearted helpers worked and mingled their tears with the sufferers.

IT WON'T HURT LAWYERS.

Allegbeny Trensurer and Assessors Glare at

Each Other. City Treasurer Macferron, of Allegheny, in collecting taxes, refuses to transfer property from people to whom it was assessed but who sold it, to the buyers, and says he is backed by sold it, to the buyers, and says he is backed by the Supreme Court and City Solicitor Elphin, stone. Assessor Stewart says the City Treasurer has allowed the transfers to be made for many years past. All, Stewart says the trouble is that for the first time the books have been handed to the City Treasurer footed up, and that he will be held accountable, and that this is the cause of his objection to transfers. Assessor Hetzel says the Treasurer is right so far as he takes his stand on the decision of the Supreme Court, but wrong when he states that City Solicitor Elphinstone notified the board that the Treasurer could not allow the transfer. Mt. Hetzel thinks the Treasurer should allow the transfer and that he (Hetzel) is backed in his opinion by Controller Brown who framed the ordinance. Assessor Brown thinks that as the transfers are allowed in Pittsburg they might also be in Allegheny. Hest steet that the assessors cannot know that property has been sold unless they are notified by the seller. He regards the matter simply as an accommodation to taxpayers.

Some property owners refuse to come to the ceuter and some law suits are expected when the tax books reach the delinquent tax collector's office.

The Gas Trust a Winner. CHICAGO, June 24.—Judge Baker ended the Gas Trust case, as far as he is concerned, by case trust case, as far as he is concerned, by entering a final order this morning. This was done by agreement of the attorneys. The Attorney General elected to submit the case on the demurrers were overruled by the Court, which thus decided in favor of the Gas Trust's claim to the right to combine, by purchase or otherwise, the franchises granted to separate corporations. The Attorney General prayed an appeal to the Superior Court, which was granted.

BALTIMORE, June 24.-A sensation was caused at the regular quarterly meeting of the Ministerial Union by the reading of an address on "The Bible in the Public Schools," by Rev. E. M. Ellis, D.D., pastor of the Eutaw Place Baptis: Church. He made a bitter attack on the Catholic Church.

WHY THE GOLD GOES.

France Wants It and Gets It From Us-How

WASHINGTON, June 24.-Director of the Mint Kimball was questioned to-day with regard to the recent heavy exportations of gold from New York, and he said they were caused by demands from France, a premium having been offered by the Bank of France. "About the 1st of June," said the director, "the Bank of England raised, by half a penny an ounce, the price at which it would sell French gold coins, and recourse has been had to the United States, where, under the law of May 26, 1882, gold coin can be ex-changed at the coinage mints and the assay office at New York in sums of $5,000 and upward, free of charge, and without loss on account of the wear of the coin, which is suffered where coin in place of bars

The director thinks this law should be repealed, or else amended so as to allow of a bar charge, and says: "At present the stock of bars at the assay office in New York is the most available supply in the world for the world's benefit rather that of the United States. As an ordinary exchange opera-tion rates of exchange have been against exportation of gold to France both from London and New York.

A Fatal Shooting Match.

Bellaire, O., June 24.—Conductor Cassius Carbin, of the Baltimore and Ohio construction train, and his brakeman William Reed, engaged in a shooting match while the train was waiting on a side track west of here this morning. While Cassius was reloading the revolver it was accidently discharged, killing Reed instantly. The dead man's home is in Newark where he leaves a wife and one child.

best of aperients. "Having been subject, for veers, to constipation, without being able to find much relief, I at last tried Ayer's Pil's. I deem it both a duty and a pleasure to testify that I have derived great benefit from their use. For over two years past I have taken one of these pills every night before retiring. A Bundle of Nerves

This term is often applied to people whose nerves are abnormally sensitive. They should strengthen them with Hostetter's Stomach litters. After a course of that benign tonic, they will cease to be conscious that they have nervous systems, except through agreeable sensations. It will enable them to eat, sleep and digest well, the three media for increasing tone and vigor in the nerves, in common with the rest of the system. The mental worty begotten by nervous dyspepsia will also disappear.
