GENERAL BASEBALL NEWS OF THE DAY

Details of Yesterday's Home League Games, Pringle's Review and Other Interesting Sporting News Will be Found on the Fourteenth Page, Second Part.

CHICAGO, June 29.—Dwyer and Farrell, as Chicago's battery, played the game of their lives to-day. Boston was unable to do anything with Dwyer's delivery, and Farrell accepting nine chances without an error, although several of them were very difficult, and called forth great applause.

Chicago fielded with their old time brilliancy and with the exception of one error played a faultless game. For Boston Sowders was very unsteady, giving many bases on balls. Bennett's muff of a foul fly, and Richardson's two fumbles each gave a life, otherwise they played a hotly contested game, but their inability to hit the ball lost them the game. Attendance 6,200. How They Stand.

The following comprehensive table shows the exact standing of the League clubs up to date. During the week the table shows that Boston has weakened considerably, and that New York is getting nearer to the front. Philadelphia has also come down a little in figures, while Pittsburg and Chicago seem to be getting nearer Philadelphia. The race is a pretty one, however, as the figures of percentages will show:

KNOCKED DURYEA OUT.

The Cowboys Have a Picnic With Cincinnati Pitchers.

KANSAS CITY, June 29.—The Cowboys won with hands down from the Cincinnatis to-day. Hard hitting did the business, and not one of the home team failed to find the ball for one or more safe hits. Duryea was knocked out of the box in the second and third inning and Viau put in to pitch. The latter was quite as easy a victim as the former. The fielding of both teams was excellent. Score:

IN OLD TIME FORM.

King Puzzles the Colonels and St. Louis Wins Easily.

ST. LOUIS, June 29.—King pitched in his old-time form to-day and Louisville could not hit him effectively, and lost. Up to the seventh Ewing held the Browns down, but in the seventh and eighth they gauged his delivery for eight hits with a total of 11 bases, and won the game with ease. Toomey's work at short and Robinson's all-round playing were the features. O'Neill received a new bat from Canada to-day and started out on a batting rampage with it. Score:

THE COUNTY LEAGUE.

Sewickley Beats the East End Athletics in a Fine Game.

There was quite a surprise at East Liberty Park yesterday when the poor, despised Sewickleys beat the gay East Enders by 3 to 1. Of course the result was unexpected, but that goes in baseball.

The attendance was good, and the pitching of O'Brien and Taylor excellent. The Sewickleys were somewhat lucky in their hits, but their fielding was not good. Still their errors did not count for much. Following is the score:

MARKS FOR M'KEESPORT.

The Oaklands Meet the Sluggers and Are Easily Beaten.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

MCKEESPORT, PA., June 29.—The Oakland Baseball Club played the last game to-day with McKeesport that it will play with the home team during the league season, and will be glad that it is the last time it will have to run against so formidable an obstacle in the fight for the pennant. The game resulted in the defeat of the visitors by 13 to 7. Faas, the clever little pitcher who does such good work for the visitors, says he has met no team in the league who bat as strong as McKeesport, and, although he was well slugged to-day, he put up a good game, while Harnish, although not pounded as hard, pitched good ball, but was somewhat unsteady. Traner did about as effective work as the catcher of any visiting club that has played a league game here. Ho and Faas are good and the visitors would be badly lame without them.

Hartman, the all-around player of the home team, took the laurels by his excellent batting and catching, and when he nabbed a hot liner at short stop and retired the visitors by a smooth double play the applause was loud. The home team all did well. Score:

BRADDOCK CLIMBING UP.

The Blues Beat the Homesteads and Step Up Second.

One of the most exciting and interesting games of the season was played at Braddock yesterday between the champion Homesteads and the Braddock Blues. Baker pitched a great game and would have, no doubt, shut out the Homesteads had it not been that the ball became wet in the eighth inning, when they scored on a double and triple. What many people have been terming the "Bum Duquesnes," of the County League, are making things hum just now. Yesterday they beat the Etna Stars at Etna in an exciting game. The W. H. Thompsons defeated the Castle Shannons in a very uneven game yesterday. The features of the game were the battery work of Elliott and Vensel and the all-around play of the Thompsons. Phillips, of the Castle Shannons, played a good game behind the bat.

A VERY DIRTY TRICK.

Three Philadelphia Players Accused of Most Ungentlemanly Conduct.

A special telegram to THE DISPATCH last night, from Cleveland, O., says that three Philadelphia players were guilty of a very dirty trick in that city on Wednesday night. They were drinking around town, and after getting pretty full, telephoned for a carriage to take them home from a barroom of a down-town hotel. During their stops at various drinking shops the men loudly addressed one another as O'Brien, Zimmer, and McAleer, and so called themselves to the hack driver who took them home. One of them has played this trick several times in other cities, and regards it as an evidence that he possesses a great deal of humor. Of course "the jokers," in their travels, ran across a number of local fans, who without knowing the men, accepted their talk as pointers on the dissipation prevalent among members of the Cleveland team, and wild stories of the debauch were taken to Secretary Hawley and Manager Loftus. They were surprised. Two of the players named were known to have never tasted intoxicants, and the third is temperate.

Manager Loftus talked of and investigated the stories. He quickly found out the outlines of the "joke" and the names of the "jokers." A more harmful or cowardly trick was never played. It had for its object the injury of three of the most reliable members of the Cleveland team and permanent injury to the game. Complaint against the Philadelphia players will be forwarded to the Philadelphia club. The "funny men" may find that their "joke" was a costly one. One funny incident in connection with the affair was that a "fan" arose in the pavilion when O'Brien made two successive wild pitches in the first inning of Thursday's game, and declared that "he knew it," and that "men who were drunk all night before a game could not win." O'Brien pitched one of the best games of the season, and the "fan" was crushed.

EASY FOR SCOTTDALES.

They Trim Up the Greensburgs With Very Little Trouble.

SCOTTDALE, June 29.—The Greensburg club, of the Western Pennsylvania League, made their first appearance here to-day and were easily defeated by the home team. Lohr was put in to pitch for the visitors, and the Scottdale boys hit him for 9 runs in the first three innings, when he was replaced by Hemphill, who was also hit freely. The game was called at the end of the seventh inning on account of rain. Score:

Scottdales	3 1 5 1 2 3 0—15
Greensburgs	0 0 2 0 1 0 2 2 1—8

Earned runs—Scottdales, 8; Greensburgs, 4.

The Scotts Called Down.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

MCKEESPORT, June 29.—The home team has a game each day next week and is put to considerable trouble to-day by the action of the J. W. Scotts, of Pittsburg, who arranged to play the morning game at McKeesport July 4, and now telegraphs that it cannot do so. Manager Torreyson advertised the event and went to trouble and expense. He will now have to secure another club. The action, to say the least, leads to the belief that the Scotts, who are reputed to be so formidable and have been bluffing for a $100 game with any club in the county, do not care about coming in contact with McKeesport.

Couldn't Agree.

Deacon White and President Nimick had a long conference yesterday, but they failed to come to terms. Last evening the venerable Deacon said that he is not certain as to what his next move will be. He declines to come here unless he can get one-half of his purchase money. Stearns refuses to give that, and Mr. Nimick claims that Pittsburg can do nothing in the matter. White may remain here until Monday, at least he was so inclined at a late hour last night.

Will Play on the Fourth.

The following players comprise the Electric Engineers Baseball Club: Cable, 3 b.; M. Sweeney, 2 b.; Ballas, l.; Lacock, s.; McClelland, l b.; P. Sweeney, m.; Feeney, c.; Lobaugh, r.; Over, p.; Reed, sub. They play the Oaklands, of the County League, at Liberty Park, on the afternoon of July 4. Game called at 3:30.

PRESIDENT STERN FINED.

The Cincinnati Court Declares Sunday Ball-playing for Money Illegal.

CINCINNATI, O., June 29.—A. A. Stern, President of the Cincinnati Baseball Club, was fined $20 and costs to-day for permitting a game of baseball last Sunday. It was urged that there were no disorder, but the Judge held that it was done for money and was, therefore, a violation of the law.

Judge Ernstone decided the case against John Leder, of the Atlantic Garden, who was charged with keeping his saloon open on Sunday, and who made the defense that he conducted a restaurant business also, and that on Sunday he closed the bar and kept open the restaurant part only. The Judge held that it was necessary to close the whole establishment in order to comply with the law.

Greensburg Very Shaky.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

SCOTTDALE, June 29.—At the conclusion of the game between the Scottdale and Greensburg Baseball clubs, Curtis Gregg, one of the directors of the latter club, notified the local management that his club would not play the championship game scheduled for Greensburg on Monday. The reason given was that they were not satisfied with the new schedule, but it is more than probable that the Greensburg club will withdraw from the league.

An Interesting Game.

The Keystone and Allentown clubs played a very interesting five-inning game of ball yesterday at Cycle and Athletic Park. Following is the score by innings:
