WHERE HE AND PARNELL DIFFER.

A Warm Battle Between Egyptian Forces and the Dervishes.

THE SHAH ENJOYING LIPE IN LONDON.

LONDON, July 3 .- Mr. Davitt continued his testimony before the Parnell Commis-sion to-day. He stated that he would not object to joining any movement to secure the independence of Ireland it such a movement was backed by a force strong enough to justify the hope of its success. Mr. Davitt said he did not approve of the Clerkenwell explosion. He regretted the attack on the prison van in which a brave policeman was killed, but applauded the men who made the attack for trying to save their friends.

While in prison he concluded that movements by secret societies would do no good, and when released he held a conference with the Irish Leaders' Republican Brotherhood in Paris regarding the advisability of an open movement. Mott Harris, one of those with whom he conferred, had given permission for his name to be divulged, but at present the witness could not divulge the names of the other Irish Republican Brotherhood leaders without their permis-

Chief Justice Hannen said that Attorney General Webster was entitled to press the question as to what others were present, but could wait until the end of the examination to do so. Witness further said that he failed to win the Irish Republican Brotherhood leaders to approve of the adoption of an open movement, with the exception of Harris. He intended to make the land question a stepping stone to the independence of a stepping stone to the independence of Ireland, treating the landlords as an English

There is a hue and cry against the Clanna-Gael in America for political purposes. Witness declared that he must be careful of what he said, but he would say that they are all extreme Nationalists. Mr. Davitt and that many persons opposed his scheme on the ground that if the people became tenant farmers they might become luke-warm in the cause of independence. A majurity of the people then opposed Fenian-ism and secret societies. Irish-Americans objected to the scheme, holding that it would give the politicians too much power. Witness has converted many Nationalists

Attorney General Webster read resolu tions demanding the overthrow of British domination and the establishment of an Irish republic. Mr. Davitt admitted that he was present at the meeting in America when the resolutions were adopted. He stated that he did not dissent. He said: "I am a republican by principle."

WHERE THEY DIFFER. The resolutions were cabled to Mr. Par-nell, but never reached him. Witness had never di-cussed them with Mr. Parnell. Mr. Dav t said: "Mr. Parnell and I differ because Mr. Parnell is opposed to complete separation, but if he got his measure through I would loyally support it. If he was successful, the demand for separation would eventually die." Continuing, witness said he had made 50 speeches in America in which he asked the extremists to fairly try Mr. Parnell's movement. The League was founded as the people's League. It then got into the hands of politicians. Witness disapproved of the appeal of Americans to support the Nationalist fund, which Attorney General Webster had read. Witness never approved of the league was never approved of the league was controlled to the league was destroyed, and the telephone lines south of this city are all down. The mills of the Portage extremists to fairly try Mr. Parnell's movester had read. Witness the skirmishing fund.

Mr. Davitt said that while he was corre spondent of the Irish World he used the expression "Spread the light," meaning simply to circulate the paper. Witness disapproved of much that the man signing "Trans-Atlantic" wrote. Mr. Parnell entered the court room while Mr. Davitt was testifying, and remained until the session

SALISBURY AND THE SHAH.

The Premier Has a Hard Time in Attempt ing to Honor the Persian Monarch. LONDON, July 3 .- The Shah, accompanie

by several members of the royal family, members of the diplomatic corps and other prominent persons, was to-day escorted by a procession to the Guild Hall. The streets through which the Shah passed were decorated with flags and bunting and lined with troops. Immense crowds gathered along the route. Lord and Lady Salisbury were late in reaching Guild Hall, and discovered on reaching the Strand that the Shah had already passed along that the Shan had al-ready passed along that thoroughfare. The troops there had also broken up their lines, and the crowds of people were roaming about at will. Owing to the dense crowds Lord Salisbury's carriage proceeded very slowly, without its occupants being recognized, until Cheapside was reached.

Here it was obliged to come to a stand-still, and the official uniform of the Premier attracted the attention of the Fremer attracted his lordship until a body of troops was procured to escort him and Lady Salis-bury to the Guild Hall, which they were obliged to enter through the door assigned to ordinary visitors. The police on duty at the entrance stopped several detectives who were following the Premier and would not allow them to enter until they had explained who they were.

DERVISHES DEFEATED.

They Fought Very Stubbornly, and More Trouble is Anticipated.

CAIRO, July 3 .- An engagement has taken place at Arquin between a force of Egyptian troops under command of Colonel Wodehouse and a body of dervishes. The dervishes were defeated and fled. Their loss was 500 killed or wounded. Seventy Egyp-tians were killed or wounded. Two English officers were also wounded. Colonel Wodehouse is pursuing the dervishes. The der-vishes attempted to effect a lodgment on the river bank. Colonel Wodehouse immediately advanced and attacked them with a field force.

The dervishes made a stubborn resistance, but were finally forced to retire, fighting as they went. They were driven northward seven miles, but every foot of the ground was hotly contested. Two guns belonging to the enemy were captured by the British. It is expected that further fighting will oc

Nothing But Splinters Left of the Eight Cars to the Virginia Rallroad Wreck-The Fatal Finmes-A Long List of the Killed

LYNCHBURG, VA., July 3 .- The scene of the terrible disaster near Thanton's, on the Norfolk and Western Railroad, is beyond description. There is hardly enough left of the train of eight cars that took the leap to the bottom of the awful pit to make one car. As soon as the boiler of the engine exploded the entire mass of debris took fire, and those who went down who were not

The women who managed to escape lay about on the damp ground suffering from the injuries, until daybreak and many walked long distances to farmers. Passengers left uninjured did all in their power for the unfortunates. The following is the list of killed and wounded thus far obtainable:

IN THE JUNIATA VALLEY.

The Waters Nearly as High as on the Fatal May 31 Last.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE.) HOLLIDAYSBURG, July 3 .- One of the heaviest thunder storms that has occurred here in years passed over this city last night, causing a great flood. The storm commenced at 9 o'clock, and in three hours' time three inches of rain fell here. The Juniata river rose rapidly, and by midnight the water stood 15 feet above low water mark, and only 2 feet lower than the flood of May 3!. The lower streets of the town were covered with from three to five feet of water, and many people had to leave their houses.

The stores, iron mill and houses on the river bank were all flooded, and the truck gardens and farms in the surrounding coun-Iron Works at Duncanville were flo and the fires put out. The water was higher at Duneanville than on the flood of May 31 last, and a river five feet deep rushed through and destroyed the main street of the town. Several houses were struck by lightning here, and the inmates seriously injured. It is estimated that this flood has used about $10,000 damage.

Indigestion

IS not only a distressing complaint, of I itself, but, by causing the blood to become depraved and the system en-feebled, is the parent of innumerable maladies. That Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best cure for Indigestion, even is the best cure for Indian Complaint, when complicated with Liver Complaint, when complicated with Laver Complaint, is proved by the following testimony from Mrs. Joseph Lake, of Brockway Centre, Mich.:—

"Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony, was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distressed me, and only the most delicate could be digested at aii. Within the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an improvement in my condition. My appetitie began to return and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength improved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your directions. I found myself a well woman, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life."

NEW YORK, July 3.—President Edward B. Harper, of the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association, cabled yesterday to his European agents to pay $1,000 to Mrs. Maybrick, the American woman who is accused of having poisoned her husband, although no proof of death has been received by the company. Mr. Maybrick carried a $25,000 insurance policy in the Mutual Reserve Co. $10,000 in favor of his brothers, and Mr. Harper learning from the press that Mrs. Maybrick's attorneys had withdrawn from the case owing to her having no money, sent the $1,000 in to her having no money, sent the $1,000 in order that she may have a fair trial. His action in the matter is the more significant since the insurance payable to her will be void in case of Mrs. Maybrick's conviction.
