

A COUNTRY COLLEGE.

Captain J. B. Ford Offers the Nucleus For Its Endowment.

TARENTUM IS TO BE THE PLACE.

And the First Cost is to be From $40,000 to $50,000, if Built.

DR. McCULLOUGH AND OTHERS FAVOR IT.

Captain J. B. Ford, of Tarentum, a large stockholder of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Works, has made the citizens of that town a magnificent offer, in the hope of encouraging them to erect a college or other school of learning in Tarentum. His offer, as made, is that they (the citizens) must raise by subscription from $20,000 to $50,000, and then he will donate the same amount as subscribed.

A call was made on Captain Ford to gain some information concerning the project.

In answer to numerous questions he said: "I did not make the offer openly, but only to several of my townsmen, while talking over what things would benefit the borough. Nevertheless, my word is good, and I shall do as I said, donate $20,000 to the enterprise, or more if it is required, provided the citizens raise the same amount. My object in establishing a school in this town is the benefiting of those who want to attend college, but who are unable to go any distance on account of their financial condition. My first idea of a school was that it should be a ladies' seminary. I have since concluded that any other kind of a non-sectarian institution would do just as well, or even better. I would like it to compare favorably with other schools of note in this State. I think this town is well located for such a place of learning, and that that people from all the western portion, and probably from all over the State, would come, provided, of course, that it will be a model school. As to its situation, it should be inside the borough limits, and be surrounded by five or six acres of ground, kept in neat condition. The building should be substantial and neat, if not handsome; and $40,000 or $50,000 will put up a nice building. It would certainly benefit the town and vicinity, and the citizens cannot fail to see the advantages to be derived by such an institution.

ANOTHER PUBLIC PROJECT.

"I have also spoken to a number of the citizens concerning the erection of a first-class hotel, one containing 50 to 60 rooms. I have offered to take one-half of the stock, if the citizens will take the balance. Any person who has ever stopped in this town knows the need of such a place. Other towns of less population and much less important, have large hotels. Apollo, for instance, at present between 30 and 40 new houses are being erected in that town, and this alone should awaken the people to the fact that our town needs such things. A call was also made on several of the citizens to whom Mr. Ford talked. Mr. James Karna, one of the gentlemen, said: "There has not been much done since Captain Ford made such a handsome offer, but something will shortly be done to advance the project." Dr. J. S. McCarty was also called on, but said he had no opinion about the enterprise, further than having heard it talked over by several people. Colonel J. D. Travers, another of the prominent citizens, said: "Several days ago a gentleman called on me with an outline of a subscription list. He was not soliciting any subscription, but that if a move to do so would soon be made, I think the idea is good, and have no doubt it will succeed, although the business men of our town are not all able to contribute."

STATE AID WOULD COME.

As it is, he thinks the building should be a manual training school. It would get a State appropriation. He thought that $50,000 could be gotten from the Commonwealth without any difficulty. He said, further: "I heard that Captain Ford had offered $100,000. A subscription list has been started, and several rather handsome amounts have been subscribed. The money required, however, will never be raised unless public interest in the project is kindled. The intention of the citizens to build a public school, to take action on the proposal of Captain Ford, and also to devise ways of raising the money, after the State aid is had, is a noble one, and it will never get the support that the other project will."

SEVERAL OTHERS SAID THE CITIZENS OF THE TOWN ARE NOT ENTERPRISING ENOUGH.

The old scheme of opening up a fair ground near the town in gainful talks of the prominent gentlemen gave it as his opinion that a large fair ground will be opened very soon, as more interest is taken in it than heretofore.

THE MEANEST MAN AGAIN.

He Swindles a Mother for Money to Pay Her Son's Federal Expenses. (SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) PARKERSBURG, W. Va., July 4.—Mrs. S. J. Langitt, an old and respected lady, who keeps a boarding house in this city, has been the subject of a most outrageous swindle. On Tuesday she received a telegram from New York, stating that her only son, James, who lived in that city, had died very suddenly. The sender of the telegram asked the old lady to telegraph him sufficient money to pay for a coffin and express charges on the body to this point. The unsuspecting old lady, heartbroken and sorrowful, went among her friends, borrowed the desired amount and telegraphed to the address given. She then notified her friends of her son's death, and made preparations to receive the remains. Yesterday she telegraphed the wife of young Langitt, asking her if she intended coming on with the remains. Last evening she received an answer from Mrs. Langitt, Jr., asking for an explanation of the telegram, as her husband, James, was alive and well and at his place of business down town. It was too late to stop payment of the money, but the wife of New York was notified of the swindle and is now looking for the perpetrator.

PISTS AND PISTOLS.

One Quarrel That Was Paraded to a Bloody and Fatal End. ASTORIA, ORE., July 4.—John Boldt, a fisherman, who came here recently from Gibraltar, Mass., and John W. Lucas, a Canadian, quarreled over some salmon Tuesday. They agreed to settle their dispute with bare knuckles under Quaker-berry rules. After a roll of blows Lucas was knocked out by a blow which broke his jaw. When he regained consciousness he expressed his willingness to continue the contest with either pistols or knives.

Boldt preferred pistols, and they took position 20 paces apart. Four shots were exchanged. One of the bullets lodged in Boldt's forearm, breaking the bone, and another in Lucas' neck. Lucas' wound proved to be fatal, and Boldt has been arrested.

TAMMANY'S TIME.

The Society Celebrates Its Own Centennial and the Glorious Fourth—A Letter From Ex-President Cleveland.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) NEW YORK, July 4.—"Civil Liberty, the Glory of Man," was the motto and red, white and blue were the colors under which Tammany assembled to-day in the wigwam to celebrate the Fourth and its own centennial. Flags unnumbered, without and within, were the features of the lavish decoration of the hall, and festooned maroon plush, heavy with gilt ornamentation, enriched the interior hangings. The professional demonstration of the chiefs was the beginning of the exercises. With William K. Newman in the van, bearing aloft a liberty cap and wearing himself a weather-beaten black silk hat, the column marched about the hall.

Grand Sachem Flack, in a new pearl high hat and a bright new maroon and gilt regalia collar, came next. Then Chamberlain Crook, William Burdick, Charles Bernard F. Martin, Thomas L. Felton, in blue and gilt collars, followed, reciting the speakers were the features of the evening. The United States Signal Service officer in the city furnished the following:

Indigestion. It is not only a distressing complaint, of itself, but, by causing the blood to become depraved and the system enfeebled, is the parent of innumerable maladies. That Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best cure for indigestion, even when complicated with Liver Complaint, is proved by the following testimony from Mrs. Joseph Lake, of Brockway Centre, Mich.—"Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came near ending my days. For more than four years I suffered untold agony, was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food taken me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an improvement in my condition. My appetite began to return and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken. My strength improved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your medicine, I feel as if I were a new man, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla. PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Price $1; at bottles, $5. Worth $5 a bottle.
