

VIANDS FOR TABLE. Retail Prices of Filling for Saturday's Market Basket.

FISH AND FRUIT MOVING SLOWLY. An Over-Supply of Tennessee Potatoes Cheapens Rates.

CHOICE EGGS FIRM, BUTTER QUIET. OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH DISPATCH.

Market basket materials have undergone few changes within the past week. Strawberries are out and whorteries are in. New potatoes, in a jobbing way, have seldom been as low as this season of the year as they are now.

Watermelon, which has been improving in size, quality and quantity, but fall in price. Dealers in fruits and vegetables report a quiet week's trade.

Meats. The price called for the Diamond Markets remains unchanged. The best of choice steaks range from 20 to 25c, with the last figure for very fancy, which are very often no better than the 20c article.

New white potatoes, 20 to 25c per half peck; egg plants, 10c; new onions, 25c per quarter peck; tomatoes, 25c per quart; box cucumbers, 25c; green beans, 25c per quart; corn, 25c per bushel.

CHEAP FARM LANDS. An Opening in Indiana Country for an Enterprising Capitalist.

Everything Favorable for a Rushing Trade the Coming Autumn. THE HOLIDAY CAUSES A BOOM IN HATS.

INDIANA IS CONSIDERED ONE OF THE best agricultural countries in Western Pennsylvania, but land there is not valued at fancy prices.

Considering that it is well improved, and has all the necessary buildings, good fences, a large young orchard and several never-failing springs, this is certainly a very low figure.

Concerning the business outlook, Manager Wiley of Dun & Co.'s Commercial Agency, says: "The result of careful inquiry at all points in the West indicates that the crop will be good. Oats are looking well in most places, but the crop is not yet safe."

GRANERS ON TOP. They Lead the Stock Market in a Point of View.

NEW YORK, July 5.—The stock market was again moderately active to-day, with the great bulk of the business done confined to the large accounts. The market was quiet but not at all times since their activity began, only leading to a special attention.

Money on call at New York yesterday was at 8 1/2 per cent, the lowest prime mercantile paper 4 1/2 per cent, and the Treasury note 3 1/2 per cent. The market was quiet but not at all times since their activity began, only leading to a special attention.
