CLEVELAND BEATS BOSTON AGAIN.

Ed Williamson Makes a Statement About Himself and Spalding.

LOCAL TEAMS ARE AGAIN MATCHED

NEW YORK, July 10.—The event in today's game at the Polo Grounds was the batting of Connor. Roger had his eye on the ball and it was just the sort of a game that he wants.

THE SENATOR'S WOX.

They Manage to Get a Game From Anson's Team.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—The Senators defeated the Chicago team again today in a close, and at the same time interesting, contest by hard and timely batting. The visitors played in a game that was well managed and the home club was obliged to earn all their runs. Wise made a phenomenal one-handed stop of an apparently impossible ball.

THREE STRAIGHT.

The Phillies Win Another Game From the Hoosiers.

PHILADELPHIA, July 10.—The Phillies won their third straight game from Indianapolis this afternoon, after the best contest of the season. Sanders was steady and effective all day.

WILLIAMSON DENIES IT.

He Says That Mr. Spalding and Himself Are An Airtight.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—Ed Williamson indignantly denies the report published from Chicago that he and Mr. Spalding are in a controversy over the subject of salary.

ASSOCIATION GAMES.

Weyhing's Great Work Gives the Athletics a Victory at St. Louis—Cincinnati Beat the Columbus Lot.

ST. LOUIS, July 10.—Weyhing's great work today distributed greatly the victory over the Browns. The latter were badly handicapped by erratic umpiring on balls and strikes.

WELL CONTENTED.

The Reds Win a Good Game From the Columbus Club.

CINCINNATI, July 10.—The home club defeated Columbus today in a well-contested game by superior work at the bat. The catching of both Earle and Bligh was admirable.

AWKWARD ERRORS.

The Colonel's Umpire Blunders Give Brooklyn a Good Game.

LOUISVILLE, July 10.—Loutsevitz lost the game today by a succession of awkward errors, none of which were flagrant, however, and by weak hitting.

GOOD STICK WORK.

That's What Pulled the Braves Through Against the Boston.

BOSTON, July 10.—By a liberal application of the stick when hits were needed, the Braves won today's game. Umpire Curry's work was unsatisfactory to both sides, but the home team had the best cause for complaint.

ANOTHER FOR BARNIE.

Kilroy's Pitching Fuzzles the Cowboys and Gives the Athletics a Good Game.

KANSAS CITY, July 10.—Rain ended today's game in the sixth inning, with Baltimore one run in the lead. The visitors won in the third inning on scratch hits by Smith and Horning.
