Pretty Waitresses Object to Being Locked Out by the Landlord

IF OUT AFTER TEN AT NIGHT.

They Climb in at Windows Till These Are All Nailed Down and

THEN STRIKE AS A LAST RESORT.

All School Ma'tms and the Most Beautiful Girls on the Coast.

A strike of 14 waiter girls because they were not permitted to stay out after 10 at night is one of the humors of the summer resort season.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

NEW HAVEN, July 17.—Sheriff Swift, proprietor of a reputable shore resort a few miles east of this city, was in a peck of trouble over Sunday.

He had a number of waitresses and no chambermaids. On Saturday afternoon, just after the arrival of a big stage load of people, the girls, of whom there were 12 or 15, summoned Sheriff Swift into the office and informed him that unless the door of the cottage in which they slept was left open after 10 o'clock at night they would have to part company with him.

REMARKS AND WILLFUL.

It has been rumored about the city here since Swift opened his house that his waiter girls surprised in heavily availing that has been seen along the shore for several seasons.

Swift opened his hotel about two weeks ago and gave the girls a detached cottage for a sleeping place. They occupied the upper rooms in the house, while Swift and his son slept downstairs.

Elopers Who Leave Families. FINDLAY, O., July 17.—George Pickler, a prominent hardware merchant of this city, has left for parts unknown, taking with him, it is said, a traveling companion, Mrs. George Pickler, who leaves a wife and several children, and Mrs. Keltner, a husband and two children.

RETAILERS WAITING.

It Looks as if They Will Not be Heard Until September.

As is doubtless unpleasant for the aspiring applicants for retail licenses, but it looks very much as if the whole matter of re-hearings would go over to the September term of court.

There was a tacit understanding that Judges Ewing and Magee would make some indication of their intentions at yesterday's session of Common Pleas No. 2, but the legal day wore to a close without a word of hope to the liquor men who had hung around the Court House and discussed the situation in whispers. There was even some surprise expressed as it was an open secret that Judge Magee would leave to-day for his annual vacation.

In consequence of the non-committal attitude of the court, the opinion has gained ground that the matter would be deferred until September in order to allow Judge White, whose vacation would be ended by that time, an opportunity to once more try concussions with the liquor men, but this time on a milder basis.

Several applicants who have been cock-sure of another opportunity to dispense the flowing lava, made quite extensive preparations relying on the favoring aspect of things, and the project of waiting a month and a half was rather chagrined. Some of the "decoys" could be seen indication of the "hooked ferret" that "makin' the heart sick."

Mr. Josiah Cohen was asked and asked about the indications of a lengthy postponement of the cases, but he professed himself at a loss to understand the delay, and said that nothing more could be done as the whole matter was now in the hands of the Judges.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

How to Be Happy, Though Married.

This is the unique title of a book recently published. We have not read the book (although we have for sale), and are therefore unable to say by what means it suggests "How to be happy, though married." We think one of the best ways "to be happy, though married," is to make some comfortable, especially during the heated term, when the weather, the flies, the mosquitoes, and the thousand ills that beset us, all combine to worry and fret us. To the large army of stay-at-home men, we say:

Look at our window display of home furnishing goods particularly adapted for the warm weather. We will not only help to make house comfortable and therefore happy!

Which are in fact water filter and water coolers combined. Prices range from $25 to $125. We have also cheaper filters, but they are not so good.
