TRADING VOTES BRIBERY.

A New Departure Taken at Bismarck-

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE.1 Suffrage Matters and Sunday. HARRISBURG, July 25 .- Colonel Elliott BISMARCE, July 25.-The Legislative Con Division Inspector of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, who last year was Acting mittee reports an article making the trading of votes by members of the Legislature bribery. The Suffrage Committee provides for the sub-Inspector General, in his report to Adjumission of woman suffrage to a vote of the tant General Hastings, says the State is repeople one year from next fall. The Committee ceiving an adequate return for the money on Temperance provides for the submission of expended on the National Guard. He states prohibition to a separate vote of the people. that the allowance for rent of armories ought to be sufficient to enable quarters to be secured for simple company movements, prohibition to a separate vote of the people. An article in the Constitution will provide that the school lands form a trust fund which may be increased but never diminished. A dispatch from Helena says: The proposi-tion that the suffrage be granted only to those who can read the English language was de-feated on the ground that Montana needs im-migrants, and such a constitutional provision would bar them out. The woman suffrage question took up the afternoon, and just before adjournment the proposition reading. "The Legislature may submit universal suffrage to a popular vote once every four years," was de-feated amid great excitement, 54 against 29 for the section. but some of the armories were nothing more than storerooms for State property, compell-ing formations and drills to be held on the public streets. The figures presented to the Adjutant General by Colonel Elliott show that the Eighth Regiment maintains its place at the head of the guard in the matter of attendance at inspection. The figure of efficiency is the product of the general average multi A dispatch from Sloax Falls says: A few A dispatch from Sionx Falls says: A few days ago a communication was received from the American Sabbath Union asking that a provision be inserted in the Constitution en-couraging Sabbath observance. The communi-cation was referred to a special committee of fire, including three reverend delegates. They to-day reported that in their judgment this convention, acting under coumerated powers fixed by and contained in the ornzibus bill, has no power to amend the Constitution by insert-ing the provision referred to in the communi-cation, and the Chief Clerk was directed to transmit this action to the officers of the union. plied by the percentage of attendance, and shows the following result: Biows the following result: Eighth Regiment, 73.91; Fifth, 72.5; Thirteenth, 63.57; Fourteenth, 63.05; Tweifth, 62.74; Fourth, 61.00; First, 60.8; Ninth, 57.38; Sixth, 55.81; Stato Pencibles Battallon, 54.23; Fifteenth, 53.52; Second, 52.12; Sixteenth, 50.58; Teath, 48.8; Third, 46.72; Eighteenth, 43.42; Cavalry-Sheri-dan Troop, 57.25; City Troop, 46.41; Governor's Troop, 43.38. CHICAGO, July 24 A sociation toward set-the Transcontinental Association toward set-tling the dispute between the Southern Pacific and the Canadian Pacific on the question of BEAVER AT CAMP LEASURE. He Inspects the Regiment and Starts for Colonel Huling's Camp. GEOVE CITY, PA., July 25 .- Governor Beaver and staff and General D. H. Hastings and staff arrived here at 5 o'clock this morning. They remained in the cars until 9 o'clock, when they drove out to camp. By this time a large crowd from the surroundo'clock, when they drove out to camp. By this time a large crowd from the surround-ing country had assembled to witness the inspection and see the Governor of the Com-monwealth and General Hastings, who has made himself noted for his heroic work at johnstown. The laspection occupied a good part of the forencos, during which two of the boys had to be carried off the field, having been overcome by the heat. When the inspection had got into good progress Governor Beaver availed himself of the oportunity and drove over to Slippery the interval a pleasant time was spent in the grove at headquarters. By noon the crowds which had been coming in on the morning trains increased, and there was an immense gathering. The battalion akirmish drill was called at 3 o'clock and lasted two hours. The staff officers and regimental officers pre-sented an imposing military appearance on the field. Many of the visitors gathered about the Governor for a hand-shake, while time was spent in shaking bands all round. The party repaired to their car at 60 'clock and started for Warren, P.a., to inspect the sizteenth Regiment to-morrow. A dispatch from Franklin says: Governor Barren and staff General Wylle and staff arrived is the city this evening. Dar-ing the evening the Governor and staff at-
