Firm and Higher. EXPORT CATTLE IN ACTIVE DEMAND

The run of cattle, both through and local exceeds anything for months past. Through receipts this week exceeded those for the entire month of June. Local receipts are 190 head above last week, and 970 above the previous week. Prime heavy cattle no longer come to the Liberty yards, for a good and sufficient reason, viz: the absence of demand for this grade. Our home butchers call for light weights, and anything above 1,250 to 1,300 pounds goes slow. For this class of cattle prices advanced 10@15c over last week, and all prices advanced logiloc over last week, and all on hand of this grade found ready sale. There are no heavy prime cattle on the market. All this class is gobbled up at Chicago and other Western cattle centers for export purposes. The demand for export cattle for some time past has far exceeded supply, and for a very good reason.

past has far exceeded supply, and for a very good reason.

While prices have steadily declined on this side of the water for the past year, until there is a difference of more than $2 per cwt. from prices of a year ago, the decline at Liverpool has not been more than half this amount.

A Herr's Island drover said a day or two *go; "Dealers in export cattle must be having a bonanza, indelug from prices which have prevailed at Chicago for a few months past. The cutside price at Chicago is $4 :55. The cost of delivering at Liverpool will, in round numbers, be $1 per cwt. The price there at latest accounts was $6 to $6 :25, leaving a comfortable margin of profit for the exporter." One of our profit for the exporter."

One of our prominent butchers said to-day:
"The offal of a bullock is worth at least $5 more in Liverpool or London than it is in Pittsburg. In the old world they gather up the fragments,

Nothing Goes to Waste.

Calves' feet are there worth 50 cents a cwt. A set of bullecks' feet will bring 8 shillings, or $2. A calf's head is worth a dollar. I have known them to bring as high as $5 apiece in Paris. The mouth of a bullock is worth 75 cents in England or France. In those countries everything is or France. In those countries everything is utilized, while here large amount; are thrown away. Necessity has forced the reciple of the Old World to utilize everything, and what Americans throw into the gartiage pile would furnish a handsome profit to the cattle dealer of the Old World." An old-time Liberty stock man, in answer to the query: 'Is not the export cattle dealer hav-ing a boom at this time?' said: 'The inquiry for good export cattle has, been very active of late, and we have not seen able to meet de-mands in this line. "The decline of prime gattle in the past year has been much greate rhere than abroad. There has been a decline, of about $1 per cwt, at Liverpool, but the geetine here has been more than double this remount."

Liverpool, but the 'secline here has been more than double this 'smount."

"As an offset 'so this, however, there is the difficulty of securing ocean transportation. Last year transportation was very low. Rates were $i to $5 per head last spring over the previous spring. This would add 50c a hundred net to the p dee of cattle delivered at Liverpool. It is now almost impossible to secure ocean transport ation of live stock, as a number of the heavy de alers have engaged vessels for monthal alead," Fulle wing is a report of the week's transport.

Patrick, Dominion Land Surveyor, of Calgary, writes from the Summit, Crow's Nest Pass, Rocky Mountains, July 13. In his letter he says that he and a fellow surveyor had been prospecting for 11 weeks in the Rocky Mountains for ceal oil deposits and that they had struck one of the richest deposits ever found. Samples showed 91 per cent lubricating oil, 5 per cent heavy oil and the remainder water and foreirn substances. This is declared to be the beet oil ever discovered. Mr. Patrick has had registered in his own name 40 acres of the east side of the summit and 500 acres in British Columbia. As it is 4,500 feet above the sec. level the crude oil can be run off any distance.

CHICAGO-There was a dull and narrow man CHICAGO—There was a dull and narrow market for wheat at most of the session to day, fluctuations during the first two hours being within 1/20 range for December and 1/20 for the less deferred deliveries. Prices were weaker from the start. Opening quotations were 1/20 Lic under yesterday's closings, and the depression here was shared in by all odtside markets, New York being fully 1/20, and St. Louis about 10 off. Local sentiment was bearish and the steadiness that characterized the market after the early break was largely, if not entirely, due to the operations of a prominent local trader THE BIG FIDELITY BUILDING. Two booms in the local speculative marto the operations of a prominent local trades who was a free buyer at under 80c for Decem ket came to a halt yesterday-those in peroleum and La Noria mining stock. The ber and apparently willing to sell in quantities to suit the crowd at a fraction above that first was started, according to good authority, by the Standard Oil Company to squeeze shorts, and the latter to enable a few the Southwest, with some rain in the Northwest. There was some selling on a dispatch from Minneapolis that the State Board of Agriculture had estimated the Minnesota crop at 47,000,000 bushels, which is 19,000,000 bushels larger than last year and 10,000,000 bushels larger than the crop of two years ago. Though the market continued account disk prices who bought at 1½ and 1½ to unload at 1½ and 2½. Both deals were well managed and entirely successful. larger than the crop of two years ago. Though the market continued narrow all day prices hardened a trifle, and final closings were ½c lower for December and ¾c lower for September than yesterday.

But little interest was manifested in corn; trading being of a light local character, fluctuations were limited to ½c range and transactions conflued to room traders. The speculative market opened ¼€½c lower than the closing pricer, of yesterday, changed but little, and final quantations were ½c lower than yesterday. A veaker feeling developed in cats and prices ranged lower, but only a fair volume of bus ness transpired. There was more pressure to sell and no demand of consequence except from shorts. The finishing touches are being given to the magnificent building of the Fidelity Title and Trust Company, on Fourth avenue. It stands on a lot 45x120 feet, the site of Wilkins Hall, of hallowed memory. The board of construction, believing in protect-ing home industries, have had all the work done by Pittsburgers, so far as possible. The building was designed by Mr. James T. Steen. A. & S. Wilson were the builders. It is even stories high, of granite front, and pos-esses all the requisites to make it thoroughly fire-proof.

The company occupies all of the first floor, a large part of the second and the basement for its own use. The quarters of the executive officers are conveniently placed in the main room, together with the financial department, with a separate window for ladies. The rear portion is occupied by a massive vault, comfort able and convenient parlors, and toilet rooms for ladies and gentlemen. Persons who have not remarked the attention paid to this branch of the business will be surprised to see how every want has been studied and met.

It is already evident that a great many record are to be broken in railroad traffic this year. The earnings of the roads for the first six months of the year have been larger than ever before, but the business of the last half of the year promises to be still larger. Northwestern roads will be severely taxed to carry the enor-mous crops of grain to market, and they are pretty sure to get good prices for it. Dealings at the Stock Exchange yesterday were confined to Philadelphia Gas. La Noria, Electric and Switch and Signal, the transactions in which aggregated 644 shares, Philadelphia contributing 434 and La Noria 100. It opened with a sale at 2 a decline of ½, but 10c shares satisfied the demand at that figure. In the afternoon 1½ was the best bid, and there was no clamor for it at that. It was freely offered at 2.

Pulladelphia Gas had but one buyer, and he took 43c shares at the uniform price of 38%. These sales failed to weaken the stock, and it closed steady, with 37 asked. The other gassers showed no material change for better or worse and were neglected. The tractions were dull and unchanged. Dividends are too small to justify buying them for speculation. There is no doubt, however, that the stock will ultimately be very valuable. Hence it is generally regarded as a good investment. Electric was fractionally stronger, a small lot selling at 49½, and closing with ½ more bid and 50 asked. Switch and Signal was depressed, 100 shares goine at 20. It was neglected in the afternoon.

A moderate buying demand would start almost everything up, and probably not bring out much stock either, holders having no fears of a further slump. Bids, offers and sales were Monning. Afternoon. Bid. Asked. Bid. Asked.

The morning sales were 434 shares of Phila-deiphia Gas at 95%, and 100 La Noria at 2. In the afternoon 10 shares of Electric went at 49%, and 100 Switch and Signal at 20. The total sales of stocks at New York yester-day were 155,138 shares, including: Atchison, Stocks Open Wenk, but Recover Later On and Score Material Gains—The Sugar Trust Prominent for Strength— Other Striking Features. NEW YORK, July 26.-The stock market was weak at the opening this morning, but soon re-covered and advanced steadily throughout the remainder of the day, scoring material gains be-fore the close. The Loudon operators evident-ly do not sympathize with the recent declines in this market, for the prices from that center again came higher this morning. The report of ly do not sympathize with the recent declines in this market, for the prices from that center again came higher this morning. The report of the great drygoods fallure, however, created a bearish feeling among the trading elements here, and first prices were all from ½ to ½ per cent below last evening's closing figures, and vigorous hammering at the outset furnished losses ranging up to 1½ per cent in Missouri Pacific, partially the result of an interview with a railroad official, in which the status of the Inter-State Association was made light of, as well as the disappointment over the reported utterances of Mr. Gould, which the street did not regard as positive enough.

The new C., C. C. & St. L. stock was forced off 1½ and Sugar Trust 1½. The decline brought in good buying, however, and strong supporting orders soon made themselves felt, and this scared off the traders for the time being and the market became intenselved ull, but changed its tone decidedly for the better. The fluctuations were made within the narrowest limits, except for the specially weak stocks of the first hour, which rapidly recovered, and it was not long before all of them were again above the opening prices. Union Pacific displayed most stubborn strength on the fact that the increase in the net earnings for June would be about $200,000, and it rose without a setback, finally scoring the largest advance of the day. In the afternoon there was a reduction on the rates of the foreign exchange drawers, and this gave rise to the expectation that there would be no shipments of gold this week.

It was announced that the reduction might be expected, which gave an impetus to the new buillish feeling, and in the last hour the advance made more rapid progress, and Atchison, Missouri Pacific, St. Paul, Sugar Trust and schess were very prominent for strength. The market finally closed quiet but strong at the best prices of the day, but the great majority of the list is higher to-night, though the only marked changes were gains of 1½ in Union Pacific

He would work for days constructing a rude gallows and then he would try to find a victim. "Let me hang you? No trouble, it won't hurt you," he would say to every one he met. Failing to persuade any one to try the experiment, he tried to force several persons to let him hang them. He said he was determined to hang some one just to show how nicely it could be done.
