The Charters Creamery Company Involved in Another Suit.

OBJECTIONS TO ASSIGNEE'S REPORT

In the Disastrous Failure of Graf, Bennett & Co.

JUDGE WHITE READY FOR LIQUOR CASES

Several More Divorce Cases Placed on the Court Records Yesterday Afternoon.

Still another suit grows out of the failure of the Charters Creamery Company. This time it brings up the part taken in the matter by President Reed's mother. Weighty objections are filed against Assignee Bailey's final account in the Graf, Bennett & Co. failure. The other court proceedings are important.

A bill in equity was filed yesterday by William M. Seale, Samuel Griffith, John C. Miller, Henry Garfield, Orman Bros. and others against the Charters Creamery Company and Sarah A. Reed, Frank C. Reed, C. H. Gardner, G. M. Reed, James Abel, Thomas P. Day, Joseph G. Sienbeck, H. H. Byram and William Steinsmeyer. The plaintiffs are creditors of the company. They state that on June 19 Frank C. Reed, acting as President, and C. H. Gardner as Secretary of the company, gave bond to Sarah A. Reed in the sum of $30,000 to secure a real debt of $15,400. Mrs. Reed filed judgment, and executions were issued, and the property of the company in Allegheny and Washington counties levied upon. The book accounts of the company were also assigned to her, and she is now collecting the money.

The judgments, it is claimed, were given to Mrs. Reed without authority from the directors, and with the intention of defeating the creditors of the company. Frank C. Reed, the President of the company, it was further claimed, had been fraudulently mismanaging and wasting the assets of the company, and the appointment of a receiver and an accounting by Reed are asked for. Mrs. Reed held 200 shares of the stock of the company of the par value of $20,000, all of which is unpaid. It is asked that she be decreed to pay that amount. The other defendants each own $500 for unpaid stock, and an order that they pay in that amount is wanted.

STILL FURTHER OBJECTIONS

Filed Against the Final Report of Graf, Bennett & Co.'s Assignee.

The Cherry Valley Iron Works and A. Wilson & Co., yesterday filed additional objections to the final account of John H. Bailey, assignee of Graf, Bennett & Co. The former were creditors of the company to the extent of $869.04 and Wilson & Co. for $2,934.20. They state that a few of the larger creditors, among them J. W. Friend, James Pickard and F. N. Hoffman, conspired to have the assets of the company administered for their particular benefit. They named themselves the syndicate and appointed James M. Bailey, J. W. Friend and James Pickard trustees. By fraud and other means they have made the assignee, John H. Bailey, a broker without bond. It is alleged further that the combination then obtained from nearly all the other creditors an option on the assets for about 30 per cent of the face value. When the Clinton and Millvale mills were sold other bidders were bought off, and without competition the assets were sold for $270,000. They were subject to mortgages for $565,000, but the Millvale mill alone was worth $1,000,000. The remaining assets of the firm were sold to the syndicate for $50,000. Since then the syndicate has sold of the latter 3,000 acres of land in Paoli county, O., for $38,000; the Fayette county coal and coke property for $30,000; Nebraska lands for $22,000; an interest in the Kittanning Iron Company for $17,000; an interest in the National Natural Gas Company for $10,000; an interest in the Siemens Anderson property for $13,000, and stock of the Grafton Furnace for $22,000. In all eight items, for which $200,000 were paid, the syndicate received $1,000,000. The Court is asked to order Mr. Bailey, the assignee, to account for the fair and just value of the assets of the firm disposed of by him to the combination.

UNHAPPY MARRIAGES.

Several New Divorce Cases Handled in the Courts Yesterday.

Mrs. Jennie E. O'Conner yesterday sued for a divorce from Michael O'Conner, alleging cruel treatment. She stated, among other things, he once tried to cut her throat with a cleaver, and succeeded in gashing her neck.

Mrs. Josephine F. Evans asked for a divorce from David H. Evans, a glass worker, on the grounds of indignities to her person. She wants alimony pending the suit, stating that her husband earns from $30 to $27 per week.

Mrs. Nettie Florence sued for a divorce from John Florence, alleging desertion. A divorce was granted in the case of Maria Wieler against Joseph B. Wieler. Desertion was the allegation.

Serious trouble over the seizure of a British schooner in Behring Sea by a United States revenue cutter is not anticipated, though Government officials in Washington think some sort of reparation may be necessary, if a wrong has been done.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—When Assistant Secretary Wharton was questioned today, in regard to the seizure of the British schooner Black Diamond, by the revenue cutter Seahorse, he replied that it would manifestly be out of place for him to express an opinion. In addition to that, he wasn't prepared to speak upon the occurrence, because he had not fully examined the question. The order under which the commander of the Seahorse acted was issued by the general opinion that a serious international quarrel will result, in which the United States will be forced to back down.

An old official of the State Department this evening: "I see it stated by several newspapers that there exists an understanding between the United States and other nations that the seals of Behring Sea are to be protected, and that orders to the commander of the Seahorse were in accordance with the understanding. Now, to my general opinion that a serious international quarrel will result, in which the United States will be forced to back down.

Excused His Orders, the affair will easily be settled by explanation to the British Government and discipline of the officer, but if he acted strictly within the letter of his instructions, it is his general opinion that a serious international quarrel will result, in which the United States will be forced to back down.
