

TASCOTT ONCE MORE.

The Very Much Wanted Murderer Has at Last Been Discovered.

INCIDENTS OF THE CAPTURE.

The Alleged Fugitive Walked Unsuspectingly into a Trap.

HE MAKES A CALL ON A TEXAS SHERIFF.

That Individual is Now Anxiously Expecting the $50,000 Reward.

The description of the man arrested at Laredo, Tex., as Murderer Tascott, tallies very closely with that of the long missing assassin. Other evidence tends to show that the right person has finally been secured.

CHICAGO, August 8.—Information just received from Laredo, Tex., gives the description of the Tascott suspect under arrest. It tallies more closely with that of the much sought fugitive than has been the case in any previous capture.

The scars on Tascott's elbows and legs have counterparts upon the Laredo man, and though there are no scars in the prisoner's front teeth, a cavity which had once been filled is there. The arrest was the outgrowth of a singular accident. Night before last, about 8 o'clock, a young man knocked at the door of Sheriff Snell's residence and asked to see the man in the hall.

A PECULIAR RESEMBLANCE. Mr. Sanchez noticed something peculiar about his face which suggested the description of Tascott. He went upstairs to get a description, and while absent the servant was asked who lived at the house, and when the man was informed that it was the Sheriff he at once departed.

The Sheriff hurriedly took the direction the young man went, and soon overtook him and engaged in conversation with him, and became convinced that the man corresponded in appearance with the murderer of Banker Snell. The man was taken to the Sheriff's office, where a close examination was made, and the Sheriff was satisfied that he had the right man and looked him up.

Different names were given by the prisoner, but he finally settled on that of A. O. Kuhlman, of Chicago, and made no claim to have been at work as a freeman on the night of the murder of Banker Snell in Chicago. He has been long on parole in Mexico for about two years, and has been in time with railroad men, two of whom came to see him this morning and called him "New", by which name alone he was known among them.

A FATAL ABBREVIATION. There is a fac simile of Tascott's handwriting attached to the circular referred to, consisting of four lines of a letter, the first line reading: "What is the use of our rubbish?" Sheriff Sanchez copied these lines on a piece of paper, with the exception that he wrote them, "What is the use," and asked his prisoner to copy them.

The fellow did so in a disquieted hand and mechanically wrote the contraction "What" as it was in the fac simile writing. He stated positively that he was never in Chicago, yet two men who have been with him in New Laredo say that he has frequently talked with them about Chicago and displayed a thorough knowledge of the place.

Sheriff Sanchez has forwarded a photograph of the prisoner to the Chicago police and to-day was awaiting the result.

ANOTHER BENEDICT.

Miss Lizzie Kuhlman Marries an Old-Time Telegraph Operator. W. W. Conway, formerly connected with the various telegraph companies in this city, and well known throughout the two cities, was married last evening to Miss Lizzie A. Kuhlman, at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. F. C. C. C., No. 1435 Carson street, Southside. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Brand, and was witnessed by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. The happy couple were the recipients of many handsome and valuable presents. They will leave in a few days for an extended trip to the Eastern cities.

EX-MAYOR LIDDALL ALL RIGHT.

His Reported Serious Illness Decried by Mrs. Liddell. It was reported in Lawrenceville to-night that ex-Mayor Robert Liddell was seriously ill. At his home Mrs. Liddell pronounced the report as untrue and said that some business enemy had started the report, if it was in circulation. Dr. Green also denied it, and said he had just left Mr. Liddell's house. When the reporter went to the house Mr. Liddell was standing in the doorway, but he went in at once, and the conversation with Mrs. Liddell took place through a window.

A Fatal Accident on the Valley.

Thomas Powers and Charles Robinson attempted to board a train, moving rapidly, at Twenty-eighth street on the Valley Railroad. Powers was thrown under the wheels and killed. Robinson was thrown to the ground, but was seriously injured. The body of Powers was taken to the Morgue. He was 37 years of age, and lived with Mrs. Fox, his sister, on Penn avenue.

The Work on the New Navy.

WASHINGTON, August 8.—A statement has been prepared by Commander T. N. Wilson, Chief of the Bureau of Construction and Repair, for the use of Secretary Tracy, showing the condition of vessels of the navy in progress of construction at time the new administration entered upon its duties, March 4 last. The report shows that considerable progress is being made upon the "new navy."

Two Accidents at a Picnic.

The pleasure of the German Evangelical Church picnic, Southside, held at Shingus Park, was marred by a couple of accidents. Mrs. Emmiter had her arm broken by a limb of a tree falling on her, and Hildred Maull got knocked of the gangway while boarding the boat.

TRI-STATE TRIPLES.

The East Liverpool potters have about completed arrangements for a combination to control prices.

WILKESBARRE is suffering from a very serious epidemic of typhoid fever. There are at present 200 cases of the disease in the city.

The Executive Committee of the Citizens' Relief Committee having charge of the distribution of the $21,000 so far appropriated to relief the poor, have been authorized by the Commission to commence the work of distribution.

The Columbus Iron Company, of Lancaster, Tex. Columbia has posted a notice of an increase from $3.00 to $3.75 per ton for puddling and other wages in proportion, keeping the promise made four months ago, when the reduction was made, that when trade grew better they would increase.

A SYNDICATE has been negotiating with the owners of the famous John Brown Fort, at Harper's Ferry, and a trade has about been made. The syndicate is composed of Washington capitalists, and they propose to remove the historic structure to the national capital, where it will be put on exhibition.

FAR FROM THE CROWD

Lawyer Marsh Has Secluded Himself to Complete a Work on Modern Spiritualism—He Will not be Interviewed on the Matter.

SPECIAL TRIP TO THE SEASHORE.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., August 8.—Lawyer Luther E. Marsh, of the New York bar, who at one time acquired an unpleasant notoriety in connection with the fraudulent practices of the spook medium, Mme. Editha Dias Debar, has been a pretty constant resident of this town for six months past, and is here still. He is stopping with John J. Huyler, real estate agent, whose household includes, beside Mrs. Huyler, a middle-aged Miss Law, who is a recent accession to this community from some unknown quarter, and who paints pictures. Both ladies are reputed among spiritualists to be gifted mediums.

Mr. Marsh's methods of life here are very secluded, so much so that he is rarely seen out of doors, and then only for short walks for exercise after nightfall, and in unrequented streets. He refuses absolutely to talk with reporters. The Huyler household habitually isolates itself from all neighbors, and under present circumstances is rigidly uncommunicative.

Mr. Marsh is understood to have secluded himself among congenial surroundings for the purpose of reading his whole attention to the completion of the elaborate work he is writing on spiritualism. He proposes to make the work a complete exposition of the theory and practice of spiritual manifestations from a Biblical standpoint. He maintains that the so-called spiritual manifestations of the day are straggled offshoots of the miracles recorded in the Scriptures, and are equally well authenticated. Incidentally, he gives the story of his connection with Mme. Debar, and insists that the latter is a wonderfully gifted medium, whose ghostly pictures are in the main the genuine work of spirit hands; but he admits that the medium in her normal state is base, mercenary and wicked.

Mr. Marsh is now engaged in reading the proof sheets of the closing chapters of his book, which is being printed at Buffalo and will be issued from the press in October.
