PITTSBURG, FRIDAY, AUG. 16, 1888.

SHIPS IN SIGHT.

In President Harrison's little speech at Bath, on Wednesday last, a grand and patriotic policy was reiterated, namely, the rebuilding of our mercantile marine. The President said: "In every way that I properly can, whether as a citizen or as a public officer, I shall endeavor to promote the rebuilding of our American merchant marine and the restoration of that great carrying trade which we once possessed in every sea."

Of course, in such a city as Bath, which has been built almost entirely by its ship-building industry, President Harrison could have found no more popular declaration to make; but we hope and believe that the speaker was not solely actuated by the desire to tickle the ears of his audience. Surely by this time it has become clear to statesmen of both parties that the nation urgently demands the restoration of its shipping trade. That party which establishes successfully a carrying trade under the stars and stripes will also establish itself in the hearts of the people. As yet another party has got beyond words. As far as platforms and speeches go, the Republican party has set itself squarely in favor of aiding American shipbuilders. We take President Harrison's latest utterance to mean that Congress will put this policy into action at the earliest possible opportunity.

There exists no good reason why our legislators should not concentrate their attention upon this one great matter. There is no question before the American people today of equal importance. The prosperity of the country and its peaceful relations with the rest of the world leave the field clear for the laying of the foundations of an American mercantile marine that shall resume her rightful share in the carrying trade of the world.

THE GIGANTIC STORM.

While the report issued yesterday by the Secretary of Internal Affairs relative to the recent floods in this State does not contain any news to speak of, it confirms officially what has been generally understood as to the exceptional severity of the storm which immediately preceded the Johnstown catastrophe. The report will be found in another column of this issue, and deserves careful reading.

The storm of May 30 and 31 covered a greater area than any recorded previously by the Signal Service. From Illinois to the eastern limits of Pennsylvania the rainfall varied from two to four inches, and on the Allegheny mountains and the valleys reached to 12 square miles, the rainfall reached the unheard of magnitude of eight inches, which turned into weight amounts to 6,732,246,000 tons. We are not surprised that the compiler of this report remarks that "in all respects the conditions were the most remarkable and peculiar of those known to attend a general rainfall, and the vast masses of water thrown down upon the surface of several States other than Pennsylvania only add to the difficulty of explaining the origin of the storm, or the source from which the great body of water can have been derived."

It is hardly necessary to point out that the Government report will be utilized by the members of the South Fork Fishing Club when their share in the responsibility for the breaking of the dam shall be determined in the courts.

THE DECADE OF TRUSTS.

Trust stocks have recently been severely hammered in the financial markets, and probably the growth of new organizations of this kind has been appreciably retarded by the generally unfavorable outlook. Whatever the opinion of certain statesmen upon the subject of trusts may be, and it seems to be the fashion among leading politicians to pool-pool the dangerous features of these unrighteous bandings together of capital, THE DISPATCH regards the decay of the trust idea with great satisfaction.

WE CANNOT REFRAIN FROM QUOTING THE FOLLOWING FROM A COTEMPORARY'S SUMMING UP OF THE contest against the Sugar Trust.

The contest against the Sugar Trust and forces competition is truthful. The first and natural effect of the tariff was to create a great home market, for the possession of which competition became so fierce as to result in loss to some or all of the competitors. It is not necessary to argue as to whether a temporary combination to refrain from selling at a loss would have been wise or foolish, legal or illegal. It is a deathless and eternal federation of several vast capitals against all competition, whether between its own members or between them and capital not embraced in the federation. It is an offensive and defensive alliance against the right of men to do the best they can for themselves. We hold such a federation to be immoral and impious. The law of the market must work unobscured. If more barbers, more newspaper, more railroads, or more of any trade that depends upon public patronage should come into a neighborhood, it is an offense against the law of the market. It is an offense against the law of the market. It is an offense against the law of the market.

EVERY NOW AND AGAIN PITTSBURG IS REMINDED THAT A GREAT OARSMAN STILL CLEAVES THE DARK WATERS OF THE MONOGAHELA WITH HIS OAR.

Teemer has emerged from Meigs' support and his modest nature has left the victor in the O'Connor-Scarle race. Teemer's friends still believe he can beat any oarsman living if he refrains from besting himself.

THE PITTSBURG BASEBALL TEAM HAS TAKEN ON THE SIMILITUDE OF A VERY UNRELIABLE MULE. IT KICKS HARDEST WHEN LEAST EXPECTED.

New York went down behind the hoofs yesterday.

IT IS ENTIRELY DUE TO THE NEWSPAPERS THAT THE INFAMOUS FLACK DIVORCE HAS BEEN ANNULLED, AND THAT A VERY LARGE PART OF ONE OF THE MOST EQUARDLY AND CONTENTIBLE COMPANIES THAT HAS EVER DISGRACED NEW YORK CITY HAS BEEN LAID BURIED TO THE WORLD.

But the press has still something more to do. It must not halt until every guilty conspirator is in jail.

THE MEMBERS OF THE NEW ZEALAND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES ARE FULLY UP TO THE TIMES. IN THE ATTEMPT TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF MEMBERS ONE-THIRD A SESSION OF NO LESS THAN 76 HOURS OCCURRED BEFORE ADJOURNMENT TOOK PLACE. FILLIBUSTERS IN OUR CON-of animal tissues had been injected showed temporary signs of rejuvenation. We have had no positive or direct assurance that this change has been permanent. On the contrary, parallel experiments here show the so-called rejuvenation to be no more than exhalation, which the injection of good Monogahela whisky would cause. Some doctors insist that not even the real tonic effects of whisky follow the administration of the elixir, but that the phenomena supposed to indicate increased strength in the patient are due directly to the imagination. To prove the truth of this extreme theory one experimenter injected water instead of the Brown-Squard concoction into the subject's system, and the symptoms of exhilaration appeared in due time.

But there is a serious danger in the use of the elixir. Dr. Shaw, of St. Louis, discovered that the elixir, three hours after it had been made from the glands of a sheep, swarmed with bacteria, among which the bacillus that is supposed to cause tuberculosis was very numerous. A number of men who submitted to the Brown-Squard treatment at the Medico-Chirurgical Hospital at Philadelphia decline to a man to absorb any more elixir. Several of them have acquired abscesses as a result of their inoculation, and all of them describe their feelings as being anything but lively and juvenile.

In the first place THE DISPATCH, at the very outset, doubted the moral utility of Dr. Brown-Squard's elixir. It would be a very doubtful blessing for most men to live always on this earth; and the eternal survival of those to whom it might be a blessing to escape from the next world would be a distinct curse to their fellow men. Now, in the second place, THE DISPATCH, over the Dr. Cronin murder, has made the fact that the elixir is very uncertain in its physical effects, if not certainly injurious. The world will probably decide to let Dr. Brown-Squard have the entire monopoly of his elixir.

GOOD RESOLUTIONS. The Clan-na-Gael of Chicago went in for picnics, speeches and long resolutions yesterday. There would have been only one picnic, one set of speeches and one resolution if the order had not been split. Into the friends of the elixir it is very uncertain in its physical effects, if not certainly injurious. The world will probably decide to let Dr. Brown-Squard have the entire monopoly of his elixir.

THE CLAN-NA-GAEL OF CHICAGO WENT IN FOR PICNICS, SPEECHES AND LONG RESOLUTIONS YESTERDAY. THERE WOULD HAVE BEEN ONLY ONE PICNIC, ONE SET OF SPEECHES AND ONE RESOLUTION IF THE ORDER HAD NOT BEEN SPLIT. INTO THE FRIENDS OF THE ELIXIR IT IS VERY UNCERTAIN IN ITS PHYSICAL EFFECTS, IF NOT CERTAINLY INJURIOUS. THE WORLD WILL PROBABLY DECIDE TO LET DR. BROWN-SQUARD HAVE THE ENTIRE MONOPOLY OF HIS ELIXIR.

AN ANIMAL THAT TOOK PART IN 30 BATTLES AND IS STILL ALIVE. MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., August 15.—When Colonel Samuel Fowler, the founder of Fort Jervis, and at one time Chairman of the Democratic State Convention, still meet the eye of the war in 1862 at the head of the Fifteenth New Jersey Volunteers, a regiment recruited in his native county of Sussex, some of his old comrades are presenting him with a dog named "Dash." This dog has been with him since he was a boy, and has seen him in 30 battles and is still alive. He is now 15 years old, and has been with him since he was a boy, and has seen him in 30 battles and is still alive.

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH, FRIDAY, AUGUST 16, 1888.

THE TOPICAL TALKER.

Two Views of Mrs. Bonducati.—In the Track of the Great Storm. TWICE in this rather impressive sight of Louise Thordyke that was, Mrs. Dion Bonducati that is, in New York City. The first time she was half concealed in a closed carriage. She was as far from Mrs. Bonducati, Cal. They are to be taken over for Orleans.

Lord Tenison is well enough to walk three miles every day. JOAQUIN MILLER has become a rich man. Some years ago he bought 200 acres near Oakland, Cal. They are to be taken over for Orleans.

THE marriage contract between the Crown Prince of Prussia and Princess Sophia of Prussia was signed at Potsdam a few days ago. The Princess is to receive 2,000,000 marks from the Hohenzollern funds and 100,000 marks from the Prussian State.

THE venerable General Francis E. Spinner, ex-Treasurer of the United States, is said to be hopelessly ill at his home at Public House, Pa. He is 80 years of age, and has been in bed for several weeks. The trouble is a cancer on his face, caused by wearing an ill-fitting pair of eyeglasses. PESTS IN A POSTOFFICE.

A New Variety of Roaches Threatens to Eat a Growing Battle. PHILADELPHIA, August 15.—A new variety of cockroach has recently been imported in the mail bags which arrived at the Philadelphia postoffice from a South American port. The new variety is a small, black, and is generally a much greater pest. Soon after the arrival of the mail bags the pest began to appear in the postoffice, and it is now everywhere.

THE history of the American Indian is a very illiad of tragedy. The present attempts of the Government to secure more peace and order among the people to whom it is the best course to pursue in regard to our red brother, the Indian, is the old one of the merciless extinction of the lower races before the higher. Whisky disease and violence have always marked the contact of Caucasian civilization with the rude habits of the savage. It is a story of the "survival of the fittest." An old soldier, who has spent his time in the Indian wars, has written a book on the subject, and it is a very interesting one.

THE official started an exterminating crusade against the intruders with ordinary roach traps. He was successful in his first attempt, and he has now a large number of the new variety of roach. He is now everywhere.

MINISTERS AT THE BIJOU.

A Crowded House and a Performance That Pleased Everybody. The Bijou Theater could not have been opened on a more auspicious day. The house is larger and handsomer than ever, and an audience that occupied all the seats and nearly every foot of standing room came last night to witness the performance of the new variety of roach.

THE first part of the programme was of the old-fashioned order, and first-rate of its kind. It consisted of a variety of acts, and was very well received.
