The Work of Clearing Up Johnstown Should Not be Suspended.

STILL DANGER OF AN EPIDEMIC.

A Dream Leads to the Discovery of a Dead Body in the River.

ALL THE NEWS FROM NEARBY TOWNS

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.)

JOHNSTOWN, August 21.—Doctor Lee returned to-day, expecting to meet Governor Beaver here, but in this he was disappointed, as the Chief Executive failed to show up. The doctor says he does not understand the reason the Governor did not come, as he certainly understood he was to meet him here to-day.

The doctor says he was under the impression all the time, until a few days ago, that the Governor had $1,000,000 at his command to carry out the work ordered by the State Board of Health.

There is great danger of a serious epidemic, the doctor says, should the vigilance which the Board of Health has been exercising in keeping the place in good sanitary condition be abandoned.

RESULT OF A DREAM.

An Old Man Has a Vision That He Will Find a Body in the River, and It Comes True—He Will Secure a Reward.

ALLENTOWN, August 21.—A singular recovery of the body of a drowned man was made this morning.

On Wednesday night of last week Michael McDonnell, a boss mason, employed on the pier of a bridge to cross the Lehigh river at Slatington, and Benjamin Andreas, an employe of the company building the bridge, were drowned in an endeavor to save a coffer dam from being carried away by the rise of the river.

Fifty men searched for the bodies three days without success, although stimulated by the reward of $50 for the recovery of the bodies.

Nothing was seen of them until this morning, when the body of McDonnell, greatly disfigured, was found at Coplay, ten miles below the scene of the drowning.

The story of the curious and is as follows: Thomas Scheffer, an old man residing at Lauri's station, seven miles below Slatington, was deeply interested in the fate of the unfortunate man, and last night had a dream in which he saw the body of McDonnell floating in the river at Lauri's, and that he and a friend could secure the body and get the reward.

So vivid was the vision that when he awoke he related his dream and expressed his belief that it would come true. Despite the protests of his family he started for the river early, and on the way met Preston Miller to whom he related his dream.

He was so earnest in his belief that he could find that body that he prevailed upon Miller to join him, promising him part of the reward. A few minutes later they were on the river bank, and there, in the middle of the stream, the body of a man was floating. They followed for a while, when they saw the body of a man who had a boat. Together they rowed out in the river and towed it to Coplay, where it was dragged ashore.

The coroner of Lehigh county held an inquest, and the body was taken to Slatington, and from there will be sent to New York to-morrow.

McDonnell was a widower with two children. The three men who found the body will share the reward. The body of Andreas is still missing.

ATTEMPTED TO WRECK A TRAIN.

The Ambitious Youth Who Wanted to See a First-Class Dinner.

LANCASTER, August 21.—Wayne Whitmoyer was convicted to-day of attempting to wreck a train of cars on the Reading and Erie roads near Ephrata on July 24.

The testimony showed that the defendant put a tie on the track a few minutes before a train was due, because he wanted to see a first-class railroad wreck. Whitmoyer is not yet 21 years old, and was an inmate of the House of Reform for several years. He was sentenced to the Eastern Penitentiary for two years and a half.

WRITTEN BY A VICIOUS FIG.

LANCASTER, August 21.—Harry Watson, Jr., the 6-year-old son of Harry Watson, is suffering from a bite by a vicious pig. The little fellow was on a visit to his grandparents, at Union, Drummer township, and was playing in the yard. One of the pigs made an attack on his leg, lacerating the flesh and inflicting an ugly wound.

The wound was at once dressed, but erysipelas developed, and the case has a grave aspect. The leg is badly swollen and the child suffers great pain.

NO ROOM FOR CHINESE.

Determined Warfare—St. Louis Against Celestial Laundrymen—A Movement in Favor of White Girl Shifts.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.)

ST. LOUIS, August 21.—The Mongolian shirt manipulators and the American working girls are engaged in a deadly war here.

The Chinese population of St. Louis has increased so rapidly, and their laundries have spread so continuously, that the American laundry business has been almost ruined. The Americans formed a combination, and by agitation and newspaper attack on the laundries, they have succeeded in getting the city into the fight.

There was a big parade of the Americans last night, and the transparencies carried were designed to show the Chinese in a bad light. One of the cheers along the route had this: "American girls first; Chinese never." Another had this startling information: "What was found at the Chinese laundry, No. 16 North Ninth street? Ask the police and they will tell you. A white woman stupefied by opium." Further down was this statement: "Those who patronize Chinese laundries keep honest and clean."

Oliver H. C. Ross, the President of the association, in speaking about the warfare to be inaugurated against the Celestials, this morning said: "We are confident of the success of the movement because of our faith in the American people's sense of justice. When the matter is fairly presented to the public, I think the Chinese will find no profit in the laundry business in St. Louis, and that 2,500 honest girls who are anxious to secure employment, but who cannot get it, will be able to get work at wages which will enable them to support their families."

"There are in St. Louis," continued Mr. Ross, "900 Chinamen, and each one does about the work of three girls. That means that if they were all Chinese laundries in St. Louis that 2,500 girls would be earning $1 and $8 a week in the laundry business. It has been decided that the big parade of the laundry girls will be the most effective way of winning over the young men from the heathen. The girls will put on their best, and in the whitest linen will carry their transparencies and parade the town."

A Popular President.

PARIS, August 21.—President Carnot started for Fontainebleau to-day, and despite a drenching rain a crowd had assembled at the railroad depot and cheered him to the echo.

Save Your Hair

By a timely use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. This preparation has no equal as a dressing. It keeps the scalp clean, cool, and healthy, and preserves the color, fullness, and beauty of the hair.

"I was rapidly becoming bald and gray, but after using two or three bottles of Ayer's Hair Vigor my hair grew thick and glossy and the original color was restored."—Melvin Aldrich, Cassock Centre, N. J.

"Some time ago I lost all my hair in consequence of menials. After due waiting, no new growth appeared. I then used Ayer's Hair Vigor and my hair grew thick and strong."

It has apparently come to stay. The Vigor is evidently a great aid to nature."—J. E. Williams, Florenceville, Texas.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for the past four or five years and find it a most satisfactory dressing for the hair. It is all I could desire, being harmless, causing the hair to retain its natural color, and requiring but a small quantity to render the hair easy to arrange."—Mrs. M. A. Bailey, 9 Charles street, Haverhill, Mass.

"I have been using Ayer's Hair Vigor for several years, and believe that it has caused my hair to retain its natural color."—Mrs. H. J. King, Dealer in Dry Goods, &c., Bishopville, Md.

MOONSHINES AND A MARSHAL.

A Desperate Attempt to Assassinate an Officer of the Law.

SOUTH PITTSBURGH, Tenn., August 21.—A bold attempt to assassinate Deputy United States Marshal Sam Hughes took place at Whitwell, 90 miles up the valley from this place, yesterday evening at 6 o'clock.

The Deputy Marshal had arrested John Tipton for wildcatting and had left him with an accompanying officer and gone further down the mountain to arrest some of his colleagues, when he suddenly ran upon two men with shot guns. They told the officer to skip and upon his refusing to do so, one of them, John Hobbs, fired at him, at a space of some 30 yards. Eight of the buckshot took effect. The officer pulled his revolver as the would-be assassin ran off, but as it refused to work he could not shoot. He was not fatally wounded.

A daybook in the coat pocket saved his life. A buckshot passed through the book and into his breast, just above the heart. Hobbs and the wildcat were all from Grundy county, and were selling liquor on the mountain, near Whitwell. They have been defying the officers for some time. Officer Hughes attempted the arrest with the above consequences. His wounds were dressed this evening at Jasper, and he took his prisoner to Chattanooga to-night.

DRUNKENNESS

Or the Linger Habit Positively Cured by Administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.

It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it. It is absolutely harmless, and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been made temperate men who have taken nothing specific in their coffee without their knowledge and today believe they quit drinking from their own free will. IT IS A FALLACIOUS SYSTEM. The system once inaugurated with this Specific, it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. For sale by A. J.
