HOW A BROKER FOUND A PUDDING

The most important deal in suburban realty reported by any of the Fourth avenue agencies for some time was effected by W. A. Herron & Sons yesterday.

The grand mansion, 3 1/2 acres and a large manse house. The consideration was $20,000, which is considered very reasonable for that locality.

The broker, who is well known in the realty circles, says that the deal was a surprise to him.

ACTIVE AND LOWER.

Stocks Improve in Business, but at a Loss of Values—Weakness Affects the Entire List—Heavy Fallers and Rise-Cuts the Disturbing Elements.

New York, August 27.—The market was more active to-day than at any time for weeks, and at the same time displayed a decided weakness in tone, which resulted in material declines over the list, notably among the active stocks, but not to the extent of lower than last evening.

The influences which had a bearing upon the market this morning were all of an unfavorable nature, such as the recent heavy supply of railroad securities in the West and Northwest, the utterances of Chairman Walker and Judge Cooley, the former expressing the situation as depressing in the Northwest, and the latter's statement.

The traders made the most of the opportunity, and with the first sales inaugurated a vigorous attack upon the list, the Grangers and Cattle stocks being the principal sufferers, and the opening prices from 1/4 to 1/2 per cent lower than last night's figures.
