A HORRIBLE STENCH

Now Arises From the Shallow Rivers Surrounding Johnstown.

ALL THE NEWS FROM NEARBY TOWNS

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. JOHNSTOWN, August 26 .- Another source of trouble has come to this sadly afflicted city. The water in the rivers is getting very low here, and as a consequence, a great deal of pestilence-breeding matter is being exposed. The stench along the river bank is becoming unbearable, especially along the Point and near the stone bridge are the odors very nauseating. There are, in all probability, many bodies in the sand along the banks, and also in the bottom of the river. The body of a child was taken out of the sand near and also in the bottom of the river. The body of a child was taken out of the sand near the stone bridge to-day.

About all that is being done now by those having the distribution in charge is some figuring and entering of accounts. Secretary Kremer will remain here the balance of the week, but says be is unable to tell when matters will be in shape to pay out money. It will at least be several weeks before the proper data can be prepared. Mr. Kremer says that he had several conferences with the Governor last week, but he did not refer to the matter of the funds which the State is using in cleauing up, and Mr. Kremer does not know whether any more than $300,000 will be available or not.

Through the carelessness of some of the employes the graves in Grandview Cemetery do not correspond to the numbers on the thorgue records. This was painfully illustrated to-day when James W. Shumaker, a prominent merchant of the town, identified some jewelry as belonging to his wife, and when the grave corresponding with the number was opened it was found to be that of a man. The bodies here were buried in trenches, and Mr. Shumaker had over 30 bodies in one trench lifted to-day, hoping to find his wife.

All the Chinamen in town to-day visited the cemetery and deposited cooked rice, sweet potatoes, bananas and tea on the graves of their two fellow countrymen who were drowned.

An enthusiastic meeting was held by the business men here to-night, at which it was determined to bring suit against the South Fork Fishing Club. Speeches were made by a number of business men, all strongly urging united action in the matter. One thousand dollars were raised by subscription, and it was agreed that John H. Linton and W. Horace Rese should be the committee to Investigate the case, these gentlemen having agreed to investigate the

THE GRANGERS' PICNIC.

Williams' Grove Will be Filled With Its Usual Enormous Crowd.

CARLISLE, August 26.—The sixteenth annual exhibition of the Grangers of this and other States opened to-day at Williams' Grove, a beautiful grove of 40 acres, situated on the lines of the Mechanicsburg and Dillsburg Rail-road, some 13 miles southwest of Harrisburg, near the base of the South Mountain range. During the past week several hundred carloads of machinery of all descriptions were placed in position, and to-day the vast grove was crowded with all the latest improved was crowded with all the latest improved machinery of the day. Promptly at 2:30 o'clock the annual meeting of the exhibitors took place in the large auditorium for the purpose of organization. Nearly every State was rep-resented. Nothing but miscellaneous business resented. Nothing but miscellaneous business was transacted.

To-morrow the exhibition proper will be opened by Colonel R. H. Thomas, editor of the Mechanicsburg Journal and general manager of the show, who will deliver a brief address, giving a history of the Grange from its early foundation, after which Hon Leonard Rhone, of this State, who will be presiding officer during the week, will deliver an address appropriate to the occasion. Trains are being run to the exhibition grounds from all sections of the bountry, and by to-morrow 8,000 to 10,000 people will be on the ground.

A BIG FRUIT CROP. Eastern Dealers Are Making Big Contract

Along the River. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

New Martinsville, W. Va., August 26,-The river towns on both sides of the Ohio river, from Wheeling to Pt. Pleasant, are be-ginning to be througed with apple buyers from the Eastern and Northern cities, and before the end of the first week in September tens of thou-sands of barrels will have been contracted for for future delivery. The river counties in Ohio and West Virginia constitute one of the largest apple-growing centers in the country, and from 100,000 to 150,000 barrels "are annually shipped to the South and West, or to the Atlantic sea-port for export. This year the crop in New York State is said to be very short, and many orders are being solicited for delivery in Buffalo, Albany and other New York cities.

Albany and other New York cities.

The watermelon crop, another of the staples of the river counties, is almost a total failure this year. Many growers accustomed to send 5,000 to 10,000 meions each to market, will this year ship but 500 to 1,000, and many patches have failed totally, entailing heavy loss. Usually 50,000 meions go to Wheeling in one season, but this year the shipments are very light.

SNAKES AND PUPS.

How a Missing $50 Dog Was Discovered by Its Owner.

PERCHAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCHLY BEAVER FALLS, August 26,-One day last week a thoroughbred colie dog belonging to Charles Gregory, a farmer living about four miles east of here, gave birth to a litter of beautiful pups. The little animals were kep in the barn and every care taken of them, as Mr. Gregory had sale for them all at $50 apiece. Saturday one of the pups, yet blind, was miss-ing. Search was made for it high and low, but in vain, and the conclusion arrived at that some one had stolen it. Last night Mrs. Gregory had occasion to go to the springhouse, and, hearing a queer rustling noise among the milk-trocks, she investigated and discovered a huge house snake moving sluggishly across the some

She quickly dispatched the reptile, and no-ticing that its body about half way down was enormously distended, she took it in to the house, where Mr. Gregory cut it open, and, to his great surprise, out rolled the dead body of his missing $50 pup.

SOMETHING OF A MISTAKE.

Fifteen Hundred New Citizens Discovered for Allegheny County. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1

Washington, Pa., August 26.—The grand jury has recommended the incorporation of McDonald into a borough, and it now only re-McDonald into a borough, and it now only remains for Judge Mclivaine to deciare it so and appoint a day for the election of officers. The survey of the town just taken shows that about 1,500 persons who heretofore were supposed to be living in Washington county are really residents of Allegheny county.

The Allegheny county line as established by the surveyors falls quite a considerable distance west of where it was supposed to be.

NEW NEARBY RAILROADS.

Contracts for the Construction of Several Lines Have Been Made. SPECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATCH.1 WESTON, W. VA., August 26.-The contract or the construction of the Weston and Elk River Railroad, recently let by the management, calls for the construction of the first 26 miles, between this point and Burnsville, by the 1st day of May, 1890. The contract for the remainder of the line will be let October 15, and must be completed by July 1, 1890. Nearly all the right of way for the proposed Ravenswood, Spencer and Glenville Railroad has been secured, and contracts will be let within the next 30 days.

Chloroformed, Bonnd and Robbed. HFECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.)
MOBGANTOWN, W. Va., August 25.—An outrageous robbery case is reported from Mt. outrageous roobery case is reported from Mt. Moriah, Preston county. Chancery Martin, an aged farmer of that vicinity, borrowed $100 a few days ago, with which to pay some debts. While lying on a bed playing with a grandchild, three men entered the bouse, tied him hand and foot, applied chloroform to his nose and then ransacked the house, securing $70 of the money. Mr. Martin is in a serious condition from the rough freatment he received.

Two Fatel Runnway Accidents. PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR. CHARLESTON, W. VA., August 26 -- Two more runaway accidents, each of which will be attended with a fatality, occurred last night, Rev. Samuel Gibson, while on his way to his bome, was thrown from his carriage and will-die. John Carson and Mrs. William West were thrown from a carriage down an embank-ment and the lady was farally injured.

PRINCIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1
KEYSER, W. VA., August 28.—At Maxier's School House, near here, Oscar Cole went to a dance while intoxicated. He asked a girl to dance with him, and upon her refusal, Cole drew a revolver and leveled ft at her with the remark, "Dance or die." The girl struck the pistol aside, and the ball went through Cole's left arm.

GRANT'S SEPULTURE.

A Strong Plen for Its Removal from New York to Washington-The Grand Army Asked to Take Immediate Action Upon the Matter.

WASHINGTON, August 26.—Under the heading of "From Riverside to Arlington," the Post will to-morrow print the following: General Grant was born in Ohio. He went General Grant was born in Ohio. He went into the war from Illinois. He resided during his later years in New York. Such is the peculiar character of his public lifé and service, however, that no particular locality can claim him as its own. As State lines, with sectional significance, were swept away by his victorious armies, so in our retrospect of his career we recall him only as the patriot-soldier, to whom all States were alike, so that the Union might be saved. Where he was born, where he lived, where he died, are matters of little moment concurring one who gave the best years of his life to his country, and left in the hearts of the American people an imperishable and grateful memory.

Where his last resting place shall be is life to his country, and left in the hearts of the American people an imperishable and grateful memory.

Where his last resting place shall be is another and greater question. To the vast majority of those who revere the name and fame of Grant, it has always been deemed a strange impropriety, and the sentiment has assumed the form of a profound and universal regret, that the National capital, the seat of the government he so nobly served, and which alone can lay valid claim to the henor, should not have been chosen as the sheltering place of his mortal remains. To many, and the number is considerably increasing, this is more than a mere sentiment of regret. The people were reconciled to the burial of General Grant at Riverside simply because of the distinct assurance and pledge of New York that a monument to his remembrance, and of surpassing grandeur, should be erected there. Assurance and pledge have come to naught but by-words of reproach, and the solemnly promised monument is but an imagination of the remote and shadowy future.

Hence regret has become indignation, and what was at first a tacit assent, on certain conditions that remain wholly unfulfilled, is converted into a vigorous and growing demand for the removal of the remains from a place where they should never have found sepulture. The plea that the fame of Grant is for all time is no excuse that it should take all time to build his monument. But of her own acts or inaction let New York be her own judge. The country should wait no longer upon her sordid and slow-paced motions. It should proceed at once to do the other and greater than any monumental duty of reinterring the body of the illustrious soldier upon the shores of the Potomac.

The Grand Army of the Republic is now holding its twentythird annual encampment at mental duty of reinterring the body of the liustrious soldier upon the shores of the Potomac.

The Grand Army of the Republic is now holding its twenty-third annual encampment at Milwaukee. What have the veceran soldiers of the Union to say to this proposition? Will not they acclaim it with a unanimous amen? Do they not want this sacred obligation to be performed in their own day and generation? Their ranks are fast thinning out, and the opportunity of personal participation in its fulfillment is glidling away from their reach. Let them claim it, therefore, as the last great privilege they ask, to be the pall bearers of their old commander from his neglected grave at Riverside, to the companionship of the heroid dead at Arlington. The country will be with them in this movement. Were the mute lips of the late General of the Armies unscaled, they would doubtless give it assent. Congress could not say pay to such a reasonable and just request, based on such high and patriotic motives. And what so well deserves to be done should be done without delay. New York has no claim in the premises that she has not long since forfeited, and can enter no protest to action, for whichherjown shortcomings are responsible. The claims of the Union supersede all others. The patriotic sense of the people can no longer be mocked.

TRAMPS CHEAP IN MISSOURI. They Are Very Hard to Sell Out at About $2

MOBERLY, Mo., August 26. - Four tramps arrested here for vagrancy were put up at public auction to-day from the court house steps. The sale had been duly advertised according to law, and there was a large crowd present. The bidding was not very spirited. Two of the tramps went to farmers for $2 a head and another was bid in for 75 cents.

The fourth tramp could find no purchaser and he was returned to jail. The three who were sold must serve their purchasers for

ASHLAND, Wis., August 26.—Black Bart's most daring deeds in the mountain passes of Colorado were outdone to-day by a lone highwayman, who held up and robbed the stage that runs between Gogebic, on the Milwaukee, Lake Shore and Western Rail road, just over the line in Michigan, and Gogebic Lake, a summer resort. As the stage was running along at a lively gait through a dense forest, when about two miles from the station, a man jumped out in front of it and pointing two big navy revolvers at the driver, commanded him in good old Western style to throw up his hands, at the same
