OFFICE OF PITTSBURG DISPATCH. MONDAY, August 26, 1888

The run of stock was larger than the demands of trade, and prices were weaker all along the line.

Prices at Chicago were a shade lower last week than those bought the week before, and, as supplies were heavy, concessions were made by holders, so that markets ruled 15 to 20c lower than last Monday, with some unsold at latest accounts. Prime heavy beeves, weighing 1,500 to 1,600 pounds, ranged in price from $4.75 to $5.00. A Diamond Market butcher reports that he bought some primes at $4 75, which would have brought $5 00 a week ago. Medium weights, 1,350 to 1,450 pounds, sold at $4 00 to $4 75; 1,300 to 1,300-pound cattle, $4 20 to to $4 50; prime light weights, 900 to 1,100 pounds, $3 85 to $4 15; common to fair thin and rough steers, $3 10 to $3 55. Cows were dull and slow steers, $5 10 to $3 55. Cows were dull and slow at £30 to $40 per head. Calves were dull and slow at £30 to $40 per head. Calves were dulet and unchanged at a range of 44 to 64 per pound. A few extra fine brought 65 c. Buils, stags and dry cows were in light supply, but equal to de-mand. No sales in this line were reported with the exception of a few dry cows at 3c to 35 c per pound. Fresh cows are of slow sale at bed rock prices. A leading dealer in this line said to day: "There is nothing in our trade at pres-ent. The ideas of country people as to iresh cows are much larger than facts warrant. We cannot buy at prices which will yield a living profit in the present condition of markets. Re-ceipts from Chacgo: Winter & Delienback, 32 head; L. Gerson, 126; I. Zeigler, 125; E. Wolf, 18; A. Sheep and Lambs, Supply was larger than usual and demand was light at lower figures than last Monday. The decline was 10 to 15 per cent. The near approach of the hog season is having a depressapproach of the hog season is having a depress-ing influence on multion in the opinion of a futler county drover. The test heavy Western wothers sold at $4 65 to 4 75. A butcher reports that he bought as good sheep as he wanted at de, and lambs at 5c. Some common stock sold as low as 3c. The range as reported for me-dium to good sheep was $4 10 to $4 35; common to fair, $3 40 to $1 00; ewes, $3 to $1 25; lambs, 44 to 54 c per pound. Hogs.

Notwithstanding increased interest in this department of live stock, prices were a shade ower than last week. The range for Western hogs was quoted at $4 50 to $4 85, but is doubtful if the latter figure $4.60 to $4.85, but is doubtful if the latter figure was obtained for the very best. A loading buyer says he bought the best on the market at $4.70. Home hogs were quoted at a range of $4.00 to $4.50. Receipts—From Chiengo, L. Gerson, 71 head. From Pennsylvania, J. A Butter county drover who deals in sheep and lambs almost exclusively, reports sales of iamb at a range of H_4 to H_4 . Said he, "There were some extra fine bunches of lambs which ght as much as 6½c, but these were no rion to the market. The heavy run and criterion to the market. The heavy run and scarcity of prime stock gave an extra boom to this grade." In these days of low prices low gratic of stock are the great sufferers. Good goods hold up fairly well. But this week's trade shows weakness and a shade lower prices on all live stock at Herr's Island.

CHICAGO-The market was active and higher for wheat to-day. At the opening prices did not show material changes from Saturday's closing range on futures, and the continuation of the fine weather everywhere on this side caused a majority of speculators to feel very friendly to the short side. The most bullish feature of the day was the report, said to be pased upon reliable information from abroad, that the Vienna Grain Congress, in the estinates that it would give out to-morrow, would how a shortage in the wheat crop of Europe of 15 per cent. The report will show, it is said, 222,000,000 bushels less than an average crop for five years, and the trade here figured it out that if the report proves correct there will be a shortage in the world's crop of 180,000,000 bushels for 1880. On this news the price of December was run up to 75%c, or 1%c above Saturday's closing quotations. Closing cables were dull with a limited demand for spot wheat at 1%@lc decline in prices at Liverpool, which is rather difficult to harmonize with the Vienna report. What is still more remarkable is the fact that there were Paris selling orders here to-day from parties who have an agent in Vienna. Based on Saturday's closing the advance in futures to day was 12 (215); August showing the greatest strength.

day was 15,201%c. August showing the greatest strength. Coru was active and weak early in the ses-sion, with trading quite heavy, but later a re-action followed. The early weakness was due to large receipts and fine weather and pros-pects of a large increase in the visible supply. The market opened 5,20% (e lower than the clos-ing of Saturday, was weak and declined 34,3%c, rallied 14,3%c, became quiet and steady, closing 9,46% (e lower than Saturday. Oats were fairly active, weaker and 1/c lower early, due to large receipts. An increase in the visible supply, large offerings and weakness in the cora made the activity. Later buyers took hold freely. The advance in wheat also pro-duced a better feeling, and prices advanced 1/4 2%c, and the market closed steady. The nequiry for mess pork was fairly active, but the offerings were, not very large. Frices used 16,20c higher, and the advance was fairly well advanced.

Business Conditions Point to the Beginning of a Revival.

JOHN BULL'S PECULIAR MONEY.

A Silver Certificate Which the Public Should Guard Against, and HOW A FINANCIER TALKS ABOUT IT

Although it is probably too soon by two or three weeks to expect a permanent revival of business, all of the movements and indications yesterday were in that direction.

There was more life in stocks than had been witnessed for many a Monday. Even pe troleum operators demonstrated that they are not ready to shut up shop. There was a good inquiry for houses and lots, and a brisk demand for mortgages. Bankers reported actual business rather better than earlier in the month, with a rosy prospect ahead. In conversation several of them stated that the money flurry in the East had about died out, and with it had disappeared the last obstacle to a busy and profitable fall and winter trade, in which every branch of business would share. A dangerous counterfeit, or fraudulent sil-

A congroup conneries, or irraduced silver ver certificate of the denomination of $10 has been put in circulation in the last few days. It is so well executed that Government experts and local bankers think it is printed from stolen plates. Speaking of this counterfeit yesterday, a Fourth avenue financier said: "If the opinion generally held, that this note was printed from stolen plates, be correct, the Government should bear the loss, as bank tellers and the people have no means of protecting themselves against a fraud of this kind, of which carelessness on the part of the treasury officials is certainly an element."

He added: "Responsibility for counterfeit or bogus money should go further. Frequently unsigned national bank bills are stolen and the proper names filled in by the thieves. If the proper many and proper care this could not hap-pen. The banks should be held to as strict ac-countability for their issues as men in other branches of business are for their acts. How are the people to know whether the bills they receive are properly signed or not, when experts are often at a loss to distinguish between the bogus and the genuine, and to make them bear the loss is unjust as well as unreasonable."

Several of the large drygoods firms in New York report a material increase in the volume of business, and say that the fall trade opens most auspiciously. The noticeable feature at present is the large number of Southern people who are in the metropolis buying goods. Pay-ments are being promptly made, and the entire situation, as compared with previous years at this period, is eminently satisfactory, and the prospects for a continuation of a big business this fall and winter are unmistakably good.

Jay Gould said to a fellow broker the other day: "I feel the same as every other sensible man does on the market. I am a bull and look for considerably higher prices this fall, and I think that results will substantiate the position which I take."

It is seldom that anything so unusual as to attract special attention occurs in any of the Pittsburg banks, but an instance of this kind happened yesterday. Shortly before noon an old gentleman, so "English, you know,"that he

Times Are Close at Hand. Business at the banks yesterday was of good proportions in all of the regular lines, checking being the feature. Oil City turned sellers, causing a decline as rapid as the advance had been. The lowest quotation of the day, 96%, was made shortly before the close, at which time Oil City changed its tactics. This bull movement was responded to by a prompt rally to 97%, at which the market left off, with a temper indicating confidence of as good or better figures to-day. LONDON, August 20.-The Mark Lane Express, in its review of the British grain trade during the past week, says: A rainy and chilly August has diminished the value of the crops. The area of rain-soaked corn is very large. The condition of barley is also very not been numerous. The opening price for white wheat was 36s, and for red 34s. Wheat not been numerous. The opening price for white wheat was 36s, and for red 34s. Wheat selfs slow. Old wheat selfs slow and deliveries have been larger than usual and prices are low. The sales of English wheat during the week were 53.670 quarters at 30s 5d, against 25,683 quarters at 38s 1d during the corresponding period last year. One cause for the theapness of home-grown wheat is attributed to the ianguid demand for flour and the plantithe and cheapness of vegetables. Hoth foreign flour and loreign wheat are dull. The supplies exceed the requirements, being nearly 100,000 quarters shead of the demand during the week, is and peasare firm, owing to the had re-ports of home yield and the large quantity of for-eign on paisage prevents an advance. At to-day's markot fine white new wheat was held at 56s to 55s; fair damp red was offered at 31s to 51s and old English, 35s. The big strike blocks trade. Foreign wheat for immediate delivery was dearer. Cont, except for immediate de-ivery was teady. Cats were dearer.

New York, August 26.-There was little mange in the demand for drygoods at first hands. There is an active delivery of goods due and the order books of agents show many articles still sold weeks and months ahead. The jobbing trade was active, with a large drive in Westbrook ginghams. The tone of the market continues of a generally firm char-acter.

ance of American Treasury notes or national bank bills. Upon a casual observation, these notes would be considered easy prey for the counterfeiter, but a close inspection reveals a maze of delicate lines and marks woven into the paper, each of which, no doubt, possesses special significance, and the least variation in which would be perceived by experts at a glance. In England the penalty for counterfeiting these notes is death.

The report of the underwriters' committee on the great fire at Seattle tells the old story of an inflammably built town, growing at a phe-nomenal rate and indifferent to the need of innomenal rate and indifferent to the need of in-creasing its means of protection against fire correspondingly. The water mains, which had once served the place astisfactorily, had be-come too small, and no arrangements had been made for drawing a supply in case of need, from the great body of salt water which washed the wharves. The volunteer fire de-national insufficiently available with the separtment, insufficiently provided with the apparatus and comparatively untrained, was powerless in the face of the lightning-like spread of the flames. In brief, the city was not properly equipped to contend with any but the most ordinary blaze. As it was at Scattle so it is in other busy.

The light offerings of bonds have resulted in a steady increase in the Treasurer's statement, which, according to the Treasurer's statement, now amounts to $70,800,000, being the highest point reached since October last. The pension ayments for the present month are estimated at $15,000,000, and the surplus will be reduced accordingly. Further reductions are also ex-pected in the fall, when the usual movement of They Begin the Week With Indications of crops takes place.;

A GOOD MONDAY.

Captain Barbour Persuades Stock Brokers to Brace Up and Do Something.

There was more vim in the stock market yesterday than is usual on Monday, the sales amounting to 537 shares, of which 226 were Philadelphia Gas and 300 La Noria. The former was off a triffe in the forenoon, but firmed up later on, with light offerings.

Later on, with light offerings. La Noria hung around the old figure, as did the Tractions. Electric was steady, but ne-glected, while Switch and Signal showed no particular change. Forest Oil was bid up to 102% in the afternoon, with none offered. Natural Gas of West Virginia let go a little, the best bid at the afternoon's board being 78. The rest of the list was steady to firm. Th was said that a considerable number of or-ders had been received on Saturday and rester-day morning. This affords ground for hope that any change from now on will be for the better. Bids, offers and sales were: MORNING, APTERNOOX.

The arguments in the cases of the appeals of John A. Martin, the milk dealer. and

A. J. Kaercher, the druggist, from the fines imposed upon them for selling on Sunday,

were heard before Judges Stowe and Slagle yesterday. General Blakely represented Martin; Messrs. Robb and Fitzsimmons represented Kaercher, and Attorney Yost ap-peared for the Law and Order Society.

In Martin's cases General Blakely argued that his client sold milk on Sunday under that his client sold milk on Sunday under the terms of the law because it is food and a matter of necessity. Mr. Yost maintained that, if such is the case, every meat shop, grocery store and every branch of commerce could do business on Sunday, as almost everything sold is a necessity one way or another. Mr. Yost necessity one way or another. Mr. Yost justified the employment of the boy, Clyde Taylor, by the Law and Order Society on the ground that some of the Sunday sellers would not allow a man in their places, but would look out for the Sunday school children to get their missionary nickels. Sun-day school teachers had asked that this be

Mr. Kaercher's soda water cases were called next. The question here was if Mr. Kaercher could be fined twice. He had been fined by Alderman Tatem before arrested by the Law and Order Society officers. Mr. Yost claimed that he could show that

Mr. Kaercher had procured a man to sue him, and had talked to Alderman Tatem about taking the information. Captain Wishart testified that Kaercher had admitted talking to the prosecutor about making the information, and that Alderman Tatem had taken it as a favor to Alderman fatem had taken it as a nove to him. Alderman Brinker corroborated this statement. Alderman Carlisis testified that he wrote an information against Kaercher on Saturday night because 'Kaercher had said he would keep open on Sunday. It was sworp to five seconds after 12 o'clock the weakness of last week's trading. The close of Saturday gave promise of a better feeling among traders in regard to both the Western railroad situation and the monetary prospects, and there was to-day little pressure to borrow and the rates for money wet back to as low as 2 per cent. The Canadian bankers were offer-ing about $3,000,000 on the street and the Bank of Montreal about half as much, which gave immediate relief, and the impression gained ground that there would be no lace of offerings from the same sources as long as the high rates were in force. The London market was ma-terrally higher this morning, and under the im-proved circumstances here first prices were from 16 to 50 per cent better than Saturday's closing figures.
