AN APPEAL FOR AID

In Behalf of the Public Schools in the Flooded Districts.

BEAVER'S IDEAS ON BUILDINGS.

A Notable Day at the Grangers' Picnic at Williams' Grove.

ALL THE NEWS FROM NEARBY TOWNS

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

JOHNSTOWN, August 27.—There are hundreds of school children here, but no means of affording them an opportunity to attend school, as the people are not able to provide houses, books and teachers. As it has been decided that none of the general relief fund could be applied to that purpose, a meeting of the directors in all the flooded districts was held to-day, when it was resolved to appeal to the school boards of the State and to the benevolent everywhere for funds to carry on the work, and newspapers throughout the country are requested to note the appeal.

It is addressed to the Superintendents and School Boards of the State of Pennsylvania, and the charitable and benevolent people of the country, in behalf of the school children in the flooded districts of the Conemaugh Valley. To show that it is hopeless to expect the people here to provide for the wants of the school children, it is stated that the beautiful borough of Woodvale was entirely washed away and the $16,000 worth of school property destroyed, the only thing that was recovered being the bell from the building.

Conemaugh borough lost all its buildings, books and apparatus to the value of $25,000, and three-fourths of the taxable property was destroyed. Cambria borough lost property to the value of $5,000, all it had, and three-fourths of the taxable property was swept away. In these three boroughs there is neither school nor books with which to begin school, nor means of providing the same. Other districts have been badly crippled.

After reciting the needs of the different districts, the appeal concludes: "The world can see our extreme need of help. This appeal is our last remedy."

"The State Superintendent has advised us to challenge the friends of education. We hope the appeal will not be in vain. Let each teacher and pupil do something for us, remembering that they that give quickly give twice. If we can tide it over this winter we will be able to establish ourselves on a permanent basis." The appeal is signed by the representatives of 11 school districts in the washed-out territory, and it is directed that all contributions be sent to E. E. Higbie, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Harrisburg, by whom it will be apportioned to the different districts. The Board of Trade held a meeting here this afternoon, at which the following resolution was adopted: "That this board appoint a committee of 15 persons to meet with the Councils and citizens, of the several municipalities, and that said committee counsel with Senators Cameron and Quay and with Congressman Scull, and prepare and provide proper matter to procure aid from our national or State Government in dredging our rivers and protecting their embankments.

A letter from Governor Beaver to the President of the Board of Trade was read, in which the Governor takes the ground that the grade of the whole town should be raised, and advises that people should build on the hill tops. The members of the board did not take kindly to the Governor's idea, and the letter was filed with but little discussion. The question of building permanent bridges will be discussed at a special meeting of Council to-morrow, and something will likely result from the agitation.

GRANGERS OUT IN FORCE.

An Ideal Day at the Great Picnic at Williams' Grove.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

WILLIAMS' GROVE, PA., August 27.—This was an ideal day for the Grangers to do their picknicking and bartering. The morning opened cool and cloudy and the 2,000 campers in the grove were fearing a rainy day, but about the time the early trains began to discharge their loads of visitors the sun shone out brightly and the day turned out just what all had been praying for. The attendance to-day was fully up to last year, the most prosperous day of the exhibition, but was composed mainly of farmers and buyers from the West and South. The rush from nearby points and from Central Pennsylvania never comes until Wednesday and Thursday. The train and private conveyances added fully 10,000 to the regular population of the grove. All the machinery was in full operation, and the exhibitors report sales already.

Outside of machinery the two most interesting features are the displays of agricultural products from Franklin county, Kan., and from Oregon. The latter exhibit was sent on by the State Board of Immigration, and comprises more than 1,000 specimens of cereals, fruits, wools, ore, etc., and is daily visited by thousands. The opening exercises of the week were held in the big auditorium at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and attracted a large audience. Manager R. W. Thomas, in making his address of welcome, spoke of the important position now held by the farmers, and said that their opinions were now so much respected and their adverse vote so much feared, that before making any move the politicians now ask, "What will the farmers think of it?"

He was followed by Hon. Leo Rhone, of Center county, Worthy Master of the State Grange. Mr. Rhone is recovering from a severe spell of sickness, and made only a few remarks congratulating the grangers and farmers upon their progress, but promised to be heard from further during the week upon State finances and taxation. State Senator Girard C. Brown, of York, occupied the rest of the afternoon session with an address to what he termed an Agricultural Congress, dealing mainly with matters of our State revenue. He rapped the politicians of both parties over the fingers harshly for their failure to listen to the demands of the farmer for an equalization of taxation. He said that out of the $40,000,000 raised in Pennsylvania by taxes of all kinds, fully $30,000,000 was from real estate. The farmer pays double his proportionate share and the corporations only one-fifth of their share. The farmers in the audience loudly applauded the speaker. To-night S. R. Downing, of West Chester, Past Lecturer of the State Grange, spoke upon woman's work in the Grange.

COLD WATER CRAZY.

A Disappointed Prohibitionist Goes Insane Over the Result.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

BEAVER FALLS, August 27.—To-day J. R. Spear, of College Hill, a suburb of this place, a prominent member of the Covenanter Church, was taken to Dixmont. Last June during the excitement over the amendment election Mr. Spear, who is a rabid Prohibitionist, got so worked up that he became insane when he heard that the State had gone so overwhelmingly in favor of the liquor dealers. He was taken care of and closely watched, and finally grew rational again.

Last week, however, he showed signs of the malady, and on Sunday it was found necessary to tie him. At intervals he becomes rational, but in his raving moments he calls upon his friends to flee from Beaver Falls, or God in his wrath will send bloodnounds to devour them.

THE BLAIR DEMOCRACY

Nominate a County Ticket and Organize for the Campaign.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

ALTOONA, August 27.—The Democratic County Convention, of Blair county, met here to-day and was presided over by F. M. Davis. The following ticket was placed in nomination: Register and recorder, John W. McFadden; treasurer, John H. Law; coroner, William M. Akers; district attorney, E. H. Flick; director of the poor, James McIntosh; delegates to the State convention, A. V. Dively, S. C. Long, T. J. Burke, and James Funk. H. A. McFadden, of Hollidaysburg, was elected a member of the State Central Committee.

The convention passed resolutions condemning the partisan administration of President Harrison, and also the action of Corporal Tanner in rerating of pensions. John Dumpby, of Altoona, was re-elected chairman of the County Committee for a second term.

MILITIA IN READINESS.

Striking Italians Near Lima Are Causing a Good Deal of Trouble.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

LIMA, August 27.—The striking Italians on the new railroad drove off all the other employes this morning and threatened to kill them if they again returned to work. This afternoon warrants were sworn out for the arrest of the Italians which was accomplished by the constable and a posse of deputies, who arrested 18 of them.

They were brought to town and locked in jail. The others have threatened to come to town and liberate the prisoners. Guards will be placed around the jail to-night. The militia have been notified to hold themselves in readiness.

A Fondness for Revolvers.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

SHARON, August 27.—Thieves broke into Fruit, Ohl & Co.'s hardware store before daylight this morning, and stole $300 worth of revolvers. There is no clew.

AS A COMMON SCOLD.

A Woman in Fayette County Held for Court on That Charge.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

UNIONTOWN, August 27.—Mrs. Ann Rankin, of Lick Hollow, at the foot of the mountains, was given a hearing to-day charged with being a common scold. This is the first case brought in Fayette of this kind under the old blue laws. Witnesses testified that Mrs. Rankin made a daily practice of standing in the highways and scolding everybody within earshot. She often put in a whole day at it.

Sometimes she kept quiet a full day, but rarely. She kept the Hollow in a continuous uproar and precipitated assaults and kept up strife. She and her son were held in bail for court.

A Street Railway Extension.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

ALTOONA, August 27.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Altoona City Passenger Railway Company it was decided to increase the capital stock $35,000 and to extend the present line to Millville, on the west, and Bellview on the east. This will give the line a length of six miles.

JOHN WARD'S WIFE WON'T STAR.

She Will Respect Her Husband's Wishes and Will Not Play.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, August 27.—Helen Dauvray isn't going to star after all. The printing and lithographs for her tour had been contracted for, and a part of them had even been finished. The route had been booked until after the holidays, and Harry Miner, who had arranged to send Miss Dauvray out, had engaged people for her support. Two days ago Miss Dauvray, who is Mrs. John M. Ward off the stage, visited Miner with her lawyer and stated very frankly that Mr. Ward was opposed to her contemplated return to the stage, and that she now desired to respect his wishes. She came to Miner prepared to make a financial settlement in return for her release, as an offset to the expense he had incurred already.

Manager Miner found himself in an uncomfortable position, but he looked at the matter sensibly, and at once informed Mrs. Ward that he would release her, and without compensation either. He had rented the Union Square for three weeks in October, at $2,500 a week, but he will try to dispose of the time to some other manager.

ADVISED TO GO SLOW.

Senator Ingalls Takes a Hand in an Electricity-Gas Company Fight.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, August 27.—Senator Ingalls, who is chief of the Senate Committee on the affairs of the district of Columbia, today took a hand in the fight between the Electric Power and Heat Company, of Pittsburg, and the gas company by informing the Commissioners that they had best go slow in granting to a foreign company the privilege of tearing up the streets to lay wires. The Senator could not explain, however, in what way it was more injurious for a foreign company to do this than for a domestic company. The truth is, the gas company is principally composed of Philadelphians, and there is hardly a corporation doing business under a charter in this city which is not as foreign in its composition as the Electric Heat and Power Company, which has several prominent gentlemen of Washington in its membership.

Before making the contract with the electric company the Commissioners laid the whole matter before Attorney Riddle, counsel for the District, who decided that the Commissioners could proceed as they have.

NO PANIC FEARED.

Mr. Batcheller Says This Administration Won't Allow Any Hard Times.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, August 27.—At the Treasury Department the report that speculators have bought $20,000,000 worth of bonds for the purpose of cornering the market and forcing the Secretary of the Treasury to pay a high premium is a subject for amusement. "All we know about it," said Assistant Secretary Batcheller to-day," is that we are getting all the bonds we want at our own figures. If there has been any such attempt as described it has failed. We got $2,000,000 of bonds yesterday at 128, our own price, and already this morning we have offers of $2,000,000 more at the same price. This is better than we have done before. We can get all the bonds we want at our own price.

"There is no danger of a stringency in the money market. There is now an abundance of money. With $2,000,000 a day going into the banks, I imagine no one expects a stringency. You can depend upon it, the Treasury Department is not going to permit a financial panic under this administration."

A SOMNAMBULIST'S FATAL FALL.

A Doctor Leaps From a Window While Dreaming and Is Killed.

MAYSVILLE, KY., August 27.—Dr. Garrett H. Holton died here to-day from injuries received last Thursday night. He was local agent of the Standard Oil Company. About midnight Thursday night he dreamed that his team ran off and that he jumped from the wagon. His bedroom was in the second story of his father's residence, and, while dreaming, he had taken a seat in the window. The imaginary jump from the vehicle was a real jump from the window.

At first it was thought he was not dangerously hurt, but his worst injuries were internal, and resulted fatally, the spine and brain being affected. He was about 23 years old.

A Day Laborer in St. Paul, Minn., Suddenly Raised to Affluence.

ST. PAUL, August 27.—Charles L. Watrous, a young man who has resided in St. Paul for the past six months, during which time he has been employed as a common laborer, has suddenly changed his mind as to the necessity for working. By the death of his father, in Australia, he inherits property estimated to be worth £3,000,000 sterling, and departed to-night over the Northern Pacific for the Antipodes to claim his vast estate. Watrous was in financial straits until to-day, when, glancing over the published list of unclaimed letters, he saw his name. The epistle, when secured, proved to be an announcement of the death of his father, J. B. Watrous, known the world over as the Australian Bonanza King, at Sydney, N. S. W. Young Watrous became estranged from his family seven years ago through an unfortunate liason with a ballet girl known as Hobart Town Polly. Watrous married her in Melbourne and the couple came to San Francisco, where Mrs. Watrous died while filling an engagement at the Bella Union Theater.

Watrous has been doing odd jobs all over the country, now hotel clerk and again a tramp, looking for work. During his residence in America he has carefully refrained from allowing a suspicion of his poverty to reach his parents, and has not, until receiving the draft accompanying the announcement of his father's death, received 1 cent from the store of Australian millions. The estate consists of a controlling interest in the Golden Fleece and Kentish claims, the famous Bendigo mine and large blocks of business property in Melbourne, Sydney and Auckland, New Zealand. The widow of the Bonanza King resides at Sandhurst, in the White Hills of Australia, and the prodigal son expects to reach home and enter upon his inheritance within the next six weeks.

TIRED OF HER TIES.

The Doctor Wife of a Sculptor Determined to Get a Divorce.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, August 27.—A divorce suit is at present before the Chicago courts that has unusual interest, and for which much of the testimony has been taken in this city. The plaintiff in the suit is Dr. Ella Jennings Macdonald, the whilom manager of a working woman's dispensary at 89 East Tenth street, in this city. She is a lady not yet 40 years of age, and a regular practitioner, graduated from a medical school in due form. The defendant, her husband, is Wilson Macdonald, a sculptor, and once a shining light in spiritualistic circles. The charge of having modeled the statue of Fitz Greene Halleck is laid at his door.

Mr. Wilson is a well preserved gentleman of 65. Mrs. Macdonald asks for a dissolution of the marriage tie on the ground of abandonment and non-support. Macdonald was a widower with grown children when he married her in Philadelphia 12 years ago.

The Bond-Buying Record Broken.

WASHINGTON, August 27.—The bonds purchased by the Treasury to-day reached the unusually large total of $5,395,000. They were all 4 per cent registered bonds and were bought at 128.

WHAT MORE CAN YOU ASK?
It is now an established fact that we are closing out our vast stock of goods to quit business, and in order to get through rapidly the prices must be made to suit the people. This is just what we are doing, as hundreds who have already taken the advantage of this sale can testify. Seeing is believing. Call at our store and you will not be disappointed, as you will then see the finest assortment in the city of Lamps, Glass, China and Queensware, Chandeliers, Clocks, Bronzes, Gas Fixtures, Cut Glassware, Articles for Use and Ornament, Wedding and Birthday Presents, etc. All of the latest styles. And bear in mind nothing will be reserved. All must go.

DO YOU KNOW
That among the greater number of people in the city the old style of buying has fallen into, as President Cleveland once remarked, "a state of Innocuous Desuetude," that is to say, it is one of the past means of buying goods, and we think so too, for since we inaugurated the Credit System of Payments, which gives a first chance to all who wish to complete the furnishing of their homes, we can see it, for our trade is increasing rapidly every day, and even now, when our business is supposed to be unusually dull, we are as busy as a hive of bees.

Now, one word in regard to our Fall stock. It is complete in every detail, and, of course, admits of the cheapest and best designs in the market. Just take a glance over some articles to be found here.

Carpets, Oil Cloths, Mattings, Lace Curtains, Chenille and Turcoman Portiere Curtains, Draperies of all kinds, bedroom, dining room, kitchen and office Furniture; Stoves and Ranges, which we positively guarantee to be perfect cookers and bakers, and a host of other things too numerous to mention, and remember, we give you LOTS OF TIME TO PAY FOR THEM.

165, 167 and 169 FEDERAL STREET.

Many changes in all departments, to be inaugurated September 1, compel us to covet room already occupied. The advance arrivals of early Fall Goods assist us in no way to get it. Can we have outside aid, giving marvelously tempting bargains in exchange for the coveted room? As for example, prices good this week only, we offer a

GLITTERING ARRAY OF BARGAINS:
All worth one-half to double the money. 20 pieces fine Challis, 3c to 6c a yard this week. 10 pieces extra wide India Linens, 8½c this week 15 pieces American Satines, 6¼c this week. 10 pieces French Satines 12½c this week. 50 pieces American Dress Ginghams, 5, 6 and 8½c this week. 50 pieces fast color Batistes, 6½c this week.

SILKS AND DRESS GOODS.
Black and colored Surahs, extra quality, 50c this week. Black Gros Grains, special values, 50c up this week. 24-inch Black Gros Grains, 90c; superior values, $1 and $1 25 this week. 1 pile 40-inch light colored all-wool Suitings, 12½c this week. 1 pile 40-inch light and dark colors, 22½c, are 50c goods. 1 pile 42-inch Grays, 25c, always sold a 60c.
