

A MISPLACED DAM.

That is the objection now urged against Davis Island's locks. The pool below is worthless.

OBJECTIONS TO THE NEVILLE BRIDGE

Though a reputed very wise man is credited with saying that in the midst of conditions there is safety there are a good many people in this country who refuse to admit it, so far at least as the Davis Island dam is concerned.

WHERE THE BLUNDER LIES.

It is pointed out that had it been placed 600 or 800 feet further down the river, not only would the dam and the island be nearly double what it is, but that hindrance to navigation, Hornet's rifle, would have no longer existed.

OPPOSED TO THE BRIDGE.

This project has been set upon before in the Davis Island, but it has not been so popular as it is now. It has grown so embarrassing to the workers that in all probability the doors must soon be closed in order that nothing will interfere with the work.

SUBJECT TO CRUELTY.

Why Mrs. Rinkoff Wants a Divorce—Court News in General.

J. H. Thompson, Esq., Commissioner in the divorce case of Wilhelmina Rinkoff against Ferdinand Rinkoff, yesterday filed the temporary decree in the suit.

THE COLLEGE OPENING.

The fall term of the Western University of Pennsylvania will begin next week. The classes will meet in Science Hall.

CONFIRMATION AND HARD WORK.

Indoors, particularly in the sitting posture, are most apt to become stiff and cramped. A muscular exertion in the open air.

A DELICIOUS DRINK.

And one that will prove wholesome and invigorating as well, is the famous "Pilsener" beer.

USE "DAN" GOLDEN SPRING PAIN.

Use "Dan" Golden Spring pain in the world. "Golden Wedding" is the best of breads.

W. M. DOWDEN'S VOICE WAS RECOGNIZED

Magistrate Gripp's office on Grant street was crowded yesterday when John Wilson and Willard Dowden were given a hearing on a charge of having instigated a plank on the Pittsburgh, Virginia and Charleston Railway tracks at Lostock station.

THE GANG WERE SINGING.

Thomas Davis, of Moss Side, knew Wilson and Dowden. They came to his place about 10 o'clock and left before 11.
