

BEATING SOUR GRAPES

Sure to Set the Teeth of One's Children on Edge for All Time.

THE SINS OF THE FATHERS

Visited on the Heads of the Children, to the Fourth Generation.

A LESSON TAUGHT TO ALL PARENTS

(WRITTEN FOR THE DISPATCH.)

"The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge." The Hebrews got a good deal of comfort out of this homely proverb. It is always a comfort when things are going wrong to be able to put the blame on somebody else. And in the days of Jeremiah and Ezekiel, when this proverb was most popular, things were going very wrong indeed.

THE YOUNG NORTHWEST

Colonel Jay Allen Describes It in Glowing Terms. Colonel E. Jay Allen, of the Board of Viewers, who has just returned from a trip to Washington Territory, says that it is one of the finest places he ever visited.

HOW THE BEGINNING WAS MADE

John McKee was held for court yesterday afternoon by Magistrate Gripp, on a charge of aggravated assault and battery, on oath of Patrick J. Walsh.

DO YOU KNOW?

Do you know that in the great West and Northwest there are still many acres of Government land that are being sold for a few cents an acre?

KEPT FROM BAD COMPANIONS

From forming evil habits. This responsibility, I say, is pretty generally realized. But the text teaches a responsibility of parents for their children's character.
