END OF THE WINDOW GLASS STRIKE. The quiet settlement of the window glass strike, by the concession of a moderate advance to the glass workers, was a mild and sensible way of ending what might otherwise have been a very stubborn and protracted dispute.

STORMS AND OVERHEAD WIRES. One of the incidents of the storm on the Atlantic coast gives an additional argument in favor of a general practice of putting the electric wires underground.

THE PHOENIX PARK MURDERER. The Phoenix Park murderer who claims his release from prison as the price of the testimony against Parnell, has a strong claim on the British Government.

THE CHANCES FOR PARKS. The interview with Mr. Bigelow, the head of the Department of Public Works, has brought to the attention of the public the fact that the parks of New York are in a state of neglect.

AN AGREEMENT REACHED. There is a certain lack of harmony among the statements as to the circumstances under which Commissioner Tanner's resignation was presented.

RETURN OF THE PILGRIMS. Americans are coming home in veritable legions from England, France, Germany, Mesopotamia, from the country beyond Tyre and Sidon, from all over the world.

THE VIRTUE OF DISCRETION. The case of Corporal Tanner was the leading piece on the political bills all last week and lively has been the commotion over it.

PERSONAL FACTS AND FANCIES. PRIVATE SECRETARY HALFORD'S illness is said to be due to over-indulgence in cigars.

Tanner's case that is gratifying by contrast with his other features. No one charges that pensions were fraudulently, dishonestly or illegally awarded during his incumbency.

Where an appropriation runs short and an Administration is discovering that two and two do not make five, these qualities in an official may not be the most useful.

THE RESTORATION OF JOHNSTOWN. With the further distribution of $1,600,000 ordered for the relief of Johnstown, the work of the relief committee is not yet over.

MR. CHARLES A. DANA'S REPORT. His report to start for Europe. Whether he hopes to discover there the site for a World's Fair or the money to build one, is among the interesting pieces of information that are withheld.

THE completion of a new 36-inch main from the city to the gas districts, together with the information credited to an official of the natural gas company that only one-fifth as many manufacturers are using gas as heretofore, ought to enable the company to make it an object to domestic consumers to use gas by meter.

THE Brotherhood of Baseball Players proposes to form a trust. If this organization adopts the regulation trust policy and proceeds to restrict the production of baseball players it may be a blessing in disguise.

ONE of the beauties of the trust business was illustrated by a report which was heard in Wall street the other day, that the Lead Trust has piled on another $10,000,000 addition to its capital stock.

THE number of readers that are attached to one photograph is practically illimitable. Eight or ten persons hear the same conversation, piece of music or what not from one instrument.

AFTER the example of Tanner, it is pertinent to suggest that it would be money in the pocket of the Republican party if some one could put a muzzle on the too active mouth of John James Ingalls.

COMMENTING upon Governor Abbott's political ambitions in New Jersey, the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette says: "Abbott is represented as a great organizer and campaigner, but is overmatched in this accomplishment by the Republican champion, ex-Senator Sewell."

who had grown up in his cups, encountered Marshal Stallings, representative of the Anston police force. The gallant Captain Pelham was advancing with the joyful intent of shooting Marshal Stallings when the latter shot the member of a First Family dead.

But the social law, unwritten but omnipotent, took charge of the Marshal. It compelled him to publish a card in which he ludicrously solemn terms he swears that he will leave Anston and the vicinity never to return, that he will reverse the memory of the man he shot, and of his sisters and his cousins and his aunts, and that "if ever in the years to come I shall meet John Pelham I will get out of his way."
