THE RACE PROBLEM

And Its Solution, as Viewed Through a Pair of Southern Spectacles.

THE SOUTH HAS IT TO SOLVE.

Some of the Ideas of Those in the North Who Would Handle It.

THE COLOR LINE DRAWN VERY TIGHT

(CORRESPONDENCE OF THE DISPATCH.)

COFFEEVILLE, MISS., September 12.—Again the race problem agitates the public mind, but it is one which the people of the South must work out for themselves.

The North is noted for its publicly expressed love for the black man—who does not live in the North—but when the appointment of a negro postmaster was in Alabama the sentiment of the press spoke the voice of the people when it said, "All right, so long as it is done in Alabama. White supremacy reigns here, and by the eternal gods of things we intend it shall continue prevailing."

THE LAW OF PUBLIC OPINION.

We refuse to receive the Chinaman, either as a servant or an equal, yet he is the representative of a powerful nation. In the redskin, whom we have disposed of his original rights, we recognize no equality, while the descendant of the barbarous black, whose tribe on the Golden Coast still trembles before a fetish, may now sit at the desk of Clay or Calhoun.

There is a corset that never breaks in wear; it cannot be broken in wear. No; that's going a little too far. There have to be steels in it. Steels will break. We don't mean the steels; but they are not the part that troubles corset-breakers.

What we mean is the "bones" don't break. The reason is they are Kabo, not bones at all; and Kabo don't break.

This corset that never breaks is the Kabo, mysterious Kabo, wonderful Kabo. Let every corset-breaker make the acquaintance of Kabo.

If the corset doesn't suit you, after wearing a week or two or three, go back to the store where you got it and get your money; and, if the Kabo breaks or kinks in a year, go back for your money.

There's a primer on Corsets for you at the store.

Indeed are those whose good sense has taught them that the best place to buy Household Goods of every description, either on time or for credit is Pickering's, the Old Reliable House, corner Tenth street and Penn avenue.

The ambitious young man whose wish is to succeed in life and who Happy husband of a lovely young bride, cannot do better than pay a visit to this popular house.

Supposing he has but a very small amount of capital to start life with, do you suppose that Pickering is the man to throw a damper on the young man's aspirations?

Not much. He was a young man himself once and knows exactly how it is.

He has a sympathetic feeling for young married couples and is only too pleased to help a young fellow to furnish a home for his

IS THE BRIDE

While on this subject it will be well for everybody to remember that altho' Pickering's great Exposition Suite, valued at $2,500, is on exhibit at the Exposition and that he has the grandest stock of Furniture, Carpets and Household Goods generally in this city and what is more sells on easiest of terms, he is so anxious that the Exposition be a great success tickets he gives away with every purchase are given away, no matter how small the amount may be, and that they are good for any day or any time the Exposition is open.

As is well known Pickering keeps ALL GRADES of Household Goods, from good to the very best, and whether the of prosperity shines on other houses or not Pickering intends to continue in the old well-worn path of giving better values, better goods; naming lower prices, giving better terms and more courteous treatment than all other dealers in his line.

Depend on it this popular store will be the favored spot where prosperity will forever

SHINE ON.

PUBLIC CRITICISM

IS COURTED

ON

KAUFMANN'S NEW FALL STOCK.

Our anxiety to have the critical eye of the public examine our grand Fall Stock is like that of the author of a new and really good book.

The more people look into it, examine, scrutinize and criticise it, the more and higher will be the encomiums.

There are merchants who are afraid of letting their garments see the light of day. With us it's quite the contrary.

Right under the rays of clear, brilliant, honest sunlight, so plentifully admitted to our salesrooms by their large windows, we ask you to see and try on the garments we show.

We want you to look at every particular—the quality of the cloth and trimmings, the style and cut, the make and fit—and we defy you to point out to us a single defect. And as for the most important point, THE PRICES, we have simply to say this: Unless you find them from 20 to 30 per cent lower than elsewhere (quality and work considered) don't patronize us.

Ladies' Fine Fall Garments.

Our handsome, well appointed Cloak department is now filled to overflowing with the latest and loveliest styles in Cloaks, Newmarkets, Wraps, Jackets, Plush Goods, etc.

The Ladies of the two cities are cordially invited to call and post themselves in regard to styles and prices. They will be welcome, whether wishing to purchase or not. We shall continue as heretofore, to lead the Cloak trade of Pittsburgh by offering the best and finest garments at prices which will meet with the approval of the closest shoppers.

We would call special attention to our large importations of fine goods from Berlin and Paris. They are the richest and most tasteful garments ever shown in this country.

Misses' and Children's Cloaks, Jackets, etc., in all the new and popular designs.

The First Floor of Our Store, devoted to our Shoe, Hat and Furnishing Goods departments, is well worth a visit. In each line of these goods we are the recognized leaders of Pittsburgh. This means that we carry the LARGEST STOCKS, the HANDSOMEST STYLES, the BEST GOODS and NAME THE LOWEST PRICES.

A single purchase, however small, will quickly convince you of the great advantages we offer to our patrons. Now, then, if you need a pair of Boots or Shoes, a Hat or Cap, a Shirt, a suit of Underwear, a Scarf, etc., etc., prepare to find these goods at their best right here under the roof of our store.

Our large and ever growing trade is the best argument we can advance in favor of our methods of doing business.

Men's Fine Fall Clothing.

Our cheapest suit is $5—our finest is $30. Between these two extremes we show a world of fashion and fineness. Magnificent Business Suits at $10, $12 and $15. Exquisite Dress Suits at $18, $20, $23 and $25.

In Sack Suits we have the single and double breasted, cutaway or cut square. In Frock Suits we have the 1, 3 and 4-button cutaway and Prince Albert styles. The cutaway sack and 3-button cutaway frock, however, will be the leading styles of the season.

In Fall Overcoats our new styles must be seen to be appreciated. The materials are as fine as can be manufactured and the garments are as perfect as any tailor can make them.

Boys' Fine Fall Clothing.

Mothers, we have surprises in store for you that'll delight you. Boys' Clothing that's as fine as it is cheap, as unique as it is elegant, as noble as it is stylish.

A goodly portion of our new Kilt and Short Pant Suits has been imported by ourselves and cannot be found elsewhere in this city. In short there isn't a new style or a good quality that you cannot find in our mammoth stock. And, if you're shrewd, you'll not delay purchasing, but come in right now.

We have some beautiful notions in Boys' and Children's Fall Overcoats, in light and medium weight. They're something entirely new and are especially intended for fine trade.
