TWO LOCAL PACERS MATCHED FOR $400.

Some Good Racing at Churchill Downs—Results at Fleetwood Park.

Notwithstanding the rain a good crowd witnessed the Grand Circuit trotters at Fleetwood Park yesterday. The contests were stubborn and exciting.

FLEETWOOD PARK, September 20.—If one may judge by the crowd that assembled at Fleetwood Park this afternoon, it will take more than adverse weather to lessen the interest in harness racing among metropolitan horsemen.

It looked anything but favorable at noon, yet the carriages rolled through the gate, and the passengers came from different parts as if it was a series of running contests to be seen, which would go on rain or shine.

Doble took an afternoon off and let Start steer his horses that were entered in to-day's contests. He was disappointed that the track was so heavy that his young charge, Reina, could not carry her speed over it.

As he expected to win the 2:28 class with her. This event, which began to-day and had to be postponed after to hea, proved an easy thing for the bay mare Moonlight until she ended the race in the first heat trotted today, and also earned a new record of 2:25 1/2.

STUBBORN CONTESTS. Both the regular events proved long and stubborn, especially the Fleetwood stake, which came first, occupying the whole afternoon, and being finally ended only by stretching the race into evening.

It was not until 10 o'clock that the heat was run, and it was not until 11 o'clock that the race was over. The heat was won by the bay mare Moonlight, who won in 2:25 1/2.

His most formidable adversaries were Katherine and Cleveland, who were not far behind her. The race was won by the bay mare Moonlight, who won in 2:25 1/2.

For the 2:22 class, the favorite, Senator, was able to carry off the honors, he found it no easy task, though he had evidently much more speed than any of his field.

SHOT HER LITTLE SISTER. A Distressing Accident Caused by Careless Disposition of Firearms.

PHILADELPHIA, September 20.—Maggie Tobin, 10 years old, accidentally shot and killed her 6-year-old sister, Ellen, to-day, while the two, in company with a companion, Lottie Lee, aged 7 years, and Hughy Laverty, a neighbor's child of 4 years, were playing together in a room on the third story of the Tobin girls' home, at 617 North Front street. The family had recently moved from Manayunk, and the pistol belonged to the girls' brother, James. The girls had been playing about an hour this morning when little Maggie discovered the pistol. She stood on a chair, reached the top shelf, and secured the weapon, which she fastened to her fully pointed at Hughy, saying: "Let's play soldier." Lottie exclaimed: "Don't point it at Hughy; it might go off."

whereupon it did so, and the weapon toward her smaller sister and pulled the trigger. There was a loud report and little Ellen fell, with a gaping wound in the side of her head. The noise of the revolver attracted the father's attention, and he hastened to the room. It was found that the ball had penetrated the skull directly behind the right ear. The little girl lingered for an hour in great agony.

AN ITALIAN DETECTIVE. Appointed by Chief Browns to Keep an Eye on His Contemners.

Chief Brown yesterday appointed August Buffalo, an Italian, as a detective on the local force, and he was sworn in for that duty. Buffalo has been in this country for 10 years, has been naturalized, is said to be well educated and a shrewd man, and is adapted to the detective business. He furnished valuable information to the police at the time of the Franceschillo murder in the East End last Saturday night, and proved his suitability to the position to which he has been appointed.

It is expected that he will aid the police greatly in ferreting out the criminals. The necessary. The experiment was successfully tried in New York, and there are now a dozen Italian detectives there.

Buffalo will do general detective work, but will be located in the Second district.
