the Small Change.

HURLEY, WIS., September 21 .- Every month about this time the Ashland and Germania Iron Mining Companies pay off their large forces of employes, and for this purpose Cashier Willey, of the Ashland National Bank, shipped an immense sum of money to Hurley last night via the United States Express Company. Upon the arrival of the money at Hurley the Express Company sent it to the Iron Exchange Bank in rheelbarrows. Between the hours of 10:30 and 11:30 last night the bank was entered and the entire amount of the shipment carried away by robbers. Only minor coin was left behind. According to Cashier Willey's statement $41,700 was shipped from Ashland to Hurley. Of this, $25,180 was in bank notes, $13,980 in gold and $2,540 in

The robbers, as there must have been more than one, had their plans laid most per-fectly. Like nearly every bank, the Hurley Depository has a vault and a safe inside of it with a time lock. As the money arrived in town at 9:15 P. M., after the closing of the bank, the money could not be put in the safe. It was placed inside the vault, how-ever, and Cashier W. S. Reynolds remained in the bank taking care of the large treasure until 10:15 o'clock, when a friend came along and he went out to the theater with him. When the cashier returned at 11:30 he noticed that the vault door had been opened. Looking inside he was thunder-struck to see that the money was gone. A large number of small silver coins were cattered all over the floor of the vault and all was confusion.

Sheriff Mattson was hurriedly tele graphed, but did not receive any notice of the robbery until too late to catch the train for Hurley. Not even the faintest clew was lett by the bold burglars. The door of the vault had not been marred, and it was opened by some one who had learned the combination. There were only two men supposed to be in possession of it, Cashier Reynolds and Assistant Cashier Leonard

The exact amount stolen was $39,895. The robbers were evidently in too much of a hurry to take small silver, and $1.805 was left behind. The United States Express Company is the loser of the money. They did not deposit it in the bank, but merely left it there for safe keeping over night, when it would be delivered to the consignee, Manager William P. Lyon, of the Ashland and Germania mines. It is likely that the express company will announce a heavy remains for the assessment of the hypoterists.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., September 21 .-

United States Senator Frank Hiscock, who poses as a big man as office broker and dispenser of patronage under the Harrison administration, was utterly repudiated by the Republicans of his own county at their

Assembly and County Nominating Con-candidates for the county and Assembly nominations were ignominiously defeated by candidates backed by Congressman J. J.

Senator Hiscock came up to Syracuse from New York City Thursday and called a conference of his political henchmen to meet at his residence that evening. Senator

Francis Hendricks and other Hiscock allies were present at the gathering to receive the Senator's edict. A slate was made out for the Assembly nominations in the First and Second districts, and for the District Attorneyship, and the faithful were rallied

A REBUKE PREPARED.

For more than a year, however, the Onon-daga Republicans had been preparing to administer a rebuke to the Senator, and recently the mutterings of discontent over his local boss-ship have been heard. Among various influences the friends of Congressman J. J. Belden took advantage of the disaffection and prepared to make their strength apparent at the convention. His-cock had given out that it was of prime im-portance that he and his friends should be able to control the Assemblymen to be sent to the Legislature from Onondaga this

The renomination of Francis Hendricks

The renomination of Francis Henurica-for State Senator was supposed to be assured, and Hiscock counted upon having a straight representation in the Legislature that could be relied upon to do the bidding of himself and Boss Platt. When the assembly nominating conventions, however, assembled to-day, the Senator's friends found to their dismay that the friends of Congressman Belden had secured control of them, and that their slate would be utterly smashed.

THE SLATE SMASHED.

Howard G. White was nominated for member of Assembly in the First district, after a small but desperate show of opposi-tion by Hiscock's henchmen. In the Second district ex-Mayor Willis B. Burns was nominated for the Assembly. This was another defeat for Senator Hiscock, whose candidate was utterly routed.

To-day the preliminaries for a final struggle between the friends of Congressman Belden and Senators Hiscock and Hendricks took place. The County Convention was called to meet at the Albambra Rink, the largest hall in the State, and the one where the Democratic State Convention is to meet.

The spacious hall was packed, for it was well understood that a desperate strife was to take place. The Belden men supported T. E. Hancock for District Attorney and the Hiscock and Hendricks men supported the convention the Hiscock forces, which were led by a brother of the United States Senator, attempted to sit down upon Thomas R. O'Neill, the leader of the Belden forces, GREAT CONFUSION EXISTED.

A delegate shouted: "No United States Senator can bulldoze us," and another ex-claimed: "Get out from under Hiscock's big and shapely hand." Hancock, Belden's candidate, received a handsome majority defeat within three days.

The utter rout of Hiscock and his forces is the talk of the town to-night, and many Republicans are urging the shelving of Senator Francis Hendricks, who is very anxious to be re-nominated. The Republicans of the dis-trict will leave Hendricks at home this fall, if Congressman Belden will only give the word to do so. For the past ten years Hiscock has controlled the organization and machinery of the Republican party in this section, which now passes into the hands of Congressman Belden's friends. The latter are indignant at the manner in which Hiscock has treated Congressman Belden in the matter of Federal and local patronage.

who has sought to grasp even the petties office to be dispensed. Hiscock, although United States Senator, has stooped to grab at even the ward offices, and has in consequence disgusted the better men of the Republican party by his course.

Congressman Belden's friends will also control the delegates to the Republican State Convention which were elected yesterday and to-day. The United States Senator and his friends are in a gloomy and despondent state to-night. They find themselves in the soup, and were astounded at were on the way home from Rosalie accompanied by their 3-year-old child.

The neighbors were summoned to institute a search, but the child could not 'e found. Mrs. Edward's strange actions aroused suspicion, and she was finally charged with having murdered the child. She denied the charge indignantly and the search was con-tinued. The child could not be found.

Mr. and Mrs. Bloomer were satisfied in their minds that Mrs. Edwards had made over the limb of a tree. Just as the body of the alleged murderess was about to leave the ground she broke down and confessed that during extreme annoyance at the child's disobedience of her commands she had killed it and given the body to her husband to dispose of it. He carried it to the creek near by and threw it in the water. Her husband denied any complicity in the crime, and the same means were resorted to force a confession from him that had been

NEW YORK, September 21.—For some time past the leading sporting goods houses of this city have been systematically swin-dled by means of a forged order purporting dled by means of a forged order purporting to have been signed by the Goodyear Rubber Company. Finally the rubber company mailed printed postal cards to all the sporting goods and firearm houses in the city, notifying that no one was authorized to obtain goods for them upon their written order. This morning a pleasant-appearing, well-dressed young man of about 20 years of age, entered the store of W. C. Hodgkins & Co., at 300 Broadway, and said that he wanted six revolvers for the Goodyear Rubber Company.

Mr. Hodgkins, who waited upon the customer, said that he would send to the agents for enough of the revolvers to fill the order, not having enough in stock. A man was dispatched for an officer under pretext of going for the revolvers. In the meantime the young man presented an order purporting to have been signed by the Goodyear Rubber Company. Just then an officer arrived and arrested the swindler. He gave his name as Robert Just, of Chattanooga, Tenn., and his occupation as that of an electrician. He was fully identified.

We Brothers Cause a Very Serious Affray Upon a Pa The survivors of the Seventy-seventh Regiment of Pennsylvania volunteers held a meeting last night, and some of the most pathetic records were exhibited. The regiment was in the Western army, and of course was not in action with the army of the Potomso. The talk was of Chickamauga, Chattar and other Western work, and the result was that although Pennsylvania troops were present there in each instance, the majority of the boys were here in Pennsylvania at the time when it needed preservation against the rebels.

Instead of following out the instructions he received it is said that he began to drink pretty freely, and when he called at the office of Dr. Dean last evening the latter refused to amputate the injured member while he was in that condition. He returned this morning and desired to have his finger taken off. While the anæsthetics were being administered the man died, before he had been fairly put under the first stage, of the usual effects.

The first intimation the physicians had that the man was being seriously affected was when Dr. Dean instructed Dr. Clifford to make an examination of the patient's pulse. When he did so he remarked that the man had no pulse, whereupon every effort was put forth to arouse him, but it was too late.

Dr. Dean says the man evidently died of heart failure, as such a brief period had elapsed from the time they began to work on the patient until he was dead. Speaking of the sad affair, Dr. Dean said: "I knew that the man had been on a spree and pretty well debilitated. I commenced etherixing him at 20 minutes before 9 o'clock. The troubles arose from the Baltimore and Ohio putting new locks on a switch which connects the Columbus and Mount Vernon and the Baltimore and Ohio and permits the former to have access to the works of the Ohio Iron Company, and demanding of the Columbus and Mount Vernon people that when they wanted to use the switch they should first obtain an order from the train dispatcher of the Baltimore and Ohio road. Instead the locks were broken and locks of the Columbus and Mount Vernon Company put in their places.

The Baltimore and Ohio then tore up the switch, and the Columbus and Mount Vernon had about completed putting it down again when two Baltimore and Ohio yard engines and a large number of men appeared on the scene. The engines took their position where the switch should go down, and occupied the ground for some time. The feeling between the two squads of men became such that it was deemed best to summon the police force, which stood guard till the injunction was served.
