TO GO INTO DETAILS ABOUT OUR GRAND STOCK

would be next to impossible, since we could easily write two pages of this paper and yet leave the half untold. We must confine ourselves therefore to the pointing out of a few of the most interesting features.

OUR MAGNIFICENT DIRECTOIRE STYLE GARMENTS, for instance, are worthy of special notice. Nothing will be more extensively worn this fall and winter than the Directoire—Directoire Newmarkets, short and long Jackets and Wraps. We have them in a most bewildering profusion of imported and domestic materials—Camel's Hair Cloths, Beavers, Invisible Stripes, Fancy Cloths, Brocades, finished plain or with braid, applique, brocade or passementerie in shades to match materials. We also have Directoire styles in Misses' Cloaks and Jackets. Our new Peasant garments, too will prove quite an attraction. They are so graceful and comfortable that they are bound to have a big sale.

IN ENGLISH SEAL PLUSH GARMENTS, OUR GREAT SPECIALTY,

we have surprises in store for the Ladies of Pittsburg that will be most agreeable. Aside from showing none but strictly reliable goods, and all the latest styles of the season, we are in a position to name matchlessly low prices. We have Plush Jackets, Wraps and Sacques from $9 up, and they will be found equal, if not superior, to anything shown elsewhere for $15. In the finer and the finest grades our prices are proportionately low.

We would also point to our grand variety of Ladies' Jackets. We show over 500 styles, including the Directoire and Imitation Vest designs. The materials are Broadcloths, Beavers, Twills, Corkscrews, Cassimeres, Diagonals, Meltons, etc., in goblin, gray, garnet, black, brown, navy, as well as all kinds of stripes, checks, plaids and mixtures. A grand and complete assortment of Misses', Children's and Infants' garments. TAKE NOTICE! Our store will be closed next Thursday, on account of holiday.

KAUFMANN'S GRAND CLOAK DEPARTMENT

the favorite shopping place of the Ladies of Pittsburg, is now ready—ready in all the word implies—for the Fall and Winter Season, 1889-90. No pains or money have been spared to lay before our customers a stock of garments that for extent and elegance, style and quality would stand second to none ever exhibited in any city on this continent, and how well we have succeeded in this effort a single visit to our Cloak Department will suffice to disclose. Every fashion center on both Hemispheres has been visited by our alert and experienced buyers. Europe was 'done' by Mr. Henry Kaufmann himself. The choicest products of the most celebrated manufacturers of Berlin, Paris and London were secured by him. Unlike the other local dealers, he considered nothing too fine or fashionable for the Ladies of the Twin Cities, but bought the very best garments to be found. The same plan was followed out in the home markets, and, as the direct result, we now rejoice in the possession of stock of Ladies' garments—THE MOST STYLISH AND EXQUISITE EVER EXHIBITED IN THIS PART OF THE COUNTRY.

But our large stock and pretty styles are not the only nor the main inducement we hold out to our patrons. Having made our purchases "on both sides of the water" on a most gigantic scale, and having paid spot cash for every dollar's worth of goods shown by us, we were accorded especially low prices by the manufacturers, and it is this fact that now enables us to SELL OUR SUPERIOR GARMENTS FOR LESS MONEY THAN THE INFERIOR QUALITIES CAN BE BOUGHT ELSEWHERE.

Another point we paid particular attention to was that all our garments were tailor-made. Experience teaches us that they give the best satisfaction in wear and durability, besides they are far superior to the regular "shop" made garments in fit, finish and gracefulness of draping. With these goods we propose to capture the Cloak trade of the Pittsburg and Allegheny at the very outset of the season.
