

THE HOME TALENT HOLD THE BIG GIANTS EVEN. A STRUGGLE IN THE RAIN. Old Sport Galvin Shows Up in Great Style Once More.

THE BOSTON'S CREEP UP A LITTLE. Anson's Team Wins and Goes Up to Third Place.

GENERAL BASEBALL NEWS OF THE DAY. There was an exciting game between the Giants and the home players.

Had the championship season not been so near a termination and had the struggle for the pennant not been so excitingly close...

DRIZZLING RAIN WAS FALLING. After half inning had been played "time" was called, and then the little crowd became so impatient...

THEY STARTED LATE. It was after 4 o'clock when Carroll went to bat in the first inning.

THE GIANTS' REVENGE. Not so with the Giants from the East. As if by revenge they lighted on to old Jones to an effective extent.

DEATH OF A BLOW. John Jones, a Homestead Lad, Under Arrest, Charged With Murder.

HE HAD HIS WAY. He had his way, but the rain was coming down fast. The fifth inning was played with blanks on both sides.
