

IT BEATS THEM ALL.

This is the Opinion of Director Innes About the Exposition.

ST. LOUIS IS THE ONLY BIG RIVAL.

The Cambrian Male Chorus Will Sing Famous Songs To-Night.

MUSIC OF THE QUAINT WELSH BARDS

The pleasant director of the famous Thirtieth Regiment Band, Mr. F. N. Innes, now at the Exposition, looked for all the world like a man who had just returned from a long and successful tour.

"Well (meditatively), I have played in every great exposition in the country, and St. Louis is the only one that can hold a candle to yours. Milwaukee, or rather Minneapolis, is only minor, though successful, Cincinnati is only good, and always has, and I believe always will lose money, while Chicago isn't in the swim. Believe me, this is in sober earnest, for I have no ax to grind. Your Pittsburgh Exposition is one of the most handsome and successful I have ever seen."

"The audiences are cold, cold at first, but warming up with every number. That they know good music I confess, for my number three, 'The Blue Bird,' was given with a perfect ovation that surprised us all. This, you will remember, was probably the greatest descriptive idea ever composed by incomparable Liszt—'The Blue Bird.' It speaks in words of love, and despair, and war, and conquest, and it is my ideal. We were prepared for some slight applause, and we did our best to deserve it. When the last notes died away, my darling trombone nearly fell from my hands, for such a reception, believe me, it has never received outside of a concert hall, where not a pin would divert the attention of the audience. I thank you Pittsburgh people for the reception to-night, and cannot complain henceforth."

To-night the long-delayed and anxiously looked-for Welsh concert will be given by the best talent in the ranks of the sweet singers of lovely Wales. The celebrated Cambrian male chorus will render four numbers culled from the prettiest and most patriotic songs of that music-loving nation. They will sing these songs:

- 1. Harlech ("War Song")... Gwynn Gwent
2. Cydan y Mor ("Sailors' Chorus")... Gwynn Gwent
3. Llywys Gwn ("Ash Grove")... Gwynn Gwent
4. Soldiers' Chorus (on special request)... Faust
5. Y Goff ("The Blacksmith")... Jenkins

Special attention is called to the last number, "The Blacksmith," which is the rendition of this the Cambrian Society lately won the prize at the last grand musical contest held in Pittsburgh.

The Thirtieth Regiment Band will have a greater success in a musical line in store later on in the week.

Following is the programme of the Thirtieth Regiment Band for to-day:

- 1. Overture—"War Song".... Mendelssohn
2. Cornet solo—"Felicé Waltz".... Libarati
3. Fantasia Descriptive—"A Summer's Day in Norway".... Williams
4. Spanish love song—"La Paloma".... Yradier
5. Fackoltana.... Meyerbeer

A GORGEOUS DISPLAY FRENCH FROM PARIS.

As you pass down Fifth avenue, attention is attracted to a large window, divided by an arched doorway into two compartments. The lower side is devoted entirely to such Mexican curios as have been recently imported into this city. Every variety, from the merely clouded to the deepest and most singular markings and veinings, many of the richest shades of bronze, copper, and steel, and in some cases, a combination of several of these metals, is to be seen. The upper division is filled with perfect groups in Sevres and Dresden china. Two superb Sevres vases hold the most lovely and rarest specimens of the kind. The lower side of the window is occupied by a large and beautiful collection of French school, the reverse side shows a splendid array of French school, the reverse side shows a splendid array of French school, the reverse side shows a splendid array of French school.

Every housekeeper, whose arms have ached after manipulating the usual makeshifts for beaters, should examine this one. All are invited.
