

COL. DANKS GUILTY.

The Methodist Ministers Find Charges Against Him True. LEGAL ARGUMENTS ON BOTH SIDES.

The Old Soldier Must Retire From Active Service in the Ministry.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONFERENCE

The Methodist Conference Court of inquiry in the Colonel John A. Danks case concluded its hearing of testimony yesterday evening.

THE COLONEL ASTONISHED.

He said he was astonished that a man whom he believed to be his friend should have done such a thing. He declared it was quite positive that such was the case.

WHAT WOULD FLOW IN.

Rare prints, engravings, paintings and every other kind of valuable article would assuredly flow in from all sources. It would be an incentive to give and contribute which does not now exist owing to the desultory and uncoordinated donations of the various societies.

HE SAW THE PRESIDENT.

James S. McKean and John Wammancker's interview with Gen. Harrison—Fields and McKean stand together.

THE ELECTRIC PLANT BIDS.

A gentleman who was intimately acquainted with the late Captain Jones yesterday: "I was in Braddock yesterday morning when the new appointments were made known, and I gathered from several of the leading employers that I spoke on the matter, that the men regarded them with satisfaction."

THE NEW SUPERINTENDENTS.

They Are the Men Whom the Late Captain Jones Would Have Chosen. A gentleman who was intimately acquainted with the late Captain Jones yesterday: "I was in Braddock yesterday morning when the new appointments were made known, and I gathered from several of the leading employers that I spoke on the matter, that the men regarded them with satisfaction."

BITHER AND THITHER.

Movements of Pittsburghers and Others of Wide Acquaintance. A. H. Bolton, of Stanfordshire, Eng., with his son and daughter, are guests at the residence of Mr. Bolton in the city.

WORLD FOR BLASFORD.

The committee had been and heard Mr. Blasford, and would be able to judge of his character from his manner and language in their presence. Rev. Mr. Miller alluded, in a sarcastic way, to Colonel Danks' plea that he sent the letter to Mr. Blasford simply as a feeler, to find out if he really were the guilty party.

REV. MR. CORE IN DEFENSE.

Rev. J. Franklin Core, of Wilkingsburg, spoke for half an hour in defense of Colonel Danks. Mr. Core was like his ecclesiastical client, a soldier of the Union. After elucidating the details of the regulations in regard to a minister's conduct, he proceeded to score Thomas Blasford, as a man who had professed, under the guise of friendship, to secure the ruin of a minister of the church.

HELD HIM FOR COURT.

Swartzman Gave Back the Money and Wanted to Go Free. Swartzman admitted last night at the hearing before Alderman Porter that he broke open the trunk of Henry Gass, his room mate, and abstracted $50.

FREEZING AIR PIPES.

A Curious Order is Being Filled in the Mills of Pittsburg. THE CONDUITS FOR SAN FRANCISCO. How They will be Utilized There in the Manufacture of Iron.

THE RUSTLESS PROCESS EXPLAINED

A curious order has been received and almost executed by a Lawrenceville firm from a large San Francisco artificial ice company. It calls for two miles of six-inch diameter rustless iron pipes, to be used for passing cold air through, and freezing large quantities of water.

MADE AIR-TIGHT.

After the air has been shut off the superheater, which is located in the combustion chamber at the rear of the furnace, and at right angles to the boiler, is opened, and the furnace is filled with steam and kept in this condition for eight hours.

A LARGE REPRESENTATION.

Knights of Labor Delegates Take Action on Coal Matters. This telegram was received from Scotland last night: To-day's session of the delegate meeting of the Division 4, K. of L., was anything but a dull affair.

THE TEACHERS' EXCURSION.

Nearly 400 School Missresses and Their Pupils Will Go. The train will consist of eight coaches and a woman and the car, and an agent of the company will accompany the excursion.

A YOUNG GIRL DISAPPEARS.
