

SCOUTS OFF GUARD.

A Wet Sunday Proves an Unlucky One for Four Speak-Easies.

THE INSPECTOR'S CLEVER PLAN.

Mrs. Becker's Place Within a Stone's Throw of the Central.

COPIOUS SUPPLY OF LIQUOR FOUND

It was a cold and wet day for "speak-easies." The patrons of these places thought the rain would keep the police in dry socks, and they were unprepared for general raids.

McAleese left his house in the Eleventh ward and walked down to the corner of Wylie avenue and Elizabeth street.

While he was standing there waiting for a car, he noticed a party of men turn down Soho street.

From their appearance he thought they were going to a speak-easy, and it set him thinking how he might catch the proprietor of a place which had been bothering him for several months.

At No. 27 Soho street, John Boden has been running a large saloon ever since the license was granted last spring.

He was reported by a very disreputable element. Complaints concerning it have been made to the police.

The inspector considered a rainy day the best time to swoop down upon the place.

He returned to his house, called up Detective Coulson at City Hall by telephone and told him to get Captain Dan and drive as rapidly as possible to the corner of Kirkpatrick and Wylie.

Twelve minutes later a carriage with its blinds drawn down, and driven by two men in black frock coats, cornered at the intersection of Wylie and Elizabeth streets.

The carriage door was opened and the driver crawled in, six in a box. The carriage was then driven rapidly down Soho street.

The officers jumped out and ran for the doors, three to the rear and three to the front. The occupants were surprised at the sudden appearance of the police.

McAleese and Officer Mulvihill, Inspector McAleese and Officer Deale, Detective Coulson, Demmel and Mulvihill, Inspector McAleese and Officer Deale, Detective Coulson, Demmel and Mulvihill.

The police officers proceeded to the Central station where they were met by Constable Charles Foster.

Another accident occurred yesterday morning on the Pittsburg and Western Railroad trestle at the foot of Chatters street.

There they found Mrs. Becker and five men. On a table rested a keg of port wine and a jug containing two gallons of chicken-broth.

The house was well furnished with glasses and soft drinks. The five men gave their names as H. W. Foidick, a roamer at the house; John Smith, John Jones, John Jones and Sam Jones.

We can furnish you with the best pianos and organs made, and can give you the best and easiest terms.

Persons buying from us can be satisfied that they are getting the full worth of their money, as the pianos and organs we sell are the best made in the United States.

THE CLOSING WEEK.

Exposition Managers Pleased With the Financial Success.

This is the last week of the Exposition. The great show will close on Saturday, and the managers are highly pleased with their financial success.

Manager Johnston will sail for Paris, and he has carte blanche orders to bring back whatever he thinks will improve the Exposition for next year.

Some novelties are promised in the way of amusements this week. The musical programme for to-day follows:

- 1. Overture—"Le Domino Noir".....Suppe
2. Part Song—"Sweet and Low".....Barry
3. Song—"The Rose Tree".....Florence
4. Solo for Flute—"Alceste".....Wadsworth
5. March—"F. Wadsworth".....Hobbe
6. Overture—"Alfonso and Estrella".....Schubert
7. Solo for Cornet—"Les Folies Bergeres".....Innes
8. Musical Selection—"The Mikado".....Sullivan
9. Grand Chorale—"The Rose Tree".....Florence
10. Galop—"Southern Flotation".....Cassidy

At the Central station hearing yesterday morning Magistrate Grip disposed of 40 cases, most of which were of the common order.

William J. Conway, for disorderly conduct, was sent to the workhouse for 30 days.

At the hearing yesterday the testimony was not sufficient to convict the defendants, and they were discharged.

They will be sent back to the St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum.

At about 11 o'clock on Saturday night three boys, named George Ripborn, John Workman and Louis Ballock, none of them over 9 years old, were found on the corner of Thirty-third street and Herron avenue.

The boys claimed they lived on Washington street, but could not tell where. Yesterday when questioned by Inspector McAleese they admitted that they were runaways from St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum on Troy Hill.

They were sent back to that institution.

At the hearing yesterday the testimony was not sufficient to convict the defendants, and they were discharged.

GOING TO ST. LOUIS.

Rev. A. H. Miller Will Take Charge of a Millionaire's Church—A Beaver Falls Pastor Seeks to Leave Friends.

Rev. A. H. Miller has resigned the pastoral charge of the Beaver Falls M. E. Church, and proceeds next week to St. Louis to begin his new duties at the pastor of the Niedringhaus Memorial Church.

Mr. Miller was last night at the home of E. Church, East Liberty, where he has been attending conference. Speaking of his departure, he said:

"This is the bitterest sacrifice I have ever been called upon to make. It is a terrible wrench to resign one of my oldest pastorate, and to go goodby to so many friends and relations all around Pittsburgh."

Dr. J. L. Fulton, prominent member of the Niedringhaus church, the founder, as a fit person to take charge of his church. At first I refused to accept the offer of the pastorate, but finally agreed to step into the shoes of the departed pastor.

The church is very fine and extensive, building, capable of containing a congregation of from 15,000 to 18,000. There are dining rooms, Sabbath schools, a gymnasium, and a home for the aged, in connection with the church, and as it is situated in the center of a populous district, I am confident that I shall be able to do much good.

The church is intended as a memorial to the son of Mr. Niedringhaus, who died long ago. The founder said to Mr. Miller, on the occasion of his visit to St. Louis: "That was a very noble sentiment," said Mr. Miller, "and I am sure that the church will prove a blessing, not only for the dead son, but also for the living father."

He was not drunk. William Burns, of Mansfield, who fell on Fifth avenue, Saturday night, injuring his ankle, says he carried him when he was hurt kind people carried him into Newell's restaurant and gave him a slug of whisky, which afterward turned his head slightly.

Mr. Burns is a cripple and in consequence of the report that he was drunk has lost his position on the Panhandle road. The Dispatch takes pleasure in making this correction.

The saignees sale at auction of dry goods, clothing, hats, shoes, etc., at 729 and Liberty street, corner Eighth, will commence this morning at 10 o'clock, afternoon at 2 and evening at 7:30, and continue from day to day until the entire stock is sold.

This important sale of well worthy of the attention of the public generally. The goods are all the choicest quality, and must be secured at once, as prices, and in small quantities, may vary.

The management has made special arrangements for the accommodation of the ladies. For further particulars see advertisement in another column.
