The local club had a little contest with the Homesteads, of the County League. The score was 9 to 2 in favor of the home players. Manager McGunnigle, of the Brooklyn club, says he will resign at the end of the championship series.

Probably the best game so far in the series between the Pittsburgh and the county league teams was that of yesterday at Recreation Park. The Homesteads tackled the National League, and really made a creditable performance.

Like all the amateur teams heretofore the Homesteads were really a team of players. National League pitcher, they faced Staley, and when it is said that he struck them out it will be well understood that the visitors were in very great difficulties as far as batting was concerned.

THEIR WEAK POINT. With perfect play on the part of the home players they should have shut out Dietz, the pitcher of the County League team, who is the best of the visitors and he pitched a very good game considering his class.

WORK OF THE INFANT BEING GREAT. The visitors really started off as if they were going to make victims of the big people, and scored one in the first inning in the local team's home.
