VALUABLE PRECAUTIONS. The fact that the health authorities are on the watch against the appearance of smallpox, from the cities to the north, where that disease is now reported, is one of the best safeguards against any serious outbreak.

UNCONVINCING ASSURANCES. It is very pleasant to have the constant assurances which the Pittsburgh public is receiving that our electric light wires are perfectly safe.

SMALLPOX HAS NEVER BEEN EPIDEMIC IN PITTSBURGH, except where there was at the start a discreditable neglect by the health authorities of the obvious methods of isolation and disinfection.

THE MATTER IS TO BE REMEDIED BY ATTACKING AN UNLucky COMPANY AND LEAVING OTHERS UNDISTURBED, as proposed in Councils this week. The least that can be done for the safety of the public is to put all high-tension wires under ground.

IT IS SUGGESTED BY THE PHILADELPHIA PRESS that as there are eleven vessels in the navy named "Albatross," it is an opportunity for Pittsburgh.

THE RESPONSIBILITY FOR IT. There is a very slight amount of either rhyme or reason in the attempt of a New York Democratic organ to make political capital

NEW YORK'S BRILLIANT PLAN. The financial plan which New York hopes to execute the World's Fair of 1899, has been published in full by the papers of that city.

WITHOUT SOUTHERN STANDARDS. One of the measures of partisanship is furnished by the editorial with which the Atlanta Constitution welcomed Gov. Hill.

OLD MINE KISSES. A pretty woman is a temptation enough by herself. It is only after centuries of civilization that men have learned not to kiss every pretty woman they meet.

papers reported the incident with all the sensational color. Australian Journalists could scarce get on and the leader wrote and preached columns of steam-pressed morality on the subject.

IT IS NOT UNREASONABLE TO EXPECT THAT SYDNEY IS NOT A NICE PLACE for pretty young women who do not like being kissed—that is by strangers or men they do not favor.

THE REVIVAL OF THE OLD INTER-STATE MINING AGREEMENT which is talked of, ought to be carried out. The old agreement would have prevented such a costly and injurious struggle as has been going on in the Illinois mines all this summer.

RETURNS OF 2,400 LIVES lost by the Japanese floods fall below the sum of destruction concentrated in the Cosewagh Valley.

THE CURTAIN FALLS ON AN AUTUMN SPECTACLE. The scene—Monday as a School Holiday—A Catastrophe on the Ragging Hills.

THE HEAVY SMOKEING RAIN of yesterday followed the hard frost of Monday night rings down the curtain upon the spectacular glories of autumn.

MR. CLAUSS SPRECKELS is kept busy declaring that he has no use for a Sugar Trust, and that he has built his big refinery to do legitimate business with, and not to gamble with.

THE STATE BOARD OF HEALTH'S report on the condition of Butchers' Run contains some very instructive and decided language which the Northside municipal authorities should read, mark, learn and inwardly digest.

IT IS INTERESTING TO OBSERVE THAT THE panic of alleged scientific men just the boring for gas and oil in this country shall exhaust the interior chambers of the earth and shall cease a general smash-up has spread to England.

ONE DAY, when the Ohio was a river—it had been a mere creek for so long that one may be pardoned for forgetting that it was a river.

THE CAPTAIN was a jolly fellow, and as he looked at the crew he saw that they were all well and hearty.

WITH THE sinking fund requirements met before the fiscal year has expired, the nation's legislators should be able to wake up to the fact that the way to reduce revenue is to reduce it.

THE PRICES OF SUGAR and of the Sugar Trust certificates are running a downward race in the markets, but the trust certificates are a little ahead.

THE INABILITY of our jails and station houses to provide imprisonment for riotous and vagrant bands, appears to be a defect of our police system.

PEACE IS ASSURED IN EUROPE, the world is informed; but the German budget includes increased expenditures for the army just the same.

THE MOUNTAIN FALLING TO PIECES. CHARLESTON, S. C., October 22.—Flat Rock is a summer resort in the mountains of West North Carolina, where a number of Charles River cottages were situated.

THE MERRIEST CROWD OUT. A New Society Club Organized Last Night in Oakland.

THE ENTIRE FAMILY WED. If Ramon Provo Correct, Sides Will Be Married.

NO MORE COLLISIONS AT SEA. Rules Nicely Formulated at the International Maritime Convention.

WASHINGTON, October 22.—Considerable progress was made at the session of the International Maritime Conference today in consideration of the "Rules of the Road."
