

A TRIFLE ROMANTIC.

The interesting story connected with a New Castle Wedding.

TROUBLE BETWEEN TWO ROADS. Captain Abrams is Shooked by the News of Bowell's Death.

ALL THE NEWS FROM NEARBY TOWNS

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

NEW CASTLE, October 31.—Miss Suda Reynolds, daughter of ex-County Treasurer James Reynolds, and Mr. Nelson Cooper, a prominent business man of Haysville, Delaware county, this State, were married this evening in the presence of numerous invited guests.

RAILROAD TROUBLES.

The Sudden Termination of a Contract Causes Some Confusion.

NEW CASTLE, October 31.—The Western New York and Philadelphia Railroad has notified the citizens of New Castle that from this point the road will give no rate for east of Oil City. The Western New York and Philadelphia Railroad has been using the Franklin branch of the Lake Shore road, and the latter has withdrawn the contract made with the Western New York and Philadelphia.

ABRAMS SHOOKED.

He Learned of His Victim's Death While in Jail.

UNIONTOWN, October 31.—When Captain Abrams was informed this morning in the lockup that his victim, Captain Jesse Bowell, was dead, he turned away, his face grew deadly pale, and he murmured "My God! I can't stand it; what will become of me?" He had been making just a short time before his condition was known and he was afraid to learn whether he was living or dead.

TWO THIEVES CAPTURED.

And Delicately, but Afterward Easily Make Their Escape.

BEAVER FALLS, October 31.—Two hard-looking cases were arrested here a few days ago, who had in their possession a lot of ready-made clothing supposed to have been stolen from Patterson & Co.'s store in Alliance, O.

IN SELF-DEFENSE.

James Mills Struck Thomas Glint a Probable Fatal Blow.

BRADDOCK, Pa., October 31.—Word has just reached here of the probable killing at Murrysville of Thomas Glint, a man who had been arrested here for a gas line. The superintendent of the line, J. K. Harty, instructed Mills to go to Glint and get him out of the line.

FIGHTING FOR A STREET.

Collision Between the City of Erie and the Erie Shore Road.

ERIE, October 31.—What threatened to be a collision between the city of Erie and the Erie Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company has evening in the absence of a truck. The railroad company undertook to capture a street from the city for truck purposes.

LEAF A FAILURE.

A 16-Year-Old School Boy Ends His Life by Hanging.

BRADDOCK, October 31.—Jesse Hartley, a 16-year-old school boy, committed suicide in his room at the residence of J. K. Mortimer to-night. He left a note stating that his life was a failure.

THE ERIC NATURAL GAS FIGHT.

Special Telegram to the Dispatch.

ERIE, October 31.—The Citizens' Committee went this morning to the office of the Pennsylvania Fuel Gas Company, and that with the manager the signatures to a petition ordering off fire to the number of over 2,000. The company positively refuses to make any concessions whatever in the direction of reducing the price.

WEDNESDAY ALL READY IN WEST VIRGINIA.

Special Telegram to the Dispatch.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., October 31.—So far as is known here matters are still quiet in Lincoln county, but evidence of coming trouble is multiplying. John Brunsfield, a relative of the couple shot down in September, which crime led up to the present trouble, left this place today for Lincoln county with a supply of Winchester rifles and revolvers for his friends.

MURDERED HIS YOUNG COMPANION.

WMA, October 31.—Two boys named Ben Strawber and Frank Nourse, aged 16 years, were out cock hunting near town last night. They had a half pint of whiskey, and after getting pretty full, they got into a quarrel. Young Nourse seized an ax and struck Strawber on the chest with it, producing a fatal wound. Nourse then started on a run through the woods and has not yet been captured.

A MYSTERY SOLVED.

Detective Lazarus and Warden Wright Probe a Murder Plot.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. ROCHESTER, Pa., October 31.—Some two months ago a party of tramps who had taken refuge in an old shack in the woods back of Beaver Falls, quarried during the night. Five shot were heard, and one of the tramps came into town after the doctor. He stated that a man had been hurt. When the physician arrived at the place the man was dead. The body was brought to town and every effort made to have it identified, the gunpowder being that of the man's name was William Spencer, of McKeesport, Pa. Shortly after the remains were interred a gentleman passing by the cemetery one night noticed persons working at the grave. The next day the case was privately placed in the hands of Detective Lazarus, who now claims to have the murderer locked up, but refuses to give any further particulars.

KEEPING A SECRET.

Mrs. Monroe Still Insists That She Isn't Mrs. Bowell—Her Lawyer Says She Is, but That the Latter Is Not Kate Bender.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. ST. LOUIS, October 31.—Mrs. Almira Monroe and her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Eliza Davis, alleged to be respectively Mrs. Bowell and her daughter, Kate Bender, of the notorious family of murders in Kansas, passed through the city this morning on their way to Labette county, Kan. Deputy Sheriff L. F. Dick, of Labette county, had them in charge. While at the Union depot they remained very quiet. They went into the dining room and took breakfast in company with the deputy, and remained seated at the table for nearly an hour. Then they went into the ladies' waiting room and remained there until their train was made up, when they entered it, and they did not leave the car until it had started. They positively refused to talk to anybody.

THE COLLIER FERRY CASE.

MINNEAPOLIS, October 31.—In the Collier case today W. E. Hagan, a noted expert of Troy, N. Y., and Frank Seymour, of the Merchants' National Bank of St. Paul, were on the stand for the State. The testimony of both was corroborative of the previous witnesses—that the notes were forgeries.

HASTINGS AND KEIFER.

Both Prefer That Chicago Will Capture the Fair of 1899. CHICAGO, October 31.—Ex-Speaker J. Warren Keifer, of Springfield, O., in a letter to Samuel Keifer, of this city, says: "I have your letter of the 19th instant, relating to the World's Fair at Chicago. We are for the Fair at that city, and prefer that it should be in Chicago to New York, or any other Eastern city. The reasons you have assigned are ample, and many more exist. New York City is a mere island on the eastern coast of this country, and if foreigners should come to the American continent, and land on that island and depart, they would have an adequate conception of what our country is in the interior. It is the people who will make it a success."

It was a good stroke when the designer and manufacturer brought together into one, three such useful pieces of furniture as are combined in the piece represented in this cut. The result saves you almost two-thirds of both cost and space.

Let us count up the advantage of this artistic combination of Parlor Cabinet, Writing Desk and Bookcase.

THE BOOKCASE—The four shelves will carry fifty to sixty volumes, all instantly accessible when writing. The added weight of books will give both real and apparent solidity to the whole. The glass door keeps out dust.
