

A PATERNAL BLESSING

Eloper Cochran Will Not Be Prosecuted for Perjury Because of HIS ROMANTIC RUNAWAY WEDDING

Youngstown's Defaulting City Clerk Still Holding the Fort.

ALL THE NEWS FROM NEARBY TOWNS

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. MREADVILLE, November 1.—The storm which greeted the embarkation on the matrimonial ship of Willis B. Cochran and Miss Anna H. Lewis, who recently eloped from Franklin and were married in Pittsburgh, has entirely subsided. Mr. Cochran arrived in this city Thursday evening and registered at the Colton House, and this morning met his wife, her mother and Mrs. Sprague, on their arrival here on Nypaun train 5 from New York. The party repaired at once to the hotel and peace prevailed from the start. Mrs. Lewis, mother of the bride, stated that the only objection raised by the bride or either side was the youth of the bride and groom. The party departed for their home in Franklin this afternoon.

PROBITION KILLED HIM.

Joseph Fritz Worries Over a Sacrificed Sale and Commits Suicide.

READING, November 1.—Joseph Fritz was a prosperous landowner at Summit Hill, Pa., and the owner of several fine farms in the northern section of this county. When the temperance agitation in regard to the prohibitory amendment commenced about a year ago, it produced a strong impression upon his mind. He became morose and melancholy, and finally in a fit of despondency he sold his hotel for about one-fourth its value and removed last spring to one of his farms in Allegheny township, this county, near the village of Stony Run. The sale of his hotel at a sacrifice apparently unsettled his mind, and he imagined that the prohibitionists were after him to deprive him of his farms and other property. Last evening, however, he was supposed to be in better spirits, but this morning when the members of his family looked for him he was not to be found. Finally, the parrot was searched when his body was discovered in a dark corner suspended from a rafter and cold to death. He left a note in which he stated that he was tired of being harassed and tormented by the prohibitionists and determined to take his own life for fear of further persecution. Fritz leaves a large estate.

CLAIMING THE OFFICE.

Youngstown's Defaulting City Clerk is Not Satisfied Even Yet.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. YOUNGSTOWN, November 1.—John S. Roller, the defaulting City Clerk, who was found short in his accounts nearly $2,300, and who resigned to take effect November 1, is still in possession of the office to-night, and claims to be City Clerk. No one has been elected Clerk by the Council, and Roller claims that under the statute he will retain possession until his successor is appointed and qualified. Roller Rose states that Howard Roller, a son of the clerk, has been elected by the Council, and that the authority of the ex-Clerk will not be recognized.

THAT CHURCH FIGHT.

Two of the Priests Arrested But Very Promptly Discharged.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. WILKESBARRE, Pa., November 1.—Father Donahue and Father Burta were arrested this evening at Piquette, Pa., for removing the sacred vessels from the Polish Church, Martin Wilkes, the Polish leader who is fighting Bishop O'Hara, was the complainant. The priests were discharged, and the case put on Wilkes. The latter was hissed by an immense crowd after leaving the justice's office. He says he will get rid of the church now, evidently meaning he would destroy it.

DEAD FOR DAYS.

A Case That Looks Very Much Like Murder and Robbery.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. LEWIS, November 1.—Mrs. Valentine, a lady aged 65 years, who lived by herself in a house in the suburbs of the town, was found dead to-day by her sister, who had come to visit her. A doctor was called, who said she had been dead several days. When found, her head was under the sofa, as if she had been pushed there. The trunks and drawers had been ransacked, and the people living near suspect foul play, as they are sure they heard some person in the house Wednesday night.

A VICIOUS WAR.

There Has as Yet Been No More Bloodshed in West Virginia.

WHEELING, November 1.—A special just received says that telegrams sent out to-day purporting to come from Milton, W. Va., in regard to the Hatfield-McCoy trouble in Harco creek district, Lincoln county, and a battle said to have taken place yesterday, are totally false. There has been no trouble since Thursday night of last week, when McCoy and Halsey were lynched. The special says excitement is abating, and there is no necessity for the presence of troops.

A HUSBAND'S RAGE.

He Strikes His Wife and Probably Kills His Father-in-Law.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. YOUNGSTOWN, November 1.—At 7 o'clock to-night Charles Edmonds, a butcher, inflicted injuries upon his father-in-law, W. C. McCoy, aged 64 years, that will cause his death. In his rage he seized the old man and threw him down the stairs head foremost. The trouble was caused by a quarrel in which Edmonds' wife was concerned. She was also struck twice by her husband, but not seriously injured.

The Jury Fails to Agree.

YOUNGSTOWN, November 1.—The jury in the case of Rev. Jay P. Van Etten, indicted for embezzling property from Mrs. Homer, a widow residing here, after being out two days and nights, reported to Judge Johnston that they were unable to agree, and were discharged. Van Etten will be tried again at the next term of court.

Open Charges of Bribery.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. Tiffin, November 1.—A great sensation was caused here to-day by the open charge that certain members of the City Council had been bribed by the Leeburg Corned Beef Association. An investigation will follow, and starting developments are expected.

A Fierce Political Contest.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. LECHURSTON, November 1.—The Hon. J. B. Neale, candidate for re-election as Judge of Armstrong county, was surrounded at the Jenkins House to-night by the Leeburg Corned Beef Association. A bitter fight is being waged in this contest with license or no license as the issue.

A MALICIOUS JOKE.

Robert Patterson, Scared by a Companion, Tells Thirty-Six Lies.

Robert Patterson, 8 years of age, who lives on Ann street in the rear of Engine House No. 4, was playing with several companions in the new four-story house of William Hackett, No. 502 Fifth avenue, yesterday afternoon. The boy was walking the joist of the third floor, when one of his companions yelled that the police were coming. Patterson became frightened, lost his balance, and fell through the three floors of joist, down into the cellar, a distance of 26 feet. He was picked up and carried into his house and Dr. Bartley called, who after an examination found the boy had no bones broken, but was hurt internally and badly bruised about the head and body. His recovery is doubtful.

OF THE THREE FORTUNES.

A fairy story by Ernest H. Heinrich, will appear in to-morrow's DISPATCH.

MR. M'KEAN'S BACKER.

Senator Quay Returns From a Harried Visit to the President.

A couple of newspaper men had a few minutes' conversation with him on this subject while the train was being made up. "Senator, the Pittsburgh people are anxious to know who the new postmaster is to be. Has any appointment been made?" "No, I have not heard of any appointment being made."

"Whom do you regard as likely to get the office?"

"Well, I think Mr. McKean stands a very good chance."

"Did you see the President when you were in Washington?"

"Yes, I saw him for a few moments; and also Mr. Wanamaker."

"When do you suppose the appointment to the postoffice will be made?"

"Mr. Harrison is very cautious and conservative in dealing with appointments, and it is not improbable that he will wait until the expiration of the present postmaster's term before issuing the commission."

"Any news in Washington, Senator?"

"I did not hear any. I arrived there yesterday and came away this morning. Some of the Congressmen are beginning to arrive, but I did not meet a single Representative or Senator while I was there."

The Senator said he was altogether in favor of Chicago for the World's Fair.

FOUND HER A HOME.

May Sullivan Placed in a Private Family by Agent Deas.

May Sullivan, the Scottville girl on whose account Jacob Bobbs and Frank Harrington were sent to the penitentiary, was taken from Central station, where she has been for the past two months, and turned over to Agent Deas yesterday. Mr. Deas has placed her with a private family where she will have a good, quiet home, and he confidently expects her complete reformation.

Made-to-Measure Clothing; and Right Kind for Boys.

Buy our make for strength, shapeliness, beauty—Wanamaker & Brown say. We speak by what the clothing is.

It will do the boy for the toughest wear he can give it. It will bear itself with any in the city for style or quality or price. You, who buy it, will get no less than you pay for.

Tailoring to order. A new development is possible to that now. A wider choice possible to you. You have had your eyes be daged and had to take than merchant tailor's choice. He had such and such goods to sell that he thought well of.

He had as few as he could get along with. Fewer than you wanted to see. We have more styles than you'll give a look to. The very finest. None that the finest Clothing can't be made from. More than you'll see if time crowds you. It's nearer possible than ever—clothing you like made to fit.

Wanamaker & Brown, Sixth street and Penn avenue.

DRUNKENNESS Or the Liqueur Habit Positively Cured by Administration of Dr. Halsey's Golden Specific.

It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it; it is absolutely harmless, and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an absolute wreck. Thousands of Drunkards have been made temperate men who have taken Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge and to-day believe they quit drinking from their own free will. IT NEVER FAILS. The system once improved with the Golden Specific, it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. For sale by A. J. Becking, Sixth and Penn ave., Pittsburgh; H.
