

THE REDS TO RALLY.

Great Gathering of Anarchists Called for November 11 at St. Louis.

SOCIAL REVOLUTION NEXT.

The Knights of Labor and Turners Are Asked to Congregate.

THE GOOD AND BAD TO BE SEPARATED.

Circulars Secretly Printed and Shipped from New York Are Exposed to the Light.

No sooner has Herr Frick in Pittsburg announced his anarchistic conquest of the Pennsylvania coal regions than a more serious phase of red-handed organization comes to light.

ROW IN A COLLEGE.

Blooded at the University of Pennsylvania—The Sophomores Try to Do Up the Freshmen and Both Sides Suffer—Many Expulsions to Follow.

With a class yell the second year men attempted to pass the offending student to his proper place, which is behind the fourth row; but his classmates came to the rescue, and then occurred one of the bloodiest fights in the history of the college.

A DAY OF THANKS.

President Harrison Issues His First Proclamation of That Nature—The Things for Which the People Should Return Gratitude.

WASHINGTON, November 1.—The following proclamation, setting apart Thursday, November 23, as a day of National Thanksgiving, was issued by the President:

A PROCLAMATION. A highly favored people, mindful of their dependence on the bounty of Divine Providence, should seek fitting occasion to testify their gratitude and ascribe praise to Him who is the author of their many blessings.

Now, therefore, I, Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States, do hereby recommend that Thursday, the 23rd day of the present month of November, be set apart as a day of national thanksgiving and prayer, and that the people of our country, ceasing from the cares and labors of their several occupations, devote that day to the places of worship and give thanks to God, who has prepared us on our way and made our path straight.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed.

By the President, JAMES G. BLAINE, Secretary of State.

NEITHER MAN NOR MONEY FOUND. Cashier Cresson Thought to be Hiding Yet Somewhere in Conshohocken.

PHILADELPHIA, November 1.—William Henry Cresson, the defaulting cashier of the Tradesmen's National Bank of Conshohocken, has not yet been found, nor has a penny of the stolen money been located, although a thorough search of his house and vicinity has been made.

Until a late hour to-night United States Examiner James and Cashier Shugart, of the Montgomery National Bank of Norristown, worked diligently on the books of the fugitive, which they found to be in a muddled condition.

At the close of their examination they reported that they had recovered nearly $90,000. Cresson's mode of operation was the usual one of making false entries in the ledger.

His daily accounts sheet was also found to be crooked. He was in the habit of receiving the report of the Committee on the regular deposits for the day.

THE MIGHT HAVE BEEN. A daring deed would have frustrated the November crime, instead the working people passed resolutions.

How different it might have been if those who participated in this kind of demonstration had made a bold front, as the urgency of the situation demanded.

The circular then concludes by calling on the Anarchists, Socialists, trade unionists, Knights of Labor, Turners, free thinkers and citizens to seize the opportunity offered on November 11, at the corner of E and Third streets, to give vent to their indignation.

MORTON'S BIG SCHEME. He Prepares to Buck the Western Association Against the League.

MINNEAPOLIS, November 1.—Secretary Morton has notified the managers of clubs in minor leagues in every part of the country to send representatives to the Western Association meeting.

ALL WILL SOON BE STATES. The President's Proclamation Upon the Subject is Now Ready.

WASHINGTON, November 1.—The proclamation admitting the new States into the Union, which has been under consideration this week by the President, Secretary Blaine and Attorney General Miller, was submitted to the Cabinet regular meeting to-day.

THE MOTORS IN JAIL. Revenue Cutters Bring in the Negro Motorists From Navassa Island.

BALTIMORE, November 1.—About 1 o'clock this morning the United States revenue cutter "Albatross" arrived in the harbor, conveying the brig "Alice," which arrived in the Capes yesterday with part of the Navassa rioters.

FLURRIED THE GAME.

Campaign Collectors Find It Poor Picking in the Departments.

A WHOLESOME FEAR OF THE LAW.

Prevents Many of the Employers From Paying Their Assessments.

THE VIRGINIA PEOPLE SCARED AWAY.

Orders Had been Given to Arrest Them if They Had Appeared on the Scene.

Yesterday was pay day in the departments as Washington, but the different State Republican campaign committees found a very poor day to collect, too many standing in fear of the Civil Service Commission and its threatened prosecutions.

It is said that many of the clerks refused to contribute to the party, and that they were giving an excuse the fear of the Civil Service Commission.

A REGULAR ROAST.

Theodore Thomas and His Orchestra Fall Below Their Mark.

A SPLENDID AUDIENCE THERE.

But Old City Hall Did Not Re-Echo, or Even Echo, With Applause.

A PROGRAMME AFFORDING NO FEAT.

An Orchestration That Has Been Executed by Even the Lesser Musicians.

Entertaining as Theodore Thomas and his orchestra always are, they fell below their own standard in Pittsburgh last night. Their audience was large enough and good enough to have appreciated better music, as well more artistic effort in the rendering thereof.

The audience was the great feature of the Thomas concert at Old City Hall last night. It sat in close rows, knee to back, all the way from stage to door.

Half again as many seats could have been sold at the same prices, had there been room, so large was the demand. It was a great audience for quality, too; the usual concert-goers and the fashionable world turned out en masse, and there were many unworldly faces.

Indeed it was rather surprising, in view of the brilliancy of the occasion and the extraordinary manner in which the popular sentiment had been worked up, that the applause was so moderate.

LEEDS WANTS A JOB.

Having Been Turned Down by Wannamaker, He is Determined to be Next Sergeant of the House.

GENERAL CALLED ON FOR ASSISTANCE.

He Finds It Hard to be Very Much for the Boston Quarter City Doer.

"Boss" Leeds, of Philadelphia, insists on having a Federal office, and Congressman Charles O'Neill is trying to secure Senator Cameron's influence in behalf of Leeds for Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Representatives.

Leeds' long and active service in Philadelphia politics has given him a pull on several of the big men in the party, and he intends to use that pull now. He has already commenced operations, his base of supplies at present being Representative Charles O'Neill of Philadelphia.
