THE MONTH OF DIVORCE

The record of this autumnal month in the highest courts of Ohio must not that the public is the most fertile of divorce look a holiday this summer. The bonds of business are apt to be loosed a little when money is tight, and the era of prosperity we are now enjoying set in before the summer holidays

The statistic mangers having proclaimed that October is a wonderful month for matrimony, will some of them figure out this month bears off the honors of divorce?

On opposite sides of the political house. But Mr. Scott sweeps that slight consideration aside with a single sentence: "We do not differ much in regard to our views in connection with corporate property, and I may be able to serve those interests should I pull through again."

This declaration in the private correspondence of one corporate magnate to another is a fact that should be kept prominently before the people.

Without definite information on the subject it is safe to take it for granted that Mr. Dewey recognized the cogency of Mr. Scott's unity with himself on corporate issues, and that Mr. Scott's friend got the pass.

WE are interested to observe that our esteemed contemporary, the Chicago Tribune, in discussing the relative wages in England and America, declares that salaries in the old country "are far more than 200 per cent lower."

NOT A PROTECTION. The verdict of murder in the second degree in the Lee case adds another to the long list in which wanton homicide, committed under the influence of liquor, has been visited with a punishment totally inadequate to the offense.

THE action of the jury in this case does not essentially differ from that in previous cases. The effect that if premeditation was proved before the drunken fit in which Lee shot Natcher, the intoxication at the time of the shooting would lessen the degree of the crime, while in other cases the law as laid down by the Supreme Court hardly permitted any other verdict than the one of second degree.

THE brilliant New York Sun suggests that the new international postage stamp should bear the face of Christopher Columbus. The Sun is authority on postage stamps, although a little radical in questions of color, and its opinion in this respect should be adopted.

WHEN the German and Russian Emperors have visited all their neighbors, will they go anything else left to do other than to go fighting their recent and respective hosts?

THE fact that a Chicago man, just returned from Alaska, saw a beautiful mirage in Glacier Bay, arouses the sarcasms of the New York Sun. But New York has too much of the spirit of rivalry to permit a Chicagoan to see anything which she cannot show.

THE lawyers of Allegheny county—whatever part they may bear of the stock intricate which it is the fashion of laymen to visit on lawyers in general—have, as a body, always shown an honorable pride in their profession and a deep interest in its local traditions.

THE issue of the DISPATCH contains 90 pages, made up of THREE PARTS. Failure on the part of Carriers, Agents, Newsdealers or Newsboys to supply papers with a complete Number should be promptly reported to this office.

POSTAGE—All persons who mail the Sunday issue of the DISPATCH to friends should bear in mind that the postage thereon is Two (2) Cents. All double and triple number copies of the DISPATCH require a 2-cent stamp to insure prompt delivery.

PRINCE BISMARCK is troubled with insomnia. He has tried an opium pillow, but it still wakened him.

SECRETARY RUSK has developed a great deal of new machinery for the registration of votes. Mr. Braun's invention is a box-like structure, about seven feet high and four feet wide, and is mounted on a room or on the sidewalk.

MR. COLEMAN, of Wilmington, Del., well known in ecclesiastical circles, is of Quaker birth and was formerly an Episcopal minister. His work since his ordination has been devoted to the education of the colored race, and in this he has met with considerable success.

MR. DREW, of Philadelphia, is one of the most versatile men in the country. He is a clever poet, a skillful pugilist, the head of a large iron mill, a great traveler and a widely read student.

THE TOPICAL TALKER.

All Sorts of Odd Little Incidents in Our Daily Life That Usually Escape Busy Men's Attention.

A PITTSBURGH sends to me from St. Paul, an account of a queer proceeding which has taken place in the city of Minneapolis.

The letter runs: "As I was standing outside the Clifton Hotel, in this city, last night, a well-dressed man with a pleasant, rather handsome face, but with the most peculiar expression, was walking from corner to corner, bearing his hat and shoes in one hand and two long lighted cigars in the other."

He kept at this strange performance for a long while, and nobody seemed to pay any attention to him. I inquired of a St. Paul friend what the meaning of all this was.

Among the correspondents of the sporting editor of this paper the other day I came across a notice of a pugilist with bare face. Such epithets are not uncommon, of course, and the sporting editor regards them much as we regard the epithets of the pugilist.

Can it be true that a Y. M. C. A. young man of Johnston wishes to pound some one and to pound him in a 12-foot ring? With bare face and millinery, the millennium is not approaching after all.

"THAT woman," said a green Hungarian as he came out of an American boarding house near Brownville the first morning after his arrival, "is a fraud. She gave us the water of life, but she has left us with a headache and the bones of the gang bearing the fellow grumbling, made inquiry, and found that the gentleman from Hungary considered himself abused."

A few days ago I had business with a railroad man, and he asked me to call on him. I went, and he was not so easy to find him. After a good deal of inquiry, I stopped at a doorway in what is known as Shanghai Row, a newly named thoroughfare in the city.

"You'll find him," said Tim Grady's—betwixt the lumber yards. I lived for a time, and he had his leg off with the shillings and pence. "It's a awful story!" I found my man.

"But my old man—was not a bad lot!" I asked of a man who was giving me a cigar. I took it, and he said: "Oh, no," cheerfully responded the critic, "he was a good enough man. He was a better man than most of the fellows you see here."

There is a farmer in this county who ought not to stay far from his farm. He is too enterprising by far. The Stock Exchange should be his pasture.

A while ago this same farmer came to town and he was very much pleased. He had a small item beside one for a few dollars which represented his per diem expenses.

When a steamer from the port of Glasgow arrived at New York during the initial rush of tourists from abroad last September, there was a party of about a dozen Englishmen on board.

When they were on the steamer pier in New York at last, Mr. Jennings greeted them from one passenger to another saying goodbye, and adding in a friendly way: "Good-bye, good-bye, and I am an officer of the Customs House inspectors."

There is beginning to be strong ground for suspicion that hanging is played out in Allegheny county.

A LEAGUE has been formed in the Hampshire, to suppress the stealing of umbrellas; and two offenders are sent to jail for thirty days and a fine of $100.

THE Bar Association is to be heartily congratulated on the interest shown by its members in making its influence felt in everything that tends to illustrate or uphold the noble profession.

THE cable dispatch from London stating that Mrs. Schenley has given 300 acres of land for a park in Allegheny county, is a fact that should be kept prominently before the people.

A CHINESE COURIER'S RECEPTION.

The Chinese press describe the reception of the imperial courier from Peking who conveyed to the Viceroy of Canton the news of his transfer to another province.
