A Prince That Came Pretty High for an American Father-in-Law. $2,000,000 PAID FOR A TITLE.

A Pretty Music Hall Singer Who Had Three Husbands at One Time. $7,500 GIVEN UP FOR AN OLD LOVE.

Don Boucault's Late Wife Gets $150 a Week Alimony From Him.

Cupid's pranks in Europe are attracting considerable attention. The price of Prince Hatfield to C. P. Huntington was not less than $2,000,000.

Princess Hatfield came rather high. Before the wedding with Clara Huntington C. P. Huntington deposited with his prospective son-in-law's trustee $1,750,000 in bonds of the United States and other gilt-edged securities.

A similar match between Miss Caldwell, of Baltimore, and Prince Murat that was broken off in Paris last week, will probably not be mended.

Earl Ponette, presumptive father of the organ-grinding Viscount Hinton, is about to make one more effort to prove the presumption is wrong.

Another interesting case will come before the courts again this term. Miss Wilmann, the German governess, sues the Hon. Robert Walpole, heir to the Earldom of Oxford, for breach of promise and betrayal.

Minnie Palmerston, the pretty music hall singer and variety actress, has been a most prominent figure in the divorce court this week.

Lord Dangan admits that he made the engagement to marry Miss Brouncker. He admits he broke that engagement, but he desires it should be explicitly stated that, in the circumstances which resulted in the engagement being broken, he is not to be reflected of any kind upon the character and conduct of Miss Phyllis Brouncker.

Russian Politicians Irritated by Prince Ferdinand's Success in Obtaining a Loan in Vienna—The Dreamers Have a Rude Awakening.

LONDON, November 2.—The success of Prince Ferdinand in obtaining a loan in Vienna has greatly irritated the Russian politicians, as St. Petersburg had made up its mind beforehand that it would be impossible for him to obtain the money, and that without it he could never again return to Sofia.

Great Disaffection Caused by the Result of the Greco-Turkish War.

LONDON, November 2.—The extraordinary collapse of the defense of the Greco-Turkish war has caused universal dissatisfaction in Ireland, and T. M. Healy and other counsel are loudly called upon to explain their conduct in opposing their clients to plead guilty.

He Expects to Cut Quite a Figure With His Small Army.

Carroll leaves Naples for Zanzibar on the 14th, and expects to reach that place about December 1, and meet Mr. Chandler there.
