Her Former Husband Accuses Her of Bothering His New Better Half,

HAVING HER OFTEN ARRESTED. A Wealthy Philadelphia Physician's

Marital Troubles Aired.

HIS DIVORCED WIFE TELLS HER STORY.

Leave the City.

Dr. Erwin Agnew, a wealthy Philadelphia physician, has had his divorced wife arrested for assault and battery on the present Mrs. Agnew. Mrs. Agnew No. 1 insists that she is persecuted, that she has no friends to take her part, and that her former husband wishes to get her out of the city.

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. PHILADELPHIA, November 7 .- The matrimonial woes of Dr. Erwin Agnew, a very wealthy and fashionable physician living on Arch street, above Nineteenth, one of the most aristocratic neighborhoods in the city, and his divorced wife, were made public to-day. Dr. Erwin Agnew, who is a cousin of the celebrated surgeon, D. Hayes Agnew, had his former wife arrested on the charge of assault and battery on the present Mrs. Agnew. A hearing was set down for to-day, before Magistrate Pole, but it did not take place, and it is probable that Dr. Agnew has thought better of it and will not press the charges. The divorced wife, who was married to Dr. Agnew 21 years ago, and whose maiden name was Mary Kelleber, is an attractive, well-preserved woman, who lives at present at 229 North Twelfth street. She said today: "I was married to Dr. Agnew on August 27, 1868, by Rev. Father Strubbel, of St. Mary's Church. The marriage ceremony was private, only the clergyman and ter in Boston. We lived together for some time in Philadelphia and in Wynnewood, on the Pennsylvania Railroad.

THE SERPENT IN EDEN. "During our residence at Wynnewood I discovered that my husband was keeping company with Mrs. Stewart, nee Mary Hudson, whose former husband now keeps a butcher shop on North Thirteenth street. This led to quarrels between my husband and me, and resulted in the commencement of divorce proceedings against me. As he could bring nothing against my moral character, he alleged violence and incompatibility of temper. The proceedings of the divorce suit were carried on privately, in Lawyer Hurst's office, May 6, 1882.

"I was induced to sign papers which I supposed provided for separation and support, but I was afterward informed that he claim nothing. ad obtained a legal divorce. He transferred a big amount of property to me, as he was very rich, but when I found that a divorce had been obtained it made me nearly frantic, as I believed my husband's opject was to marry the Mrs. Stewart whom I have referred to. The supposition turned out to be true, as my husband, Dr. Agnew, afterward married her, and is now living with ward married her, and is now living with her. One of his children died, and one, William Peters demanded new stands, Willie, 11 years old, you see, is now living but claimed no fixed amount; Albert the same pew with him and his wife. He ielt annoyed at my presence, especially as I could not help turning around when the minister referred to the violation of the ten commandments. "He has set detectives after me, who are continually dogging my footsteps. I have no friends or relatives in this country to take my part. I feel much worried, and wish I were dead. This arrest is nothing more than a persecution, as he wishes to get me out of the city.'

Whenever Dr. Agnew had his wife arrested before, he had influence enough with the police and the magistrate to have a private hearing to keep the matter secret. He expressed a good deal of chagrin to-day when he found the matter had got out, but he declined to make any statement, except to say that he did not propose to allow his former wife to annoy his present one.

THE ERIE CANAL COMMISSION.

A Preliminary Meeting Held at Which Routes Were Discussed. The first regular meeting of the Erie Ship Canal Commission was held in the office of Captain John A. Wood yesterday afternoon. The members of the commission present were Chairman John A. Wood, J. M. Goodwin, of Mercer county; Hon. W. S. Shallenberger, of Beaver, and Colonel Thomas P. Roberts, of this city. Mr. Eben Brewer, editor of the Erie Disputch, was absent on account of sickness in his family.

The meeting was rather of an informal character, the only business transacted being the discussion of preliminary matters looking toward the appointment of subcommittees to attend to specific duties. The idea is to have a committee of one appointed to inquire into the several interests of the lake and river commerce, and to investigate the two routes proposed with a view to recommending one of them.

The enterprise is beginning to assume very large proportions. It is now regarded as not only a benefit to Western Pennsylvania, but also to many States in the North-Colonel Roberts said yesterday: "The benefit a canal from Pittsburg to Lake Erie will be to the States in the Northwest is incalculable."

The route proposed for the canal will recelve the first attention of the commission One of these routes is by way of Rochester,

Beaver, New Castle, up the Beaver and Shenango valleys to Eric. The other is up the Allegheny river to Franklin river and French creek. The commission will go over the two proposed routes at an early date for Disagreeable flow from the nose, tickling in the the purpose of making an examination of The meeting yesterday was interrupted by ears, are the more common symptoms. The Humane Society Will Ask Legal Permission to Branch Out, An application will be made to the local courts next week by the Humane Society for a charter under the corporation act of 1874. Heretofore the society has been carrying on its business as an auxiliary of the Philadelphia society, but the desire is now to have an individual charter, and the puryose is to extend the attention of the society to the prevention of cruelty to aged people, as well as to children and animals.

The new society will be known as the Western Pennsylvania Humane Society. It will have the right to establish branch agencies thoughout the western counties, and to carry on its business the same as Pan-American Carriage Exhibit.

Among the thousand and one beautiful and entertaining sights in the exhibition, none are more admired than the lovely Dexter exhibits of phaeton and light buggy mounted on the celebrated Dexter Fairy Queen gear. In fact, these two vehicles seem to include the whole carriage exhibit, and they have been well chosen to represent the useful as well as ornamental, and are just such vehicles as would be most useful to our neighbors of the other American States and we bespeak for them a most careful ex amination by our honored guests.

The Dexter buggy is noted for its dura-

DIAMOND WIDENING CLAIMS.

J. R. Weldin & Co. Want $27,750 for Their

Lensehold-Minor Damages. The hearing of claims for damages through the widening of Diamond alley was taken up by the Board of Viewers, yesterday forenoon. The claimants who appeared were mostly butchers, who have stalls in the market on the line to be occupied by the street. Their claims were made conditioned that they were not supplied with other stands, equally as good as those they occupy

The claims they made were as folwith me.

"Since his marriage to Mrs. Stewart, the doctor has had me arrested several times for slander, but I was discharged. Last December he had me Kemich, $5,000; M. M. Fried & Co. ARRESTED AND BOUND OVER to keep the peace. This time he had me arrested for assault and battery, of which I am innocent. Last Sunday I visited the church which he attends, and was placed in Gralich, $1,000; G. C. Dellenbaugh, $5,000; W. H. Glednill, fish and oysters, $6,000.

H. Lee Mason, representing Weldin & Co., put in a claim of $27,750, of which a leasehold on the buildings they occupy, at the corner of Wood and Diamond streets, for five years and nine months at $7,400 per year, is one of the principal ors. They claim damages because they will have to move to a smaller building which will compel them to give up one class of their trade, because they will lose trade by moving into a small building, because they lose a great advantage by moving from a building in which their business has been established 27 years, and because they will have to purchase a complete new set of store furniture and shelving.

Thomas H. Rose & Bro. put in a claim of $22,985 on their shoe stores, 19 and 21 Diamond street. They say they will lose on their leases, on the damage to their stock by removal, and on the loss of trade by moving from a stand they have occupied 22 years. C. C. Fawcett, representing Fawcett & Milligan, 31 Diamond street, queensware, put in a claim for $10,000 and William France & Son, groceries, corner Diamond street and Market Square, claimed $10,800. The meeting adjourned until next Thurs-
