

TAKING THEIR TIME.

A. W. Thurman and General Powell Join Myers, but Assemblymen ARE NOT COMMITTING THEMSELVES.

They Won't Express Their Preference for United States Senator UNTIL THEY KNOW WHAT IS IN IT.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. COLUMBUS, O., November 19.—One of the strange features of the Senatorial contest is the indifference, the non-committal stance of the members of the Legislature.

So far as learned there is not a man of whom anyone has been able to secure a statement as to his preference among the large number of candidates who are announced for the high honor. It is well-known that the leading candidates, and especially those who are able to do so, have been improving the time for the past week or ten days in visiting the Democratic members of the Legislature, in the hope of learning their preferences.

Some of the Senatorial candidates, notably Mr. Brice and Mr. Thomas, are making a personal canvass, as well as by means of lieutenants, and all have been engaged and are doing everything they can in the way of correspondence to create sentiment and interest in their special favor.

TAKING THEIR TIME. It is evident that the Democratic members will not betray their intention until they have thoroughly looked over the ground with a view to making a selection. The paucity of information which any of them possess on the Senatorial question is simply remarkable.

holding themselves in readiness for any advances which may be made, and so as not to be embarrassed by any unnecessary talk which may work to their disadvantage.

When Senator Payne was selected for the Senate it is a notorious fact that some of the members who were inclined to talk too much and commit themselves received only $200 or $300 for their votes, while others discreetly received as many thousands.

Experience on this point is a good teacher. When Senator Payne was selected for the Senate it is a notorious fact that some of the members who were inclined to talk too much and commit themselves received only $200 or $300 for their votes, while others discreetly received as many thousands.

Although there may be some mistake and the character of the Legislature may be misjudged in the main, yet the impression prevailing among the best informed of the members of the Legislature is that the three millionaires—Brice, Thomas or McLean—will draw the prize.

The lesser lights for the position have their friends and favorites among the leading candidates, but not from this they are.

GAMBLING ON PUBLIC SENTIMENT and doing everything in their power to create a prejudice against the moneyed candidates. Those who are basing their prospects on their competency, ability and past services to the party, really have some confidence in the good judgment of the Legislature, and entertain hopes that the lucky number in the drawing may come their way.

The feeling against the rich man is growing. Among the many foolish and bad things said by Allen O. Myers he is yet gaining a respectable following in the city. He has taken the lead in the race for the Senate. Were it not for the assumption on the part of Myers which led many to believe that he is a candidate himself, his position on the Senatorial question would command more great attention than it does. The idea, however, is original with him, and in fact there have already been a number of men who have taken the name of Myers, who was prominent in the campaign, and General T. E. Powell, who was the Democratic candidate for Governor two years ago, and who is an avowed enemy of the Senate. They have both expressed themselves against a millionaire Senator, and have both given reasons quite at length why the Democratic party at this time cannot afford to ignore merit and party service for a moneyed candidate.

BRICE FOR HIMSELF. It has been definitely learned that Calvin S. Brice is a candidate for his own personal action, and because of any uncertainty of trade between him and Mr. McLean. It is true they had a consultation in New York, but no understanding was reached between them in regard to the Senatorship. Immediately after Mr. Brice rushed to Ohio and announced himself. Because of this prompt action his friends now claim that he has some 10 or 15 members from the northwestern part of the State who will support him, as against Mr. McLean's 11 members from Hamilton county.

The balance of the State is a field for both candidates, with Mr. Thomas ranging at large. Each of the three candidates named will know before they go into the caucus whether he can secure the nomination, and unless it is assured in advance, candidates will not be announced. While Mr. McLean professes not to be a candidate, the politicians believe that if the caucus indicates, he will be a candidate in fact, that he can be nominated, he will be in the fight. He had, it is claimed, nearly $90,000 in the legislative contest when Sherman was selected by two votes, and, if so, it is not likely that he will allow this investment to go for nothing, when the chances are much better now for his selection than they were in 1885.

The uncertainty of the average Ohio statesman is the only uncertainty in the coming contest. With the element of contrariness to govern them, there is little doubt that in the final windup, the largest purse will pull the prize.

WINNERS OF THE PRIZE FLAGS. Westmoreland and Potter the Banner Republican Counties in This Year.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. HARRISBURG, November 19.—Westmoreland and Potter counties are entitled to the two banners offered by Chairman Andrews of the Republican State Committee, as prizes for the nearest approach at the recent election to the vote cast for Harrison for President last year. In Potter county 92 per cent of that vote was polled, and in Westmoreland 89 per cent. Allegheny county's Republican vote aggregated only 62 1/2 per cent of the Harrison vote, while Philadelphia reached 79 per cent. Pike has the lowest record, 51 per cent, and Lancaster comes next, with 41 per cent. Lebanon dropped to 45 per cent, Lancaster 48, Chester 51, Clearfield 51, Clinton 48, Columbia 47, and Erie 51. Many of the counties cast only a little more than half of the vote for Harrison. The average in the entire State was 64.86 per cent.

The showing of the Democrats is not much better than that of the Republicans. Had they cast 20 per cent of the Cleveland vote they would have elected their candidate for State Treasurer by a good majority.

ANOTHER FLACK CASE. An Ohio Lawyer and Politician Has Got Himself Into Trouble.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. ZANESVILLE, O., November 19.—In the case of Emma McMillan against David McMillan, in which the plaintiff sought to obtain a divorce on the ground of willful desertion, in which the plaintiff testified that she had gone to the office of A. J. Andrews in company with her husband, who had paid him $14 for taking charge of the case, Judge Phillips has begun proceedings to disbar Andrews on the ground of collusion to deceive the Court.

The case will create quite a sensation as Andrews, in addition to being quite a prominent lawyer, is a politician of local note and Chairman of the Democratic County Executive Committee.

SUED FOR A POKER DEBT.

Sequel to a Big Game Played by Missouri High Rollers.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. ST. LOUIS, November 19.—A poker game in which several of Missouri's most prominent statesmen took part has been called to the attention of the Circuit Court of Cooper county. One evening last June Colonel Joe Riekey, a prominent Missouriian well-known in Washington, Colonel John G. Prather, member of the National Democratic Committee, and John S. Elliott, a bank president and a wealthy contractor of Cooper county, sat down to a poker game in a room in the Planters' House. It was a big game, and it did not terminate for 24 hours.

Colonel Elliott was lucky on the start and won one heavily. Later he struck a hoodoo, and dropped all his winnings, all his ready cash, and borrowed $1,000 from Colonel Prather and dropped that, too. A motion picture of the game was taken, and Prather assigned the debt to Colonel Riekey, for value received. Colonel Riekey made a demand on Elliott for payment, but Elliott smiled and said he did not owe anything, and never promised to pay the debt. Thereupon Colonel Riekey sued him in the Circuit Court of Cooper county, and the matter has not yet been passed upon.

LATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

The Presbyterian Church at Chaumont, N. Y., has extended a unanimous vote to the Rev. Mr. Cleveland, brother of the ex-President.

The Sheriff has levied on the property of the Onondaga chair factory of $200,000 value of plant and fixtures.

William Bolander was killed and three other workmen narrowly escaped death by a cave-in which occurred in the Equator mine, near Placerville, Cal.

The commission appointed by Secretary Whitney last January to select a site for a new yard on the Gulf made its report yesterday, and the date of the selection of a site, opposite the lower end of New Orleans.

An Anarchist meeting at Thalia Hall, Chicago, resulted in a lively row in which revolvers were drawn, and, though no one was killed, the prominent men, John Morris and a man named Polycarp Zeiser, were looked up at the station.

Min. No. 8, operated by the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company, at Sugar Notch, is burning. The fire was discovered yesterday morning. The smoke spread throughout the mine and became so stifling that the laborers and miners to the number of 400, who were at the time, had to hastily abandon the mine. Superintendents Phillips and Scott, with a large force of men, are endeavoring to check the flames.

At a meeting Monday night of the Typographical Union of Washington, D. C., a resolution was adopted providing for an eight-hour day which has heretofore prevailed. This resolution was adopted by a vote of 100 to 100, and will result, it is believed, in causing the men in the Government printing office who now work the day time, to work also at night, whenever ordered to do so.

The Philadelphia and Reading Railroad manager, who was questioned and who on actual negotiations have occurred. The English people's representatives merely wanted to see the plan. The manager would not say what figure had been given, but said the reported price of $2,000,000 was at least $1,000,000 below what the directors would consider. In fact, they are not at all certain yet that they are willing to sell.

A Long Felt Want.

On Saturday our store represents a scene fairly bewildering. Customers are crowded and pushed about in their endeavors to be waited on, and we find it necessary to resort to some means to divide the big Saturday rush. Starting this week, we will have an opening for every business in Allegheny, and from the day we announced our cash prices, about three years since, we have had a continual rush. The old landmarks realize how well we are monopolizing the cash buyers, and wonder at the popularity we have attained in so short a time. Ask anyone you meet where is the best place to buy dry goods, cloaks, etc., and they will invariably reply, "If you buy for cash, go to Thornton Bro's. Cash Store. We make no distinction.

Reason With Us. It is not unreasonable to expect an installment house, or an honest dealer that charges goods and waits for six months to eternity for their money, to sell you goods as cheap as a spot cash house. We knew there was an opening for such a business in Allegheny, and from the day we announced our cash prices, about three years since, we have had a continual rush.
