

Al Johnson Means to Have the Great Clarkson. CONSOLIDATION WON'T GO. Alleghenians Put up a Forfeit for a Fire Engine Match.

MCCAFFREY WILL FIGHT FARRELL. Al Johnson, President of the Players' League, makes more interesting statements. Clarkson is to be secured at any price and the consolidation scheme is strongly condemned.

WILMOT'S STATEMENT. He was present at the Brotherhood meeting in New York. He stood up and said that, although he had been reserved by the Washington Club, he was with the Brotherhood, but said he had no objection to act as captain and manager of the St. Paul team, of next year, at a good salary, I may decide to accept the offer.

CLIFTON RACES. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW YORK, December 6.—To-day's races at Clifton were: First race, five furlongs—King Arthur first, Keston second, Time, 1:08.

AGAINST CONSOLIDATION. "It is possible that I shall be outraged, and that clubs will also be placed in Cincinnati, St. Louis, Washington and Indianapolis; but I doubt it. I know that the players generally favor the League, and I am sure that I shall draw, if we try to increase the number of clubs, if we already have a large number of clubs in getting on our list two or three very weak clubs that will never pay expenses. I shall make an earnest fight at the meeting in New York against any new ventures. We are on it right track now. We have grounds picked in eight different cities and clubs picked out that cannot fail to draw crowds. To-day I have signed 'Jersey' Bakely for our list, and I have signed 'Cincinnati' and 'Gruber' and one more first-class man, will make Cleveland a great club."

READY TO RETALIATE. "We can show how almost every clause of the League constitution regarding contests with players, has been grossly violated. When these cases have been settled we shall proceed against the traitors, although we do not want them in the Players' League. We shall assume the defensive, and shall let the League make the first advance."

GOVERNOR BEAVER INVITED TO CO-OPERATE WITH THE GOVERNOR OF TENNESSEE. HARRISBURG, December 6.—Governor Beaver has received the following letter from Governor Taylor of Tennessee: "I am with the Brotherhood, you bet. I have sent you a letter."

IS MILLER WEAKENING? After all the talk it seems that the backers of Alexander Miller are not anxious to match him against McClelland, of this city, for a ten-mile race. Yesterday's McClelland's backer put up a forfeit in the New York Sun office for a race, give or take expenses, but the Pittsburgh backer does not expect it to be conceded. McClelland is extremely disappointed at Miller's hesitancy, particularly after Miller was the challenger.

INCIDENTS OF A DAY IN TWO CITIES CONDENSED FOR READY READING. MICHAEL ROLVANT was committed to jail yesterday afternoon in default of $500 bail for a hearing on Monday before Alderman McClelland on charge of felonious assault. The prosecutor is J. H. Kelly, who claims to have been attacked by Rolvant with a knife on December 5.

CLARKSON TO BE SECURED. Al Johnson, President of the Players' League, makes more interesting statements. Clarkson is to be secured at any price and the consolidation scheme is strongly condemned. A forfeit of $50 is put up toward a wager that an Allegheny fire engine is better than any in Pittsburgh. McCaffrey is ready to fight Pat Farrell.

SPENDTHRIFT STOLE. The Spendthrift staid did not come off here today as advertised. Mr. Bock, the owner, telegraphed to stop it. It is a down outside horse, was sold, bringing $4,000. Favor, by Pat Malloy, was the only horse bringing a good price. Miss Young, Lexington, getting him for $1,000.

WHERE IS CHIEF EVANS? The Alleghenians are patriots without any doubt, and they won't by any means allow their public property to be disparaged without reason. They are now after Chief Evans and his fire engines, and if the Chief is as spirited and patriotic as the Allegheny citizens, he will put up the cash to-day for a very interesting contest. A well-known gentleman from the city across the river left the following statement, accompanying a deposit of $50, with the sporting editor of this paper last evening:

DOMINICK NOW READY TO MEET THE PITTSBURGER UNDER ANY TERMS. Evidently Dominick McCaffrey has changed his mind about not fighting Pat Farrell; at least the following letter received by the writer would indicate so. The letter reads: "If Pat Farrell, the Pittsburgh boxer, wants to fight Dominick McCaffrey, the latter will go him, and will be glad to get the chance. Dominick is out of the saloon business and it would suit him to meet Farrell at any time, under any rules and for any substantial stake at a point within 100 miles of New York."

ELIZABETH WINNERS. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW YORK, December 6.—To-day's races at Elizabeth resulted as follows: First race, five furlongs—Sunshine first, Chaparral second, Time, 1:04.

WENT WITH AMANDA. NOT IN DESOLATE LOCALITIES. You Can Only Be Ejected From a Train in the Habited Places. MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., December 6.—The Supreme Court of the United States has just passed upon questions of great interest to railroad travelers in the case of Hurlbut against the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg Railroad Company. In this case it was shown to the court and jury that the plaintiff bought of the company at a reduced rate a limited ticket specified to be "Good for one continuous passage," from Utica to Watertown. The plaintiff stopped off at the train at Rome, and when he took a subsequent train at that station to complete the journey to Watertown the conductor refused to honor the limited ticket and demanded the regular fare.

THE ESCAPEE COOLLY CARRIED OUT. How the Wool Was Pulled Far Over the Eyes of the Wrenged With. Harry Watts, a prominent merchant and church member of Iona, Ont., has eloped with his wife's young sister, the elopement causes great surprise, for he was considered steady, and the last man to do such a thing.

ONE OF THE BOYS. Years before he had become identified with the Masonic Brotherhood, the Home Circle, and every other society that happened to establish a lodge in his abiding place. He spent most of his evenings with the young men of the village, seeming to prefer the company of the "boys" to that of the elderly citizens.

WATTS' DEBTS. He was steady, paid his debts promptly, and was looked upon as a staid, industrious citizen, good standing in the Methodist Church. He was a capital singer, and speedily was appointed leader of the choir, and later was chosen leader of the Baptist choir as well. After that no entertainment was complete unless superintended by Harry Watts.
