

MURDER AT DUNBAR.

A Young Connellsville Machinist Fatally Shoots a Former Chum.

WHISKY THE CAUSE OF THE CRIME.

Young Lee, of Allegheny, Pleads Guilty to a Murder in Butler County.

NEWSY NOTES FROM TOWNS AROUND

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

CONNELLSVILLE, February 9.—(Marion Crowl), a young machinist, working in a foundry here, visited Dunbar, three miles south of here, this afternoon, and in cold cold blood shot his friend, Joseph Porter.

Both are respectable young men, well known and intelligent. Until a few weeks ago they were employed as brakemen on the Baltimore and Ohio road.

Porter was employed in a brick yard, while Crowl remained in Connellsville. The latter worked at his trade for a few days and then took to drinking.

The room he had hired a train and started for Dunbar with the avowed intention of taking Porter's life. He made this remark to several, but it was not until he reached Dunbar that Crowl reached Dunbar.

ABOUT THE GLOBE DEAL.

The Standard in Possession of Their Late Rival's Works—Only Two Independent Refineries Left—What They Are Doing.

A visit to the Globe Refinery shows that the Standard Oil Company is busily engaged in obliterating any traces of the former ownership, not over a month ago.

All the cars on the sidings are being painted red and lettered "Union Pipe Line Company." There are now in use 100 barrels of crude oil in the works in process of refinement, and about seven weeks' refining will be necessary with it on hand.

A gentleman who is well posted with the speaking of the deal said: "The Standard was a little short in some of the leading oil territory which is in the Butler and Washington county fields. From the crude oil of these only can be made what is called the fine, white, or water oil of a high test."

"This fine territory was nearly entirely in the hands of the independent refiners. The Standard began to reach out for some or all of it, and has now got it. Last summer the Standard got orders for an immense quantity of refined kerosene, but as they could not furnish it, had to buy it of the Globe Refining Company in order to hold the trade on the other grades of oil."

"The Standard Company 250,000 barrels of this white water oil. About 200,000 gallons of this test oil is made every year for Uncle Sam, who has it all shipped to Jeffersonville, Ind."

"The only independent oil works in Pittsburgh now is the Bear Creek and the Waverly. A gentleman who is well posted with the facts of the case said: 'Formerly, when the Standard leased and bought out all the oil works around here, the independent concerns were little more than started and have been running off ever since, without interruption, so far as leasing and selling were concerned.'

Before the deal the Globe Refining Company, or rather before that company was in existence, Mr. Reigard furnished the independent oil works with nearly all their crude oil. He had his pipe lines direct to the works and worked from the Butler and Washington oil fields."

"The Standard company, while they are bound to furnish oil to these refineries through their pipe lines as a common carrier by their State charter, can raise the price of oil and for transporting it. But the operators of the independent refineries are in no way uneasy about that."

RAILROAD MEN'S CONFERENCE.

Important Business Discussed Yesterday by P. L. E. and Nypano People.

A meeting of general superintendents and car accountants of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad and the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio Railroad was held yesterday in an office over the Lake Erie depot on the Southside.

The Nypano people arrived in their special car, according to a preliminary notice, for the purpose of discussing the chief business which came under the meeting was that pertaining to the use and exchange of cars on the common territory of both roads and about Youngstown. This subject was discussed at length and, according to the statement of one of the minor clerks, with some heat. A satisfactory arrangement was finally made, and steps taken to secure better service on the territory. This was the only business of importance brought before the meeting, though it lasted until 5 o'clock.

AN AFFECTING MEETING.

The Leuceny Mrs. Weimer Exerted Toward Her Old Nurse.

Winnie Robinson, who showed a propensity for appropriating other people's property by wholesale, was yesterday released from custody through the kindness of Mrs. John A. Weimer, the principal victim of the enlargement of the bump of acquisitiveness in Winnie's cranium.

It appeared that Mrs. Weimer had been nursed by Winnie from infancy until she was about 15 years of age, and the meeting between Mrs. Weimer and her old nurse in the Central station yesterday was one of the most affecting that has ever been seen in this place, where peculiar incidents of an every-day occurrence. Mrs. Weimer put her arm around the neck of the woman who cared for her in childhood, and the colored woman clasped her around the neck and wept in a manner to remind people of the two who were together, and the old days in the South, when the beautiful woman wept and cried to her old black "mammy."

Catarrh

Is a blood disease. Until the poison is expelled from the system, there can be no relief from this insidious and dangerous malady. Therefore, the only effective treatment is a thorough course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood purifiers. The sooner you begin the better; delay is dangerous.

"I was troubled with catarrh for over two years. I tried various remedies and was treated by a number of physicians, but received no benefit until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me of this troublesome complaint and completely restored my general health."

"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me for catarrh, I was inclined to doubt its efficacy. Having tried so many remedies, with little benefit, I had no faith that anything would cure me. I became emancipated from loss of appetite and impaired digestion, and my system was badly deranged. I was about discouraged, when I began to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and referred me to persons whom I had cured of catarrh. After taking half a dozen bottles of this medicine, I am convinced that the only cure was of treating this obstinate disease is through the blood."

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Price 25¢; six bottles, $1.50. Worth 50¢ a bottle.
