HE STABBED WILSON.

Andrew Heiser Placed on Trial for His Life Yesterday.

REFUSES A LOOPHOLE OF ESCAPE.

Lawyers Bring Suit for $813 Legal Pees Against the Ursuline Nuns.

A BIG BOILER INSURANCE SUIT.

$10,000 Claim. Andrew Heiser, who stabbed Charles Wilson on April 24, of the present year, was placed on trial for his life yesterday. He refused an offer to be allowed to plead voluntary manslaughter, and will stand trial. A boiler insurance case in which $10,000 damages are wanted.

years of age, and at the time of the murder was employed as a man of all work by Mrs.

Short a residual of Wishladds and work by Mrs. Scott, a resident of Winebiddle avenue. Wilson was colored, about 25 years of age and single, and worked for Mr. C. B. Mc-Cleane, who resides a short distance from Mrs. Scott. On the day in question, Mrs. Scott sent Heiser to Mr. McCleane's to borraw an ax. Heiser and Wilson had a dispute and Heiser stabbed Wilson in the stomach, causing Wilson's death May 3t. Yesterday morning was occupied in obtain-ing a jury, the following being finally selected: A. J. Voelbrecht, J. B. Onstatt, Heary Hart, Thomas Hughes, Oscar Hoffman, Lysander Fos-ter, Michael Foley, George W. Smith, John Gil-more, Robert Caughey, Hugh Kuox and Robert E. Culp.

District Attorney Porter conducted the pros-ecution, and John S. Robb and Messra. Guthrie, Macrum and Martin appeared for the defense.

A MILD OPENING. District Attorney Porter opened the case merely defining the law and asking for a verdict in accordance with the evidence.

James Marshall was the first witness called He said he was a teamster, and the day of the cutting was driving along Winebiddle avenue.

He saw Heiser and Wilson coming out of McCleane's place. They were talking loud McCleane's place. They were taking fould and turned down toward Penn avenue. The colored man then struck Heiser twice on the head. Heiser immediately struck the colored man in the stomach. The colored man then went back into McCleane's place and Heiser went up the street. He told the witness that he had cut the man and showed the knife. Fritz Fisher, a boy, was the next witness. He corroborated Marshall as to the occurrence and said that after the cutting Heiser said: "That's the first man I've stuck and I hope he'll die."

Mrs. Fisher and Thomas McConnell gave the Mrs. Fisher and Thomas McConnell gave the same testimony. Upon cross-examination the witnesses said that when the two mon came out of McCleane's place. Wilson was a few feet behind Heiser and apparently driving him away. Dra. Stanb and Johnston testitled as to the nature of Wilson's wound. The cut was in the center of the abdomen, and Incerated the lining of the stomach, producing inflammation. Wilson sank stendily, and died on May 30.

A NICE LEGAL POINT. Alderman Porter testified to having taken Wilson's dying deposition just after the cut-ting. The admission of the deposition was ob-jected to by Mr. Robb on account of the length and Wilson's death. Judge Single reserved his decision on the point.

Police Captain Brophy produced the knife—a large pocketknife—with which the cutting had been done.

Mrs. Scott testified to having sent Heiser for the ax, and Mr. McCleane testified to Wilson working for him. At this point Court adjourned until morning. The defense, as indicated so far, is self-defense.

District Attorney Porter yesterday was willing to accept a plea of gullty of voluntary manelsaughter, but that Heiser refused to make. His attorneys advised accepting the offer, but

His attorneys advised accepting the offer, but Heiser insisted on standing trial. He said that after remaining in jail for seven months he Mesers. Greetzinger Want the Insurance for Exploded Botlers.

The case of A. & J. Groetzinger against the Hartford Steam Boiler Inspection Insurance Company is on trial before Judge Stowe. The suit is to recover $10,000 insurance on the boil-suit st to recover $10,000 insurance on the boilers in Groetzingers' tannery, Allegheny, that blew up on July 8, 1888. The suit is a closely contested one, and will determine just when an insurance contract is consummated.

A few days before the socident happened the agent of the insurance company met Mr. Groetzinger in regard to insuring the boilers. Mr. Groetzinger was very busy, and the matter was delayed awhile. He finally attreed to insure the boilers and paid the price. $165. The boilers, however, had yet to be inspected, and July 12 was fixed for the inspection, work having to be stopped while this was being done. The policy was not to be given until the inspection was made, and on July 8 the boilers burst. The firm claimed the insurance. $10,000, on the ground that they had paid for it and the company had agreed to insure. The insurance company refused to pay, asserting that the insurance did not go into effect until the inspection of the boilers had taken place.

Cuticura at a cost of $3 75. Cured by Cuticura

I have used the CUTICURA EXMEDIES with the best results. I used two hottles of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, three boxes of CUTICURA and one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, and am cured of a terrible skin and scalp disease known as psorials. I had it for eight years. It would get better and worse at times. Hometimes my head would be a solid scab, and was at the time I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. My arms were covered with scabs from my elbows to shoulders, my breast was almost one solid scab, and my back covered with sorie varying in size from a penny to a dollar. I had doctored with all the best doctors with no relief, and used many different medicines without effect. My case was hereditary, and, I began to think, incurable, but it began to heal from the first application of CUTICURA.

ARCHER HUSSELLL, Deshler, Ohio,

A Grateful Mother

I thank you for your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and feel that in doing so I might be able to save some person from a heavy dector's bill, which I know it has done for me. My baby was seven weeks old when I began to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES for a disease which had spread itself all over its head and face. I was nearly distracted; had been to the doctor's, but got no astisfaction. Before two days' use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES the scals began to loosen, and in three weeks I could hardly believe that it was the baby that I used to dread prople seeing. He is perfectly cured, and has a beautiful growth of hair counting. I am very grateful to you, and you are at liberty to use this, if it will be a help to any one.
